FIRE AT ALUMINA PLANT

City firemen were called to the Salem Alumina plant about 1 p. m. Friday when a small shed at the plant caught fire. The shed was used by employes and some clothing belonging to them was lost along with the building, which was destroyed. Firemen also made two runs, one at 7:45 a. m. at 2335 Mason st., and one to a house at 14th and B sts., to extinglish flue fires. Neither did any damage.

Carol Service Is Announced

An old English carol service will be held at the First Evangelical United Brethren church, Marion at Summer st., Sunday, December 15, at 7:45 p. m.

The service is built around the spirit of Old England with the famous Yule log and the choral singing from door to door by the serts.

The music for this service will be pre-ented by the choir under the direction of the Rev. George K. Millen.

The Rev. Wilmer N. Brown will speak at the 11 a. m. worship service on the subject, "Sacrificing the Costly."

The cantata-pageant, "Pilgrims to Bethlehem," will be presented Sunday night, December 22.

Women Plan Church Day

The vested choir of the First Christian church, Center at High st., will sing "The Silent Sea," Neidlinger, Sunday morning. Gilbert Clausman will sing the solo "The Lord Is My Light," Speaks, and the minister, Dudley Strain, will preach on the subject "What We Do See."

Sunday is the annual Women's day at the First Christian church, when women of the church have complete charge of the evening worship service. Presentation of the one-act inter-racial play, "The Sanctuary Door," will be a feature. The play has an all-woman cast and is directed by Mrs. Maurice N. Juve. Taking parts are Mrs. Willard Morrison, Mrs. Elvin Thomas, Mrs. Roy Wright, Mrs. Emmett Rickard and Mrs. Paul Holloway.

Mrs. Carol Capps has arranged the service and Ellen Douglas will read the scripture. Helen Strain will give the prayer, and Christine Pomeroy the dedicatory prayer.

Special music for the occasion will be presented by Lois Schmidt, organist, and by the girls' trio of the church. Group leaders of the Women's Council will be ushers.
