Longer Week Talked—Restoration of the 48-hour week for men in the Marion county shops and on the road crews was advocated Friday by Commissioner Ralph Girod, in part as a means of making up for the loss of county employes who have gone into defense industries. For about a year county shop and road workmen have been on a 44-hour week. The addition of four hours to their week would give them additional hourly wages and put road work on a full six-day-a-week basis.

Two Workers Die—There were two fatalities due to industrial accidents in Oregon during the week ended March 26, the state industrial accident commission reported Friday. The victims were William Earl Boyd, Portland, steam fitter, and John R. Dunn, Timber, choker setter. There were 828 industrial accidents reported to the commission during the week.

Expected on Campus—Tony Fraiola, Willamette university sophomore and football lineman, is expected back on the campus soon. He has been convalescing at the home of Vinal Randall, a Willamette student, in Cottage Grove after a serious stomach ailment which kept him in the Salem General hospital for several days.

Palm Sunday Plans Told

Special Church Rites Mark Holy Week at Mt. Angel Parish

MT. ANGEL—Holy week services begin Sunday morning at Mt. Angel when palms are blessed and distributed to the congregation before the solemn high mass at 10:30 a.m.

After the solemn high mass at 9 a.m. on Holy Thursday, at which almost the entire parish will receive holy communion, no bells will be rung until Saturday morning. Communion will be distributed at 6:30 a.m. to those who find it impossible to attend the community mass.

Following the mass there will be adoration of the blessed sacrament for the rest of the day, all through the night, and until 9 o'clock Good Friday morning, when the mass of the presanctified will be sung, and the unveiling and adoration of the cross take place. The Way of the Cross will be said in the church at 2 p.m. Friday.

On all three nights, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the Tenebrae services will be held at 7:30 p.m.

On Saturday morning there will be the blessing of the Easter and baptismal water at 7:30 a.m., followed by high mass at 8:30 a.m.

The solemn resurrection services with procession and singing by the entire parish will take place at 7:30 p.m. Saturday night.

Final Sermons On Prayer Set For Sunday

Concluding sermons in a series of four on "Prayer" will be given by Rev. W. Irvin Williams at the First Presbyterian church Sunday. In the morning Rev. Williams will speak on the theme "Prayer and Personality," and the senior choir will sing the anthem "Jerusalem, A" Parker.

The vested youth choir of 35 voices, which is directed by Virginia Ward Elliott, will make its first apearance at a morning service and will sing the anthem "The Palms" (Faure). Josephine Bross, senior choir soprano, will sing a solo part in the youth choir number.

A reception for new members will be held at the morning service. Among those being received will be 18 young people, members of a six weeks communicants class conducted by Don Douris, youth director at the church.

In the afternoon the Junior CE will meet at 4:30 with special music being furnished by a quartet composed of Patsy Elfstrom, Lois Kearns, Crystal Huntington and Jane Gardner. The high school CE will have a Holy Week candle light worship service at 6:30 conducted by Carolyn Helton and featuring special music by the Rainbow girls choir composed of Myrtle Meier, Betty Hughes, Gertrude Meier, Corrine Wade, Geraldine Schmoker, Margaret Moritz, Evangelyn McKinley and Rosemary Gaiser.

Sunday night Rev. Williams will speak on "A Way of Prayer" and Vivian Garrison will sing a solo. The service from 8 until 8:30 will be broadcast over KSLM.

Following the night service a meeting of the youth council will be held and plans made for participation of the church young people in an Easter breakfast at the church following the sunrise service at Belcrest. Final plans for attendance at the state Chrsitian Endeavor convention in April 23-26 will be made and youth council officers for the new church year will be elected with Jane Patton, retiring president, in charge.

Cast Named for Religious Drama

"The Burden Bearers" will be presented Sunday night at the Knight Memorial church, 19th and Ferry streets.

Characters are Simon of Cyrene, J. J. Thompson; Mara, his wife, Ethel Thompson; his sons, Douglas Berwick and Billie Schleman; Lucius, a Cyrenian Jew, Harold Melchert; a man with a burden, B. F. Adams; Roman soldiers, William Drakeley and William Parkes.

A mixed quartet, "I Was the Tree" (O'Hara) will precede the play.

Directs Rite

Dr. Emory W. Petticord (above), former pastor of the First Evangelical church, who will speak here nightly, beginning Sunday.

Pre-Easter Rites Slated at First Evangelical

Dr. E. W. Petticord and Rev. Lee C. Fisher will hold pre-Easter services, beginning Palm Sunday, March 29, and concluding Easter Sunday, April 5, each night except Saturday, at 7:30 o'clock at the First Evangelical church, Marion and Summer streets.

Dr. Petticord was formerly pastor of the local church. He was for 20 years leading evangelist of the Evangelical church. For the past seven he has been superintendent of the Oregon district of the Oregon-Washington conference. Dr. Petticord is a world traveler and has had experience with peoples of all races and religious backgrounds.

Rev. Fisher is a gospel musician and world traveler. Three years ago he returned from a trip around the world, motion pictures of which will be used during the meetings. Fisher will be in charge of the entire musical arrangement of the Easter services. He is an accomplished musician upon the piano and accordion and a hymn composer. Fisher is also a singer and will lead the congregation. He will have children's meetings Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at 4 p.m.

Rev. Paul P. Petticord, minister of the local First Evangelical church, invites the public to this week of special services.

Palm Sunday Begins Holy Week Rites

Palm Sunday will be observed at St. Vincent de Paul church with the blessing and distributing of palms at the 7:30 a.m. mass and distribution at both the 9 and 10:30 services, according to Rev. P. G. Stockhausen, SJ.

Confessions will be heard from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Wednesday. High mass and procession is slated on Holy Thursday at 8:30 a.m. and holy hour devotions will be at 7:30 p.m.

On Good Friday mass of the pre-sanctified will be celebrated at 8:30 a.m. Stations of the Cross are to be said at 3 and 7:30 p.m. Mass on Saturday will be at 8:30 a.m. with confessions from 2 to 5:30 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Easter Sunday services will include high mass at 7:30 a.m., mass for the children at 9 o'clock and low mass and benediction at 10:30, according to Father Stockhausen, who is in charge during the absence of the pastor, Rev. R. S. Neugebauer. Father Neugebauer is expected home from St. Vincent's hospital in Portland early next week.

Sunday School Parley Opens On Thursday

Under the leadership of Evangelist Robert L. Hillegas, national representative for Sunday schools for the Assemblies of God in the United States, a Sunday school conferences will be held at the Salem Evangelistic tabernacle (Assembly of God) Thursday and Friday.

Morning, afternoon and night sessions are scheduled and visiting pastors from all parts of Oregon are to take part in the program, to which Sunday school workers from all churches of Salem and the public is invited.
