Polk Extension Meeting Is Held

LINCOLN—Mrs. Thelma Smith Miller, new Polk county Home Demonstration agent, assisted by Mrs. Oliver Sargent, demonstrated furniture arrangements for the Lincoln home extension unit, at Mrs. Roy E. Barkers this week. Mrs. Miller gave actual rules for furniture arrangement, illustrating with pictures and scale size furniture.

"Let the desires of your family control arrangement of furniture to a great extent," Mrs. Miller said. Consider needs of the family and the structural lines of your room and select furniture really needed to make the home enjoyable.

Program for the year was outlined with 14 projects listed. Round table discussion was held on the 4-H animal club which the unit plans to sponsor.

Committees include Mrs. Ben McKinney, hospitality; Mrs. Lois Crawford, publicity; Mrs. Worth Henry, finance.

Subject for the March meeting will be "frozen foods, wrapping, preparation and cooking." Mrs. T. L. Hicks and Mrs. Fleet Waldron will be project leaders.
