Two Lewises Are Sought for Scrap

NEW YORK, July 28.—(AP)—Elwood Rigby, Pittsburgh promoter, today offered Joe Louis $450,000 to defend his heavyweight title against John Henry Lewis, light-heavyweight titleholder, in September at either Forbes field or the University of Pittsburgh stadium.

Rigby also made offers of $25,000 each to Bob Pastor and James J. Braddock, ex-heavyweight king, for bouts with Lewis.

Big Boys Start Training

NEW YORK, July 28.—(AP)—Tommy Farr, the Welsh challenger and Joe Louis were in their training camps at Long Branch and Pompton Lakes, N. J., today ready to get down to serious training for their heavyweight title bout in the Yankee stadium, August 26.

Dark Horse From Utah Golf Threat

SALT LAKE CITY, July 28—(AP)—Ed Kingsley, 22, Utah's mighty atom who tied for high place among qualifiers for the national amateur golf tournament, set bespectacled sights today on Portland, Ore. — with a prayer it doesn't rain.

Kingsley is little known in national competition—and he's glad of it.

"It's great stuff being an unknown," he said. "I want to stay that way until after the national amateur. The pressure isn't so great."

The chunky Utahan blasted Fort Douglas army course for 137, seven under par, to tie Johnny Goodman of Omaha for top position among the nation's qualifiers. The day was warm and dry.

That's the way Ed wants it at Portland, for the spectacles he wears are a necessity to his game. A little dampness does his spectacles—and his game—no good.

Multnomah Clean Sheriff Declares

PORTLAND, July 28—(AP)—Multnomah county is free from gambling with the exceptions of Gresham and Portland, Sheriff Martin T. Pratt said in a letter to John A. Jeffrey, district manager of the Townsend club.

The sheriff said that while a Gresham ordinance licensing certain types of slot machines was "undoubtedly a violation of the law," he believed it was "their own particular business."

"So far as Troutdale, Corbett and Bonneville or other places in the country are concerned, I again say there is no organized gambling," the letter said.

Cramer First for Education Degree

EUGENE, July 28.—(AP)—The first city school head in the state to attain the honor, John F. Cramer, superintendent at The Dalles, has completed requirements for the degree of doctor of education, University of Oregon officials announced today.

His thesis deals with a comparison of the Australian and American systems of education.

John Francis Cramer was graduated from Willamette university in 1920 and has been head of The Dalles schools for two years. He previously was a school executive at Grants Pass.
