ACREAGE

"TILLAMOOK COUNTY FARM FOR SALE"
Rollie W. Watson, Tillamook, Oregon, has for sale two hundred and fifty four acres of as fine a dairy and stock ranch at a price that must move at once and the terms to handle it can hardly be duplicated for any such price or consideration.
Take a look at this place at once and you will agree that it is all that is said about it.
Two hundred and fifty-four acres in the land of cheese, trees and ocean breeze. Running water, firewood and an unlimited outrange for stock pasturage, and on the main highway between Dolph and Hebo on Alder Creek, in Tillamook County, Oregon.
The main highway fronts this place and carries the traffic for all tourists, passenger, freight, express and mail service from Tillamook county to Willamette valley points and to Portland.
Two hour service for market between Corvallis, Salem and Portland, for market conditions and for purchases and sales. All products find ready sales market delivery per cash from the place; likewise deliveries made to the place.
Livable house, barn for 12 cows, team, garage for two cars, root house, chicken house and smoke-house.
Growing crops consist of new seeded meadow and pasture which is at this time showing good development and will more than fill the barn with a new crop of oats, clover and mixed hay. There are no livestock, farm implements or tools included in this sale and no trades or equities will be considered. The sale price, is $4000.00, with $1000.00 cash, balance payable 6% interest, $200.00 per year and proportional payments to be made from milk checks received from the place. ADDRESS ROLLIE W. WATSON, TILLAMOOK, OREGON.

FABRICATORS STILL TAKING MUCH WOOL

Prices are Firm to Slightly Dearer for Week With Trading Moderate

BOSTON, Juyl 21. — (AP) — The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Wool prices are firm to slightly dearer for the week on moderate trading in the seaboard markets. This applies to all qualities of wool but more especially to the medium grades, which are getting relatively scarce.

"The manufacturers continue to consume a very large quantity of wool. It is estimated that about 40 per cent of the new domestic clip already has passed into the hands of the manufacturers, and rather less than 10 per cent of the clip is still left in the hands of the growers.

"Foreign markets keep very firm. London, which slipped about 5 per cent all around Monday, recovered its loss later in the week and closed firm at about opening levels.

"Mohair is in moderate demand and firm on last week's price basis."

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations:

Scoured basis:

Oregon — Fine and F. M. staple 76-78c, fine and F. M. Fr. combing 73-75c, fine and F. M. clothing 70-71c; valley No. 1 70-73c.

Mohair:

Oregon — 23-25c. Domestic graded, first combing 38-40c, second combing 33-35c, third combing 27-30c, fourth combing 23-25c; good carding 30-32c; first kid 60-63c, second kid 50-53c.

Joint Meeting of Holy Name Units Will be Sunday

SUBLIMITY, July 21—A joint meeting will be held by the Holy Name units of eight various units of Marion county here July 23. A large gathering is anticipated. The first joint meeting was held at Stayton in June, when the federation was organized.

Rev. Father Francis Scherbring has spent most of the week in Seattle.

Irvin Schumacher who has a sour cherry orchard is almost finished picking and delivering to the Stayton cannery.

Mike Benedict who is having a residence built next to his service station, has several men at work digging a well in the basement.

WINNIPEG WHEAT STEADIES FRIDAY

EXCHANGE CUBE CUTS DISREGARDED

Export Business is Largest in Weeks; Cent Lower

WINNIPEG, July 21—(AP)—The largest export business in several weeks and firmer Liverpool cables than had been expected, combined to steady wheat futures on the local grain exchange today after two days of plunging quotations and the market closed easy, unchanged to one cent lower.

In comparison with Thursday's panicky session the market presented a quiet appearance. Late in the session traders were reporting an export business of close to 2,000,000 bushels. Everything offered over night was quickly taken by importers and more was sold during the morning.

Chicago traders, with their own market closed, continued liquidation of their Winnipeg accounts and were the most noticeable sellers. Weather and crop news played a small part in operations, though only slight precipitation over widely scattered points was confirmed.

Cash grains trading was dormant. A wild drop of 22 cents in flax at one time featured coarse grains. Further declines were recorded in other grains but values recovered a little and were fairly firm throughout.

