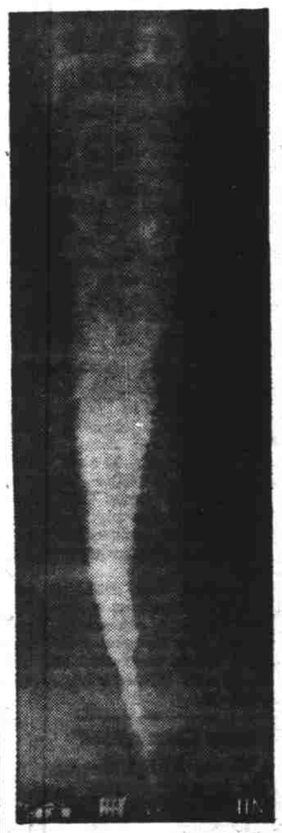
A Tornado?



A tornado? No, but it looks like a twister, doesn't it? The plume in the sky over the municipal airport at Kansas City, Mo., is the frozen trail left by an army pursuit plane. The picture, strangely enough, was taken 20 minutes after the plane passed over the airport. Condensed moisture from exhausts of the plane was frozen into a white cloud.

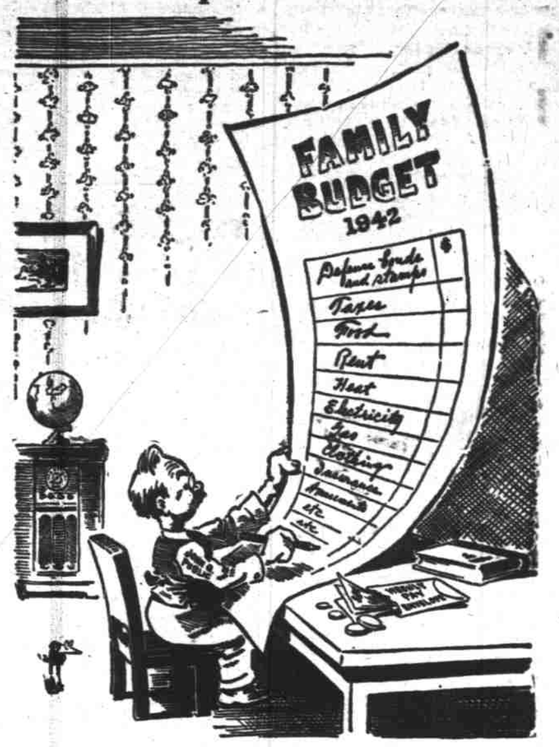
At the Top of the Must List



FORT BRAGG, NC—(AP)—Pvt. Atlas Thomas reported to his superior officer that an emergency had developed at his home in Jonesboro and he urgently needed a pass.

Pressed for details, Thomas produced a letter from his mother explaining that his younger brother was about to trade his mule and she feared he might come out second best in the trade without his brother's counsel.

Pvt. Thomas got the pass.

"Tain't Funny, McGee" But Molly is wrong for once, because RKO Radio's new feature, "Look Who's Laughing," now showing at the Elsinore through Thursday, is one of the funniest films ever made in Hollywood. "Look Who's Laughing" presents the fuddled Fibber and Molly in their screen debut, and for extra good measure the picture also stars Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCathy and Lucille Ball. Almost all the folks from Wistful Vista are on hand, too: Gildersleeve, Mrs. Uppington, Old Timer and Sis. 'Tis funny Molly!
