Granger's News Column

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Jan. 21.—Undaunted by a 12-inch snowfall, a good crowd attended the box social and program given Friday night by the Popcorn community club. The auction of lunches netted $20.

The excellent home talen program included four short plays: "What is Keeping Laura;" "Look Out for Louise;" "Plenty Room for Argument;" "Bewitchin' Bewitch;" musical interpretations in costume of old songs; vocal solos by Mrs. Angie Jefferson and James Jefferson; quartet, Mrs. Jefferson, Mrs. Perry DeLap, Charles Roy and James Jefferson; harmonica and guitar numbers, Leland Cannoy and James B. Best, music by the local orchestra.

HAZEL GREEN, Jan. 21.—The Community club promises an exceptionally good program Friday night, January 25. The following are the numbers: men's chorus, Salem songsters, C. B. Gloria directing; violin solo, Miss Bremmer; reading, Miss Fern Shelton; children's chorus; vocal solo, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert; play by the upper grade; men's chorus, Salem songsters; violin solo, Miss Bremmer.

The play planned for the January meeting will be given at a later date, sickness has made it impossible to practice regularly. The student body of the school will have a candy sale to buy electric toasters for the lunch room.

DAYTON, Jan. 21.—Despite the presence of the unusually deep snow, a good attendance greeted the regular monthly business meeting and program of the Unionvale community club held Friday night. Election of officers resulted: president, Ed Clow; vice-president, Mrs. Virgil Dixon; secretary, Mrs. Irvin Sion; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Withee. The program was: reading, Lydia Withee; music, Virgil Dixon and Irvin Sion; reading, Ed Clow; harmonica, Arthur Stoutenburg; reading, Louis French; harmonica and banjo, Gordon and Ross Duzan of Dayton; Unionvale newspaper, Arnold Braat.

The three act comedy "Hands Up" will be presented at the February meeting.

Butter and Fat Advance

GENERAL CUTS ARE MADE, EGG MARKET

PORTLAND, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Butter prices were lifted 1-2c generally for all cubes except firsts which advanced 1c on the exchange and now effective in the print trade. The advance was made in face of well maintained churning operations. Butterfat was advanced 1c lb.

General cuts in the egg market were forced by the exchange, a loss of 1c being shown for all offerings except pullets, which are no longer quoted by that body. Buying prices were reduced even more by some operators.

Extreme strength was suggested in the cheese trade during the last week. Practically no changes were shown in general prices.

Quite firm demand for turkeys to go into storage was shown with offerings of 24c for young toms and 22c for hens by some operators. Local market was steady for fresh consumption.

Market for live chickens showed a firm tone with some suggestion of an additional advance over last week. Resales by commission men were reported fractionally higher.

Good market for country killed meats was continued along the wholesale way with the only exception of heavy calves, which were about holding their own. Hogs and lambs were strong.

Sharp advance in the price of quality local cabbage was forced during the day when supplies became scarce and demand keen. Some sales in small lots to retailers were as high as 2 1-2-3c lb.

Rather quiet tone was reported in the potato trade. Local interest was at low ebb with little trading. Redmond reported liberal lots of the Deschutes stock were moving to California but prices were unchanged.

WHEAT PRICES CUT TWO CENTS BUSHEL

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Uncertainties associated with indefinite deferring of a gold decision by the United States supreme court tumbled wheat prices down 2 cents a bushel today.

Notable liquidating sales of wheat on the part of commission houses and foreign interests took place, but partial rallies in prices followed on account of buying ascribed to mills and to traders who previously were sellers. A decrease of 2,952,000 bushels in the United States wheat visible supply was largely overlooked, and so too were reports that coldest weather of the year had caught much domestic winter wheat unprotected by snow.

Wheat closed nervous, ⅝ to 1 cent under Saturday's finish, May 97⅝-⅞ oats, unchanged to ⅝ off, and provisions varying from 15 cents decline to 12 cents advance.

Today's closing quotations:
Wheat: May 97⅝-⅞; July 88⅝-⅞; Sept. 87-87⅛.
Corn: March 89⅞; May 86⅝-⅞; July 81⅞-82; Sept. 78¾.
Oats: May 52⅛; July 45⅝; Sept. 42.

DELAY OF DECISION ACCEPTED CALMLY

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Wall street defintely learned with composure today that no decision was to be expected from the supreme court in the gold clause cases before February 4 at the earliest.

A few specialties appeared ambitious on the constructive side of the stock market. Steel preferred shares, as well as a few other senior stocks, attracted a fair following for advances of 1 to more than 4 points including issues of U. S. Steel at 91, up 2; Bethlehem Steel at 76⅝, up 3⅝; Republic certificates at 49, up 1⅛, and Wheeling Steel at 57, up 4⅛.

General apathy was further evidenced by a turnover of 687,760 shares, and a narrow change of .24 of a point in the Associated Press average for 60 selected stocks at 39.83.

National Steel and Inland Steel apparently received little stimulus from an unofficial report that negotiations were underway to merge the two concerns. The stocks gained about a half-point each.

Cauliflower Code Effective Today, Gehlhar Reports

A new deal in marketing under the cauliflower code becomes effective today, Max Gehlhar, director of the state agricultural department, announced today.

The new marketing agreement provides that all sales must be for cash and no consignments are permitted. The sale of culls is prohibited.

Minimum prices will not be
