NEW DEAL INCREASES FARM IMPORTS FROM CANADA 10 FOLD

THE AMERICAN FARMER seems shocked at what he sees coming over the Canadian border. Do you blame him?

Here are a few of the increases in Canadian imports for January of this year over January 1935, which the New Deal Reciprocal Trade agreement has caused:

Wool, 22 fold; pork, 17 fold; cheese, 12 fold; potatoes, 11 fold; poultry, 10 fold; cattle, 8 fold; beef, 6 fold; and horses, 6 fold. The average increase in the imports just listed has been 10 to 1 over January a year ago, thus depriving the American farmer of these sales.

This flooding of the American market with Canadian farm products cannot be balanced by "soil conservation" Government checks or other artificial methods.

Saanen Goat From Bransom's Herd Sold to Breeder in Massachusetts; Doe, Age Three, Has Milking Record

SCIO, May 6.—Mrs. Jay Bransom of Scio this week shipped a kid goat to New Bedford, Massachusetts. The two-months old kid is a purebred registered Saanen and one of a noted herd.

June, 1936, will mark the 20th year that Mr. and Mrs. Bransom have been engaged in raising purebred goats. Their largest herd was on their farm near Falls City about 10 years ago, and numbered 200. They have also been in the goat business in Dallas. They came to Scio a few months ago, and plan to continue with registered Saanens at their home on south Main street, where they have pasture facilities for a small herd.

The kid recently shipped to the eastern state will bring a price of $20, a low for registered stock, Mrs. Bransom states. The Bransoms have shipped kids and milk-goats to every state in the union, and to Alaska and the island of Guam.

"Rosie Ponselle," a purebred Toggenburg doe, brought the highest price, $300, of any in the Bransom herd. She was sold as a two-year-old to a buyer in Salt Lake City in 1923. The Bransoms paid $100 for her before birth.

"Gloranna," one of the registered Saanen does now at the Bransom place in Scio, has not freshened for two years, but continues to give more than a gallon of milk a day. Mrs. Bransom proudly invites skeptics to view this three-year-old's production at any milking time.

Mrs. Bransom has shown prize goats many times at the state fair in Salem.
