JOHN NEELY HEADS YAMHILL I. O. O. F.

Dayton Lodge Host to County Session, With 100 Guests Present

DAYTON, Oct. 20.—More than 100 Odd Fellows and their wives from Portland, Gervais, McMinnville, Newberg, Carlton, Sheridan, Lafayette, Willamina and Yamhill attended the Yamhill county convention held at the Dayton I. O. O. F. temple Wednesday night.

Election of officers resulted in John Neely of Willamina being chosen president; Belle Belcher of Lafayette vi e-president; Orla Williams of Dayton secretary; Theodore Rossner of Dayton treasurer.

A program of readings and song by the Dayton membership assisted by grand officers was a feature.

Included among the past and present grand officers attending were: Joseph Switzer of Portland, grand high priest of the encampment; George Houck, member of the Portland Home board; Sig Harris of Gervais, Grand junior warden of the encampment; Fred Meindle and Homer D. Angel, both of Portland, past grand masters; J. H. Nelson of McMinnville, past grand master and also grand treasurer; L. A. Rossner of Dayton, past grand chaplain; W. A. Morand of Boring, assistant grand secretary.

Naomi Rebekah lodge of Dayton served a chicken supper at 11 o'clock.

The next convention will be held at Yamhill, the date to be announced later.
