DEMOCRAT LEADS

Chamberlain Probably Elected.

PLURALITY IS ABOUT 750

Baker and Union Give Him Big Votes,

FURNISH IS STILL HOPEFUL

Next Legislature Is Republican by a Good Majority—Close in Lane, Where Miller Is One Vote Ahead of Kelly.

Reports received up to 7 o'clock this morning indicate the election of Chamberlain for Governor by about 750 votes. Five counties are yet unreported, and it is estimated that they will break about even. Returns from nearly all the counties are incomplete and it is possible that when the delayed precincts shall be received they will change the totals, but the probability is against a change that will overcome the present lead of Chamberlain. Mr. Furnish, however, still expresses confidence that the full returns will put him ahead.

Republicans are elected in both Congressional districts, Tongue in the First, and Williams in the Second. They received large majorities. The Republican state ticket, with the exception of Governor, was successful by large majorities. The Legislature is securely Republican.

In the following tables comparison is made with the vote of the preceding gubernatorial election was in 1898, the Congressional election in 1900. Where figures appear in only one column for 1902 they are the pluralities reported; where figures are in both columns they represent the votes reported for each candidate.

FURNISH STILL HOPEFUL.
 Republican Leaders in Umatilla Conclude He Has Won.
 PENDLETON, Or., June 3.—Mr. Furnish, Republican candidate for Governor, was seen by the correspondent of The Oregonian at 9 o'clock this evening and asked if he conceded, as was reported, the election of Mr. Chamberlain for Governor. Mr. Furnish was in excellent spirits and replied that he had only received returns from a small portion of the state and nothing definite from Multnomah County, and that he could not very well concede the overthrow of the Republican party of Oregon before hearing from the entire state. Republican leaders here are still confident that Furnish is elected Governor.

Chamberlain Convinced of Victory.
 Mr. Chamberlain, who was worn out by the ardors of his campaign, felt convinced of his election early last evening, and at 10 o'clock went home and retired. When seen at his office just before he left it, he said:
 "While it is too early to make any extensive claims, I am sure that I shall carry the state by from 3000 to 3500, and that Multnomah County will go for me by at least 600. Beyond that I do not care to make any statement just now."

BAKER COUNTY.
 Republican Chairman Concedes It to Chamberlain by 600.

BAKER CITY, Or., June 3.—Unofficial returns from 25 precincts out of 31 in this county give Chamberlain 586 majority over Furnish for Governor. The same precincts give Butcher 348 majority over Williamson for Congress. At Democratic county headquarters the unofficial returns from 30 precincts give Smith 482, a lead of nine over Rand, Rep., for State Senator. The same precincts give Robbins, Dem., 15 majority in the county over Smith. Returns from practically the same precincts give Smith, for Senator, a lead of four votes over Rand, while it is a tie vote between Robbins and Chamberlain. Lechner, who concedes the county to Chamberlain by about 600 majority. The Republicans elect the following county officers: Harvey K. Brown, Sheriff; R. W. Henry, Recorder; P. R. Palmer, Treasurer; C. M. Foster, Surveyor; T. N. Snow, Coroner. The Democrats elect: A. B. Combs, clerk; George W. Jett, Assessor; W. W. Travillon, Judge; J. C. Brooks, Commissioner.

The vote is close between Henry and James for Recorder, with odds in favor of Henry. The vote is also close between Combs and Chard for Clerk, but Combs has the advantage. It will probably require the official count to determine who has the majority in this county for Senator and Representative. In Clatsop, South and Clatsop counties, the Senators elect became very exciting to the last, and considerable feeling was aroused between the friends of the two candidates, Robert Eakin, for Circuit Judge, will carry this county by 360 majority, according to present indications. Returns are coming in very slowly. Chamberlain carried every precinct in the county, except five.

BENTON COUNTY.

