Rites Read At Church Friday

Bouquets of spring flowers banked the altar of the First Congregational church Friday night for the marriage of Miss Barbara Robinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson of Gooding, Idaho, and Stanley Ryals, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Ryals of Salem. The 8 o'clock nuptials were performed by Dr. Daniel Schulze. Miss Norvanda Smedley and Lloyd Powell sang and Alice Rose Jones was the organist.

For her wedding the bride wore an organdy and lace gown fashioned with a full organdy skirt enhanced with panels of lace insertion and a train. The fitted bodice and sleeves were of lace and the neckline was scalloped. Her fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a bandeau of the satin caught on either side with pearlized orange blossom clusters. Her bridal bouquet was of pink roses. Dr. and Mrs. Robinson were here for the wedding and he gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Kenneth Thompson of Twin Falls, Idaho was her sister's matron of honor. Her dress was of pink organdy with scalloped neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt. Bridesmaids were Miss Colleen Whiteman and Mrs. Wesley Woodward, who also followed the theme. Miss Shirley Ambler and Miss Betty Cummings. They all wore identical frocks of blue organdy fashioned similar to the four attendants. The girls wore matching organdy crown on their hair and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations and sweet peas.

Owen Ryals, groom's father, was his brother as best man and ushers were Russell Robinson of Gooding, brother of the bride, Ray Freije, Jesse Jones and Stuart Compton.

Mrs. Robinson selected a velvet chiffon gown for her daughter's nuptials and a corsage of gardenias and Talisman roses. Mrs. Ryals wore an aqua crepe gown with matching lace bodice for her son's marriage. Her flowers were gardenias and yellow roses.

A reception was held at the Chi Omega sorority house. Miss Joan Thomas and Miss Jean Gilmer cut the cake and Mrs. Paul Jarrett presided at the coffee urn. Assisting were Misses Virginia Atkinson, Lisbeth Trulinger and Mary Libby.

For going away the bride donned a beige suit with chocolate brown trim, beige hat with brown trim and brown accessories. The newlyweds will live in Gooding after their wedding trip.

Ann Guthrie chapter of Tri-Y will take a trip to Portland this weekend shopping at Oregon Lake. Chaperones is to be Mrs. Gus Folales and lifeguard is Bill Kukuhiko.

On the return trip they will visit with Dr. C. S. Simkins of Creighton university at Omaha, Nebraska.

On Etiquette
By Roberta Lee

Q. May a hostess ever invite a woman to any social function without inviting her husband?

A. Of course, an invitation to the husband is not by any means obligatory.

Q. Is it good form or permissible for parents of the young people to indicate that it is time for the young guests to depart?

A. No, they should not do so as this is usually extremely embarrassing to the young folks.

Q. If a hostess knows that her guests smoke, should she provide cigarettes?

A. Yes, it is thoughtful if she does.

Informality Reigns

Self Service Happy Thought for the Informal Hostess and Guests

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

There's something very flattering about being allowed to serve one's self at a party, and there's also something very satisfactory to the hostess about self service.

Some women have been serving informal buffet suppers in the kitchen lately, because their kitchens are unusually attractive and suited to entertaining.

Now they'll be serving the same type meal on the patio, porch or terrace.

The makings for sandwiches will both flatter and fill the guests. A salon tip for toast is recommended by the national meat bakers association. Instead of making sandwiches. They suggest that the meat be served on a board, and the guests cut their own slices for sandwiches. Provide lettuce, mustard, cheeses, to include cottage, Roquefort, cheddar and assorted breads too.

In cooking the cut keep in mind that only top quality meat is good. Most of it must be served rare. Well known food experts give us top quality meat to be roasted.

For an unfamiliar salad, toss one for meat cut made of cooking greens known as turnip tops. In preparing the meat, season and then dust it generously with flour. Then brown in a small amount of fat, cover and cook slowly on top of the range in a moderate 325 degrees oven in a small amount of water or other liquid.

Often salon tips are cut out on steaks but your dealer will tell you it is have an uncut piece. So ask for tip meat. It and then the old trick of roasting instead of cooking. Place the roast, fat side up on a rack in a shallow pan in a preheated oven 325 degrees. And no water and no lid forever. Slice your bread thermometer is the only reliable test of doneness, get into the habit of using one for all your meat roasting. Use the following chart as a guide in cooking meat to the degree of doneness desired.

SIRLOIN TIP BEEF ROAST

Degree of Doneness	Minutes per Pound	Internal Temp.
Rare	15 to 20	140 Deg. Fah.
Medium	20 to 25	160 "
Well Done	25 to 30	170 "

Individual pies are a happy thought for this type meal and they can be made up ahead, ready to bake and frozen in the dark freezer or locker. It you've a country place and boast a strawberry patch, the guests would appreciate serving to pies for dessert from a large bowlful of the luscious fruit.

HUBBARD — Thalia Rebekah lodge met Tuesday. Mrs. Grace Lettler was presented with a gift from the president-elect of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon. Mrs. Lettler will be outside guard at the assembly next year. A report on the assembly was given by Mrs. George Rogers and Mrs. Charles Vaccenburg. Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Zeek and Mrs. Elmer Snyder.

Gerlingers Are Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger were hosts for an informal dinner party Thursday night at their Center street home. Arrangements of late spring flowers were used in decorating.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney B. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Gerlinger.

Cooking Classes Entertain

MIDDLE GROVE — Hostesses for an evening party Monday at the home of the leader, Mrs. John Cage, were the members of the 4-H cooking classes of Middle Grove. Miss Joyce Koenig, who has been Mrs. Cage's assistant, was general chairman and Joanne Fahey was program chairman. Shirley Page received the guests, refreshments were served by Doris Lou Kleen and cutting the cake was Yvonne Grove. Assisting were Deanna Dickey, Rosemary Slimak, Doris Reynolds, Marie Hammer, Lora Lee Holman, Sue Angin, Yvonne Miller and Sharon Chamberlain.

Numbers on the program were an accordion solo, Joanne Fahey; a reading, Shirley Page; a vocal duet, Donna Lee Kleen and Sharon Chamberlain; a piano solo, Yvonne Grove; a piano solo, Lora Lee Holman; an accordion solo, Sue Angin; a vocal solo, Yvonne Miller; a piano solo, Deanna Dickey; reading, Rosemary Slimak; piano solo, Doris Reynolds; and reading, Marie Hammer.

Guests were the teachers, Clarence Irving, Mr. Mabel Briggs, Mrs. Etta Sundile and Mrs. Peggy Elwood; Mr. and Mrs. Anell Jones and sons, Miss Anna Bergheit, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Mrs. Albert Fahey, Mrs. Harvey Page, Mrs. V. D. Dickey and Sandra, Mrs. Frank Slimak, Mrs. Horace Miller, Mrs. L. C. Chamberlain, Mrs. Marie Hammer, Mrs. William Kleen, Mrs. C. L. Reynolds, Mrs. Emory Goode, Mrs. John Angin, Mrs. Ted Koenig and Mr. and Mrs. Cage. Members of the classes presented Mrs. Cage with a gift. She will work with Joanne Fahey and Shirley Page for some practice work this summer in preparation for their state fair demonstration, but this is the last meeting of the classes until fall.

Liberty—Mrs. Harold Rosebough was hostess to the Liberty Women's club at her home Thursday afternoon when twenty members were present. Committee chairmen were named for the following committees: gift box, Mrs. Wayne Blair; card and gift wrapping, Mrs. Robert Seager; sick and flower, Mrs. Paul Wishart; child welfare, Mrs. C. W.
