DROUGHT'S SPREAD LIFTS GRAIN PRICE

CHICAGO, April 20.—(AP)—Eastward spread of drought in United States winter wheat territory, together with a sharp rise of securities, did much to hoist grain values today.

Corn jumped to above all high price records that May contracts have attained since last December, and to within a cent of the season's topmost level. Increased fears were expressed by traders that a price squeeze in May corn was threatened owing to scarcity of available supplies.

Wheat closed firm, 1¼-1⅜c higher than Thursday's finish, May, $1.01½-⅝, corn 1⅛-1⅜c up, May 91⅜-½c, oats ⅜c to 1c advanced, and provisions showing 5c to 20c gain.

Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: May $1.01-⅝, July $1.00⅞-1.01, September $1.01⅜-1.01½.

Corn: May 9y⅜-½c, July 84⅞-85c, September 79⅞c.

Oats: May 50⅜c, July 43⅜c, September 40⅞c.

German Program At Y. Is Heard By Large Crowd

With the customary capacity crowd the fifth of the "national" programs was given in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. Friday night.

The program which was entirely in German, both songs and speeches, was of great interest to the crowd.

The sixth program will be sponsored and given by Norwegians and will be given in the native language. The date is tentative but will likely be given on May 3.
