Community Club Meets, Liberty

LIBERTY — The Community club met last night for the first time this fall. Joseph Watt, vice president, conducted the meeting. The resignation of Mrs. Mason Bishop, who was elected as president last spring without her presence or consent, was presented and accepted. Mrs. John Dasch, Mrs. E. C. Free and Rolland Jory were appointed as nominating committee to select new candidates for the chairmanship. Mrs. John Van Loh is the club's secretary for the year.

A food auction was held and sale of goods, donated by Salem firms, netted the local hot lunch fund nearly $22. R. C. Jory acted as auctioneer.

A program of music was given bythe Jacquith Music company and C. W. Stacey showed motion pictures of the Pendleton Roundup and activity on a fur farm. Jacqueline and Johnny Van Loh played on their accordions during the refreshment hour.

Ice cream, cake, and coffee, furnished by the Capitol Dairies, Benson and Cherry City bakeries, were served to the crowd.
