Loggers Scorn Peanut Butter

EUGENE, Aug. 10–(AP)–Loggers don't want food just for calories, and they want their food via the meat and potatoes route, Secretary-Manager H. J. Cox of the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's association said today.

"Paul Bunyan would turn over in his grave if OPA recommended peanut butter sandwiches," Cox said. A recent message from Washington informed him of a proposed increase in logger rations on a caloric basis.

Liquor Group Hopes Taverns Close V-J Day

PORTLAND, Aug. 10–(AP)–The Oregon liquor control commission hopes taverns will close on V-J day, Chairman Paul L. Crooks said today.

"The voluntary closure of taverns throughout the state on V-E day brought much favorable comment," he said.

All liquor stores will close, he said.

VALE, Aug. 10 –(AP)– Lemhi wheat harvested on the D. L. Cutley ranch recorded a 92-bushel-an-acre yield, it was reported today.

Police Asked To Look for Club Operator

SEATTLE, Aug. 10–(AP)–Sheriff Harlan S. Callahan said tonight police throughout the northwest had been asked to watch for a Seattle speakeasy proprietor wanted for questioning in connection with the shooting of Walter Bernard Foley, jr., 22, a University of Washington sophomore.

While he did not reveal the man's name, Callahan said he was well known to northwest police and has "been picked up here in connection with the liquor rackets and has operated in other cities around here."

Foley's body was found Wednesday beside a country road, riddled with bullets. Officers said he had been an undercover agent for the state liquor board, and believed his death stemmed from this activity.

Army Labor Relations Man To Intervene

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 10—(AP)–Lt. Col. Burrough, 9th service command chief of labor, and Capt. Robert L. Didwell, industrial relations officer, arrived today from San Francisco to investigate a strike which has closed six lumber mills and logging camps in the area.

Lt. Col. Burrough said the army will need the lumber despite Japanese peace bids, and that the army's attitude is that the "only bets you can afford to make are the ones you can afford to lose."

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 10—(AP)–Nearly 1800 loggers were on strike today in two more plants here, Kesterson Box factory and the Ewauna Box factory, employing 687 men.

Conciliation officials who came here when a strike began at Weyerhaeuser camps, refused to comment on charges by both union and management that contracts were being violated.

Officer Gets to 'Seat' of Trouble In Auto Blaze

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 10–(AP)–A traffic officer who halted a speeding car and asked the driver, "Where's the fire?" at first thought he was getting a fresh answer when the motorist replied, "In the seat of my pants."

The officer became tolerant when the motorist explained that a short circuit in the car battery had set the seat cushion afire and the blaze had spread to his pants.

The motorist said he was hurrying to a garage. The officer helped him extinguish the blaze.

PARLIAMENT TO OPEN LATER

OTTAWA, Aug. 10–(AP)–Prime Minister MacKenzie King said tonight the date of the opening of parliament had been changed from Aug. 23 to Sept. 6 because of the "rapidly changing war situation."

Of all the tribes of Africa who came into conflict with the white men, both Boers and British, the Ztilus and the Matabele were the most savage and dangerous.

'Beef' Raised On Bad Meet

FORT LEWIS, Aug. 10 –(AP)–Army authorities here said today that two carloads of Texas beef which, according to a report from Portland had spoiled on its arrival at Camp Adair, Ore., had never been intended for use at Fort Lewis and never came here.

The Portland report said that the beef reached Camp Adair after it had gone to Fort Lewis where it was "not needed."

This post has always accepted all beef intended for its use, army officials here said. They added that the spoilage at Camp Adair had resulted from improper icing.

COL. BAYLEY TO COMMAND

PORTLAND, Aug. 10–(AP)–Col. Eugene B. Bayley has succeeded Col. C. M. Young as commanding officer at the Portland army air base, a 4th air force announcement said today.

Aluminum Use Planned In New Gold Dredge

MEDFORD, Ore., Aug. 10–(AP)–Use of aluminum in construction of a gold dredge is planned by the Alwyr Construction company for what is believed the first in mining history.

Work will start os soon as WPB releases sufficient aluminum. Name of the purchaser was not disclosed.

Price Schroeder Will Aid in Poultry Plans

Price Schroeder, formerly assistant county agent of Union county, has been named supervisor of the Oregon Poultry Improvement plan and the Oregon Turkey Improvement plan, E. L. Peterson, director of the state department of agriculture, announced Friday. Headquarters of the improvement plans will continue on the state college campus, with Schroeder maintaining offices in 208 Poultry building.

Evangelists Vote to Unite

JENNINGS LODGE, Aug. 10–(AP)–The Oregon-Washington conference of the Evangelical church today became the first area in the nation to approve merging with the United Brethren denomination. The vote was 99 to 0.

Interest centered on the northwest vote because six of the seven dissenting votes on the same proposal, made at the general conference, were by delegates of this area.

In another move, the group voted to become self-supporting for the first time in its 62-year existence.
