School Paper Is Planned

DETROIT — High school pupils are working on the first edition of a school paper which has been named "Detroit Hi-Lites." Staffs membes are editor-in-chief, Margaret Sears; managing editor, Martil Phillips; copy editor, Louis Wolfe; news editor, Colleen Mermillion; business manager, Cathrine Fryer; sports editor, Geneva Phillips; humor, Carmelita Calderon. The advisor is Miss Dorothy Welsh, high school instructor.

The Girl Scouts, assisted by high school and grade school pupils collected over two thousand pounds of paper in the recent paper drive. The proceeds will be divided equally between the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts.

Lyle Leighton, Salem Boy Scout executive will be at the Detroit grade school February 14, at 7:30 p.m. to speak on the Boy Scout organization. Parents of the boys who intend to join are urged to be present and all interested are invited.

Mrs. Richard Hansen and Della Mae and Mrs. H. W. Beard visited at the Wilbur Rice home above Idanha Wednesday.

Rhoda and Lily Babcock have enrolled in the high school from Dallas. They are making their home with their aunt, Mrs. C. Clester.

City Councilman Improved in Health

SILVERTON — George Christenson, member of the Silverton city council, is reported somewhat improved at his home on McClaine street. Mr. Christenson, who had tried to "outwalk" the flu some weeks ago, finally collapsed at the sawmill where he is employed as millwright and was brought to his home. Friday he was reported to be up a part of each day.

A daughter - in - law of the Christensons', Mrs. Harvey Christenson of Salem, is spending several days here at the George Christenson home. Cpl. John Christenson and his wife arrived this week from Camp Claiborne, La., for a furlough. Mrs. John Christenson, the former Miss Dorothy White, is employed in the personnel division at Camp Claiborne.