Wheat closed:

July, 78⅛; Oct., 80⅝; Dec., 82¼.

Cash wheat: No. 1, Northern 78⅛; No. 2, Northern 75⅞; No. 3, Northern 73⅛.

Fourth Auction Of Wool Ended On London Mart

LONDON, July 21. — (AP) — At the closing today of the fourth wool auction, 8542 bales were offered of which 6565 were sold. A good selection was offered for sale with Merinos in smaller supply than usual. The sales opened with a strong demand but eased around the end of the second and early part of the third week although the tone was animated during the last few days. Merinos close wer close 20 to 25 per cent higher than the last series, while crossbreds, fine, advanced 20 per cent and medium and coarse grades were 10 to 15 per cent dearer. Capes were also 20 to 25 per cent higher and Punta Arenas closed 10 per cent dearer. The home trade bought 62,000 bales during the series, the continent 66,500 and America 2000, while 45,000 bales were held over to the next series.

Premiums Being Paid; Excitement Rules In Berry Market

PORTLAND, July 21—(AP)—Strength of the butter trade was suggested in operations on the open market for both prints and cubes. The late cut in the price on first cubes was not suggested on the open market where all scores were held firm irrespective of the price shown on the produce exchange.

Premiums over the exchange price list continued to be offered and paid for cubes on the open market was ½c lb. below the exchange list.

Butterfat continued firm.

Market for eggs showed general steadiness locally for top grade stuff during the day but some weakness was suggested in spots for storage and undergrades. Much storage stock was being offered as fresh goods.

Chicken market remains very slow but without quotable price changes for the day.

Considerable excitement was showing in the market for berries as a result of the sudden and liberal increase in demand and inadequate supply. Loganberries and raspberries were chiefly affected.

There was an acute shortage of apricots in the trade and prices on Californian and Yakima stock were firm to higher.

Market for celery retained a good tone and firm price generally with most sales for shipment $1.75 half crate. One car was recently reported at $2 but $1.75 took the balance of the business.

STREET IS WILDEST SINCE 1929 CRASH

NEW YORK, July 21—(AP)—Stock prices crashed today in the wildest and most active market since the 1929 collapse.

Shares of all descriptions, high grade and low grade, were thrown into the maelstrom of sinking values without benefit of bids or support from short covering. It was the sort of rout that, at one time, seemed impossible to stop. But last minute reinforcements of "bargain hunters" arrived and losses of 3 to 17 or more points were pared or substantially reduced.

The sales volume was the heaviest since October, 1929, with 9,592,570 shares changing hands.

Homestake mining dived off the deep end for a loss of 37 points, but emerged with a net decline of only 17 points. Casualties at the finish, of 3 to 7 or more points, included U. S. Steel, Du Pont, Chrysler, Auburn, Baltimore and Ohio, United Aircraft, Union Pacific, National Distillers, American Tobacco B, American Can, Owens-Illinois, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, International Harvester, Westinghouse, Anaconda, General Motors, American Telephone, Lackawanna, Allied Chemical, Montgomery Ward, Western Union, N. Y. Central, Loew's and American Commercial Alcohol.

Brantley in Jail on Minor Charge, Dallas

DALLAS, July 21.—Charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, which were made against Lee Douglas of Dallas, some time ago, were dismissed recently at the request of District Attorney Barnhart. Douglas had been at liberty under a $500 bond.

Walter F. Brantley, held on the same charge, is in jail here waiting grand jury action on the charge against him. His bond was placed at $1500 which he failed to raise. The case involves a 17-year-old Dallas girl who disappeared some time ago and was later found in company with Brantley near Detroit in Marion county. Brantley was one of the owners of the Model Meat market here, which closed recently, and Douglas was working for him.

Man Jailed, Dallas, On Exposure Charge

DALLAS, July 21—Leonard Hardy of McMinnville was arrested Wednesday at Grand Ronde on a charge of indecent exposure and was brought to jail here Wednesday afternoon by State Police Officer Grenfel. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Gregory Thursday morning for a hearing and the hearing was continued until Saturday. The charge is an indictable one and it is possible that grand jury action may be required.
