Clan Reunion Sunday Event

Pettyjohn - Edwards Group Has Meet at Riverdale, Officers Elected

JEFFERSON — The Pettyjohn and Edwards clan held their annual reunion last Sunday at Riverdale park. Dinner was served on the banks of the river. Louis Pettyjohn of Willamina is the only surviving relative of the original Pettyjohn family.

The afternoon meeting was called to order by B. D. Fidler as the president, L. D. Pettyjohn, and vice-president, Claude Edwards, were both absent. Nellie Fidler acted as secretary in place of Reba Edwards.

There being no prepared program, each one present was asked to make a speech, put on a stunt, or pay a fine. Many laughable features were presented. G. Bowen gave an interesting talk on the life of Louis and Sarah Pettyjohn and Millie Raine, whom he knew when a boy. Winnie Pettyjohn gave a history of the Cox and Rains families.

Motion was made that an invitation be extended the Rains family to attend the reunions.

New Officers Chosen

The following officers were elected: President, Louis Pettyjohn, Mehama; vice-president, Will Edwards, Mehama; secretary-treasurer, Maude Blackwell, Jefferson; historian, Lena Hughes, Portland; program committee, Nan Pettyjohn, Golda Edwards and Ida Teckenberg.

Relatives who joined the clan this year are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Teckenberg, Macleay; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Knighten, Salem, and G. Bowen and Merle Bowen of Silverton.

Others present were Mrs. Maude Blackwell, Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Knighten, Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn, Mr. and Mrs. D. Pettyjohn, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Fidler and Jeanne, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Fidler of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Will Edwards and Kenneth of Lincoln, J. C. Fidler, Mrs. Ora Francis and daughter, Versa, of Cutler City, G. Bowen and daughter, Merle, Silverton.

Heir to Throne of Bulgaria

This photo, first taken of Crown Prince Simeon of Tirnovo, heir to the Bulgarian throne, was posed in the palace at Sofia as his four-year-old sister, Princess Maria Luise, played nursemaid. Crown Prince Simeon was born to King Boris and Queen Joanna on June 16.

Worker at Suver Receives Injury

SUVER—Leslie Davis, employed by Wesley Kester, met with a painful accident Friday while at work. Three ribs were broken and Davis is in the Corvallis hospital where he is recovering.

Dave Purvine, Fred Falk and Alton Benedict are owners of new combines. Eugene Freese has bought a new threshing machine. Mr. Freese hopes to do much threshing in this district.

Little Linda Benedict celebrated her first birthday Wednesday at the home of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Conger.

Willis Allen has gone to Prineville to work in the hay fields and expects to be gone a month.

Mrs. Eunice Flickinger is having a new barn built on her farm here. Jake Rohner has also erected a new barn. Both old structures on these farms fell under the heavy snow last winter.

Word has been received by friends and relatives of the birth of a baby daughter July 25 to Mr. and Mrs. Loren Steptae of Pedee. This is the fourth child and third daughter.

Red Cross Slates Swimming Course For Lebanon Folk

LEBANON—(Special)—The Linn county American Red Cross is starting a "Learn-to-Swim" campaign Monday morning, August 2, at 9:30.

Lee Utley will be the intructor under the direction of Reed Clark, recreational director for Lebanon. Mrs. Ferris White will also assist. Mrs. White is Red Cross examiner for the county.

The city council has granted permission to use the new city swimming beach on the Santiam river for the classes.

These classes are free to all who wish to take advantage of them. Non-swimmers will be taught from 9:30-10:30 a.m.; beginners and swimmers from 10:30-11:30 a.m.; and life saving students and adults from 7 to 8 p.m.

3 Sunday Schools Join for Picnic

LEBANON—The annual joint picnic of the Church of Christ Sunday schools of Lebanon, Holley and Sweet Home was held last Sunday at Bate's park following the Sunday school hour and the communion at the local church.

O. P. Burris, former Lebanon pastor, now of Sweet Home, preached his farewell sermon before going to California to take work. Mr. Springer, a 90-year-old member from Holley, gave an historical talk. Rev. Stephens of Lebanon led the singing and Asa Smith of Sweet Home entertained with a solo.

At the close of the program Berlin Sunday school accepted an invitation to become a member of the group.

Swimming was a diversion of the young people.

Mrs. E. L. Clark was hostess Wednesday to the Presbyterian missionary society, with about 25 present, including members and guests. Mrs. Laura Gatchell presided over the business meeting at which reports were given and letters from missionaries read. Mrs. S. M. Garland led the program on the topic of "Prayer." Articles on the topic were presented by members.

Solos were rendered by Miss Clara Cheadle, Mrs. Hugh Kirkpatrick and LeRoy O'Brien, with Mrs. Kirkpatrick accompanist.

Rickey Travelers Find Beauty, Northwest Trip

RICKEY—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Horner have returned from a vacation motor trip which included the Oregon beaches, eastern Oregon with a stop at Mr. Horner's brother, Charles Horner, at Condon, through Walla Walla, the Yakima country and Rainier national park.

While there were many beautiful scenes, the outstanding thing to the Horners in the national park were the profuse and beautiful snow flowers.

Another Baxter

New president of Williams college, Williamstown, Mass., Dr. James P. Baxter, III, will take office in September, when the resignation of Dr. Tyler Dennett becomes effective. Dr. Baxter, a Williams alumnus and a professor of history at Harvard, is an international authority on naval affairs.