Furnish Has a Plurality of 33—Senator Daily Re-Elected.
CORVALLIS, Or., June 3.—With complete returns from all but one precinct, and the estimated vote on that, Furnish's plurality in Benton County is 33. The Legislative nominees elected are: Senator, C. W. Fulton, Rep.; Representative, John B. Daily, Sen. Rep. They also elect on the county ticket T. T. Vincent, Recorder, and W. A. Jolly, Commissioner, and S. N. Wilkins, Coroner. The Democrats elect Virgil E. Walters, County Judge; J. P. Burnett, Sheriff; Victor Moore, Clerk; Howard Bush, Assessor; W. A. Buchanan, Treasurer, and Thomas Jones, Surveyor.

CLATSOP COUNTY.

Furnish Pass 100 Majority, Williamson Nearly 600.
ASTORIA, June 3.—Unofficial returns from all precincts excepting two small ones give Furnish 1078, Chamberlain 975. The Legislative nominees elected are: Senator, C. W. Fulton, Rep.; Representative, John B. Daily, Sen. Rep. They also elect on the county ticket T. T. Vincent, Recorder, and W. A. Jolly, Commissioner, and S. N. Wilkins, Coroner. The Democrats elect Virgil E. Walters, County Judge; J. P. Burnett, Sheriff; Victor Moore, Clerk; Howard Bush, Assessor; W. A. Buchanan, Treasurer, and Thomas Jones, Surveyor.

COLUMBIA COUNTY.

Furnish Has 190 Majority—Republicans Elect Representative.
ST. HELENS, Or., June 3.—Unofficial returns from 7 out of 13 precincts, which gave Geer 44, King 256, give Furnish 42, Chamberlain 271. These same seven

OREGON SAYS STAY

Its Vote Declares for Retention of Philippines.

NATIONAL CAPITAL COMMENT

Result Is Interpreted as a Hearty Indorsement of Republican Policies—Views of Oregon Delegation on the Result.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Although this was a very busy day at the Capitol, yet a large number of Republicans found time to express their gratification that on Nano one whom I should prefer to Mr. Chamberlain, but from a Republican standpoint, and believing as I do that the success of the Republican party means continued prosperity of the country, his election will be a serious misfortune. While it is true he has not been elected because of the political principles of the Democratic party, but rather in spite of them, aided somewhat by the declared differences with his party, yet the moral effect of his election and influence upon the elections this fall in other states has a tendency to discredit the Republican party, and to strengthen and build up Democratic policies. Of course, it is gratifying that the state generally has given a good Republican majority, with what I am assured is an increased majority in my district. This expression of confidence on the part of the people whom I have tried to serve faithfully is itself pleasing, but in addition to that it strengthens my hands here in Congress with the Administration and in the departments—it places the public behind me and gives me their support. It brings with it increased responsibilities. To my friends, who, during my absence from the state, have taken up the campaign in my national issues Oregon had recorded itself as it was expected she would do, in favor of expansion, the retention of the Philippines, and all Republican policies. Senator Hanna, chairman of the Republican committee, voiced the sentiment of nearly all those who spoke, saying that it was indeed glorious news to know that Republican principles were indorsed, and that the Congressmen who represented the National issues were elected by great majorities. He was especially glad to learn Tongue had been elected by an increased majority. Like other Republicans, he regretted that factional differences should have marred the complete victory, and give the Democrats an opportunity to boast of a crumbs of comfort in the campaign. Had it not been for the Democratic success in electing a Governor, the dispatch from Oregon showing the returns would have been read in both houses as an indorsement of Republican policies. It is more than probable that the returns when wholly known will be the occasion of some comment, as the Republicans consider the majority given members of Congress an indorsement of their position. Under the heading, "Oregon and Expansion," the Evening Star has quite a long editorial on the election, of which the following is an extract:

SUCCESSFUL REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR.

HENRY E. MCGINN.

 Oregon leads in favor of expansion. The two members from that state in the next House will vote for the retention of the Philippines. The issue was squarely made between the two parties. "To stay or not to stay," was the question. Oregon says "Stay." Does this message the general result in November?

