NELSON NEWS

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

Not since in the stillness of night there burst upon a strife torn world the proclamation of "peace on earth and good will among men" has there been so much reason for so many people to be merry at Christmas time as now. The world wide longing for signs of permanent peace and good will among men has, for the first time in history, brought official representatives of nearly all governments in the world to seek way for nations to live together in peace in spite of differing ways of life.

The hope of permanent peace and world wide good will makes it particularly proper now to briefly lay aside the ploddings of life and share the joys of the Christmas season so here is our hearty wish for a very Merry Christmas to one and all.
