Bauman-Halter Wedding Said

WOODBURN — Married at a double ring ceremony Tuesday, June 18, at St. Luke's Catholic church were Miss Emma Halter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Halter of Woodburn and Edward Bauman of Sheridan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bauman of Woodburn. The Rev. V. L. Moffenbeier officiated at the nuptial high mass and Misses Virginia, Donna and Patricia Murphy sang with Mrs. E. S. Donnelly at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white satin brocade, designed princess style, with sweetheart neckline and long train. Her full lingth veil fell from a headdress of the same material, edged with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with carnations and roses.

Attendants were her two sisters, Miss Rosemary Halter as maid of honor and Miss Rita Halter as bridesmaid. Attending the bridegroom were his two brothers, Clyde Bauman and Steve Bauman, jr., who also acted as ushers.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Laurel cafe. A reception was held at St. Luke's hall at 2 p.m. to which 150 were invited.

Mrs. George Grimps cut the bride's cake. Assisting were Mrs. Steve Bauman, Miss Virginia Murphy, Mrs. LaVerne Otjen, Mrs. Al Halter and Mrs. Robert Renn, Miss Karien Benson and Miss Gwen Shommer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauman left for British Columbia and on their return will live in Sheridan. For traveling Mrs. Bauman wore a blue tailleur with white accessories and corsage of rosebuds and carnations.

Miss Herbert Now Mrs. Bothmiller

Miss Esther Ann Herbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Herbert of McLaughlin Heights, recently of Salem, and Curtis Bothmiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bothmiller, were married June 6 at a double-ring ceremony in Ridgefield, Wash. The Rev. James M. Bennett read the rites.

Mrs. Clarence Bothmiller was soloist and Mrs. Van Buskirk was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white net over crepe with long veil held by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried red roses.

Miss Isabel Herbert was maid of honor and Mrs. Ruth Taylor and Miss Nita Worthington were bridesmaids. Edward Taylor was best man and Forrest Bothmiller and Jerry Bothmiller were ushers.

Both mothers wore aqua and corsages of gardenias.

At the reception Mrs. Everett Herbert and Mrs. Harry Harrold cut the cakes. The bride wore a lime-colored suit with black accessories and gardenias and red roses. They will live in Vancouver while he is employed as resident engineer by the US engineers in Portland. He is a graduate of Ridgefield schools and saw two years of overseas service. She attended Salem schools and Capitol business college.

Valley Briefs

7000 Names Inscribed On Centennial Placque

TURNER — Sunday afternoon the dedication of the memorial vault will be made in the tabernacle, led by Arthur C. Bates, centennial evangelist. Seven thousand names are inscribed in the vault to be sealed now and opened 100 years hence. Claude P. Sabin, Sacramento, will speak.

Marion Youth Return from 4-H School

Marion county 4-H club delegation of 108 returned to Salem Friday after close of the summer session at Oregon State college, Thursday.

Winners in the various judging contests were reported by J. F. Bishop, club agent, as follows: home economics clothing judging, Karleen Drager, Cloverdale; Doris Hayworth, Talbot, and June Rahtz, Auburn, tied for third place.

Crop judging, Harold Watts, Central Howell, and Wayne Johnson, Sidney, tied for fourth place. Poultry, Kirby Gates, Mill City, second place.

Weight guessing, Vern Wertz of Butteville, was first with a guess of within four pounds of the weight of an Angus bull; John Edgar of Salem Heights was first for sheep, guessing within a pound of the true weight.

Boys unable to attend summer school this year because of the restricted housing accommodations, will have an opportunity to make a Willamette valley livestock tour of the Oregon State college campus, August 5 and 6. Boys from Marion, Polk, Linn, Lane, Benton and Yamhill counties will be included in those making the tour.

Marion county's fall 4-H club show will be held Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30, at the state fairgrounds. Club animals picked for state showing will then remain at the state fairgrounds for the opening of the state fair, Monday, September 2. Besides stock farm crops and canning exhibits will be displayed at the fall show. Linn county's 4-H fall show will be held August 28, 29 and 30, at Bryant park, Albany.

Ten Candidates Compete for Flax Court

MT. ANGEL—Ten lovely girls with dancing eyes and happy smiles made their curtseys to the clamorous throng that filled Mt. Angel auditorium for the kickoff ball of the Mt. Angel Flax Festival and the race for queen and four princesses for the celebration was on. The sale of buttons is to decide the winners.

The girls and their sponsors were introduced by Joseph Berchtold during the intermission of the dance.

Two girls are from Portland, Audrey Smith, sponsored by St. Agatha's parish, and Diane Riche by Jack and Jill's Elations and Dave Goldman of the Portland Statesman.

Silverton's candidate is Louise Leonard, with George's cafe as sponsor.

Rita Haar of Salem is sponsored by Vince's Electric shop. The Woodburn chamber of commerce is backing that town's choice, Eileen Hagenauer.

Donna Saunders of Oregon City is enthusiastically endorsed by the Panitorium Cleaners and Maurice Fuchs' Brownies cafe.

Mt. Angel is contributing four contestants, Shirley Walker, sponsored by Ted's Coffee shop and Mt. Angel theater; Rosemary Schaecher by Kehoe's Service station; Edna Wurdinger by Mt. Angel Farmers Union warehouse, and Irene Hertl by Eberle's store.

Festival dates are August 9, 10 and 11.

Gervais High School Plans For Extension

GERVAIS — Follow-up of the vote on the bond issue Monday, the high school board plans to build an addition to the west wing of the school building and have it ready for use at or soon after the opening of school next fall. A new Smith-Hughes department, a new home economics department, renovation of the present library and study hall to house a new science laboratory is planned. The board will purchase a second bus to provide ample transportation for the students. As a result of a visit to the North Howell school meeting recently, that district voted to petition the district boundary board to hold an election on the proposal to join Gervais union high school district. If approved by the North Howell voters and the Gervais union high school voters, North Howell will become a member of the Gervais union high school district. The petitions will be drawn and circulated.
