Grains Show Spotty Look

CHICAGO, April 29-(AP)-Grains ended an active session with a spotty look today. May wheat, May corn and all oats looked weak. Deferred corn deliveries looked steady. And new crop wheat contracts looked strong.

May wheat closed 1¼-1½ lower at $2.17¼-½. Later deliveries ended 1 to 1¼ higher. Corn was 1½ lower to ⅛ higher, oats were ¼-⅝ lower, rye was ¾ to 1 cent lower and soybeans were ¾-1¾ higher.

Lard scored modest gains of 7 to 15 cents a hundred pounds on buying partly based on trade report the government would grant Great Britain funds to purchase 68,000,000 pounds of American pork. An overnight allocation of $9,499,000 to Great Britain for lard helped.

Hearing to Cut Milk Price Possible

PORTLAND, April 29-(AP)-Another milk price hearing may be called soon — and this one might possibly reduce the price for the first time since pre-war days.

Thomas C. Ohlsen, chief of the milk control section, said his office was going over distributors' cost figures and preparing for a price hearing.
