Grain Market Prices Drop

CHICAGO, April 23-(AP)-Grain prices received another fair sized cut today, both wheat and corn ending with losses extending to more than 6 cents. It was the second straight day the market has suffered heavy losses, largely because of rains in the wheat belt.

Wheat ended 6 to 6¾ lower, May $2.41½-¾; corn was 3⅞-6½ lower, May $2.16⅛-2.17; oats were 1¾-2¾ lower, May $1.09¼-⅛, and soybeans were 3⅛ to 8 cents lower, May $3.96.

The commodity credit corporation at Kansas City today offered to pay 10 cents a bushel over the Chicago futures at $2.46⅛ for wheat. This was a 3½ cent reduction, following decline of 1¼ cent yesterday.

Stock Market In Sharp Climb

NEW YORK, April 23 - (AP) - Stocks completed another leg on their spring advance today in the broadest market on record.

Prices pushed up one to more than two points under the impetus of heavy demand for manufacturing and railroad issues.

Of the 1,396 issues listed on the stock exchange, transactions were reported in 1,131 — the highest number in "big board" history. Of these 653 showed gains and 259 losses.

Total sales ran to 2,470,000 shares, largest since Dec. 9, 1946.

Broadcasts Omitted

The schedule of Sunday radio programs which normally appears in the Saturday Statesman has been omitted today due to the failure of stations to report program time changes necessitated by the adoption of daylight saving time in the east.
