Farmers to Set Wheat Acreage Quotas in Future

If acreage allotments and marketing quotas become necessary next year for wheat, the individual farm allotments will be set by the local farmer committees, E. Harvey Miller, chairman of the Oregon state producing and marketing administration committee, said Friday. He added that this a vital point in the nation's agricultural program.

"No one is better able to set up the individual allotments for a farm than the elected committee," Miller pointed out.

"They are farmers. They know the problems confronting their neighbors. They are elected each year and the farmers in the area affected by the allotments are the ones to elect these committeemen," he explained.

Studebaker buying wave sweeps the nation!

Another all-time record in April!

More people bought new Studebaker cars and trucks in April 1949 than in any previous month in any year.

Studebaker sales in January, February, and March were the biggest for any quarter in Studebaker history.

Twice this year Studebaker has increased production in an attempt to meet this sensational upsurge in demand.

1949 is a Studebaker year!

Studebaker's really rolling!