Expansion, we are told, has from the outset been popular in the West, the people out there having hopes of the Eastern markets. They have faith in what may be done in the Orient with Manila as the principal base of American activity. They may be dreaming. The anti-expansionists smile at their credulity and wonder that practical men should surrender to such notions. But the West has surrendered, and Oregon speaks now on the subject as she spoke two years ago. Nothing has taken place there in the Philippines or elsewhere to change her view of the opportunity, and how it should be improved.
VIETNAM AND GALLICIA.
VIENNA, June 3.—There were further strike riots at Lemburg, Gallicia, last night, during which a detachment of hussars charged a mob. It is reported that several children were killed, a number of persons wounded during yesterday's riots have died in the hospitals.
Quezada's Appointment Confirmed.
HAVANA, June 3.—The Senate today confirmed the appointment of Gonzales de Quezada as Cuban Minister to the United States.

When Jones sought to develop inconsistencies between Senator Buencamino's statements and his present attitude, the witness arose and declared that he and his people were not so much interested in past acts as in curing the wounds of war and looking to the future. This brought on a sharp controversy among the members as to holding the witness to a strict response.

ALL BUT ONE MAN

Republicans Sweep City and County.

WILLIAMS SURE FOR MAYOR

Chamberlain's Majority Will Be About 400.

CLEANSWEEP FOR LEGISLATURE

McGinn, Rep., Elected Over Lane—Close Contests on Two or Three Minor Places Only—Williams' Majority 4500.

George E. Chamberlain, for Governor, has carried Multnomah County by from 200 to 500 majority over W. J. Furnish, and George H. Williams, Republican, is elected Mayor by a majority over Inman, Democrat, ranging from 800 to 1000. Complete returns have been received from 6 city and 7 county precincts, and incomplete returns from 15 city and 1 county precinct. Five county precincts are yet to be heard from in Multnomah County. In a number of the city precincts the count had not been finished at midnight, and the labors of the weary clerks and judges will in some of these not be ended until this morning. A total of about 2500 votes remain either to be counted or to be found in the five missing county precincts. In the figures which follow, nearly six-sevenths of the vote of city and county is represented. Williams, for Congress, will have a plurality over Butcher, Democrat, ranging from 4500 to 4600. Robert S. Bean, Republican, for Supreme Judge, will have somewhat more, and Ackerman, for Superintendent of Public Instruction, will have over 6000 majority. The lowest majority of any Republican candidate on the state ticket is in Whitney, for State Printer, who will have in the neighborhood of 3000. The Republicans have made a clean sweep of every candidate on the Legislative ticket. The closest fight was between McGinn, Republican, and Lane, Citizens, for State Senator. The former is doubtless elected by from 200 to 400 votes. He already has a lead of nearly 300 over his competitor, and the remaining ballots will probably increase it.
 The highest man on the Republican Legislative ticket is A. A. Bailey, with 889 votes. He defeats Frank A. Heitkemper, the highest man on the Citizens' ticket, with 523, by over 390 votes. The lowest man on the Republican Legislative ticket is Willard N. Jones, who will defeat Heitkemper by 600 or more.
 On the county ticket the Republicans have elected nearly all their candidates. Storvick, for Sheriff, goes in by 1600 plurality over each of his competitors. Kenneth Citizens, for County Clerk, is pulling fields, Republican, hard, but is probably defeated. McDowell, Citizens, for Assessor, has a lead of over 200 over Watkins, Republican, and is apparently elected.
 In the city, the only place in doubt is the Treasurer'ship, Werlein, Citizens, has a lead of 100 over Jameson, Republican. All the other Republican candidates are doubtless elected. The City Council will consist of eight Republicans and three Citizens.
 There were many interesting contests throughout the county for Road Supervisor. The results will be found appended.
 The city charter has been adopted by a very large vote. The majority for the initiative and referendum amendment was heavy. The figures follow:
