Don't Look Now . . .

but . . . our scout reports that the censors must have been at work this week. He viewed the French type bathing suit on a model in a shop window. The thing works, either up or down, by a drawstring. Thursday the drawstring was pulled and the suit was reduced to a minimum. Friday the drawstring was loosened—the suit took up a good deal more space—there was no crowd before the window.

Mean man of the week . . . the one we saw running a bulldozer on a spot very close to the blind side of the schoolbuilding and performing for a large group of men but out of sight of all those poor tortured schoolchildren—and the sun shining and birds singing too.

Are we getting crabbed . . . or is the war really over? Seems to us several shops we've been in lately are not thinking the customer is right, even occasionally. Cashier at a fancy grocery store scolded us for not sliding our cart into the correct spot . . . an all-night garage mechanic berated us for being a little impatient after waiting for too long a time while he fixed his own car. On the other hand, we got satisfaction at the regular reliable places of business—guess we won't wander afield again.

Business opportunity . . . We have an idea for some automobile manufacturer, make a car with right handdrive and all the rural mailcarriers in the country will buy them. These fellows who sit on the right side of the seat and drive the car over in the left side worry me, though I've never heard of an accident. . . . Maxine Buren

SUMMER IN HAWAII . . . . For four Salem coeds who are leaving in mid-June for Honolulu to attend the summer session at the University of Hawaii . . . Patty Wilson and Gerry Woodroffe, sophomores at Oregon State college . . . and Suzanne Huggins and Roberta Tussing, University of Oregon sophomores . . . In all there will be thirty coeds from the two schools with three chaperones accompanying the girls . . . While there they will be housed in the university dormitory . . . They will leave here June 19 by Pan American airlines and return in August on the Lurline . . . From what we hear the girls have a grand summer ahead with early morning classes, which allows plenty of time for surf bathing, sightseeing, oh yes, and studying for the rest of the day . . .

OFF FOR EUROPE . . . on June 8 will be Mrs. Arnold S. Johnson and Mrs. M. E. Walters, who moved last spring to Roseburg . . . The two will leave from Portland by train for Chicago, Niagara Falls, New Jersey and a few days of sightseeing in New York City, prior to sailing on the Queen Elizabeth June 15 . . . After docking in England the travelers will leave on a 4-day tour of England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Germany and France . . . Mrs. Walters will return early in August to Oregon, but Mrs. Johnson will leave the party at Paris and go on to London, where she will visit her five uncles and one aunt, whom she has never seen, who live in and around London for five weeks . . . Mrs. Johnson will return to Salem on September 11.

CONVENTION BOUND . . . A number of Salem people are headed east this year for national conventions and extensive cross-country trips . . . The Harry B. Johnsons and daughter, Karen, are leaving by plane on June 8 for Detroit, Niagara Falls and New York City, where they will attend the Rotary International convention from June 12 to 16 . . . They will drive home, making stops in Washington, D. C., Wisconsin, Minnesota and Yellowstone Park, planning to be away a month . . . The Gardner Knapps have already gone east and will meet the Johnsons in New York City for the convention . . .

Atlantic City will be the destination of two more Salem couples in June . . . The T. Harold Tomlinsons and Herman C. Joachimsens are leaving June 15 on the special Kiwanis train for the Kiwanis International convention . . . Mr. Tomlinson will be an official delegate as district lieutenant governor . . . The two couples plan to have four days in New York City and will visit Mrs. Tomlinson's brother, Earl Sande, who already has tickets for them for the shows . . . They will drive home making stops in Washington, D. C., Chicago, Denver and Salt Lake City . . . The Robert Whites hope to meet the four in Washington, where they will be attending the National Seed convention in June.

EVENING OF MUSIC . . . on Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone entertained at the Stone Piano company for 150 of their friends . . . The artists . . . Josephine Albert Spaulding, who sang a delightful group of numbers, and her accompanist, Mrs. A. A. Schramm . . . and Doris McCann, organist, a newcomer in musical circles in Salem . . . and it has only been the past year that she has been playing the organ . . . So enthused she became with organ playing that she had an organ installed in her home so she might practice six to eight hours a day . . . for the musicale she wore a colorful spring print . . . Josephine's dress was a pink and grey all over print with a stole edged in pink net to which she pinned a lavender orchid . . . Mrs. Schramm wore blue . . . and pretty Emily Stone graciously received her guests in a black crepe gown in peg-top skirt . . .

Guests staying on afterwards for an informal reception . . . Alice Cratty Brown in a sage green crepe gown and Mrs. David Eason in a print dress presiding at the punch bowl and coffee urn . . . carnations for the table centerpiece . . . Among those present . . . the junior James Nicholsons . . . Clarence Hamiltons . . . Dr. and Mrs. A. T. King . . . Mrs. Donald McCargar in a navy blue taffeta and green shoes . . . Beryl Holt in a blue and white print and so becoming her new short hair-do . . . Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brennan . . . she in a navy and white polka dot with wide red belt . . . Edith Fairham rejoicing as she had given her senior recital the night before . . .

COSTUME NOTES . . . When Mrs. Donald A. Young entertained a group of friends one Sunday at the Young's summer home on the Alsea she greeted her guests in a clever peasant costume . . . the full skirt especially designed for her in shades of black, red and yellow . . . and what really intrigued the guests were her earrings . . . little gold spinners . . . Mrs. Young has used lots of originality in decorating their place . . . she did all the painting herself . . . and understand there is a red heart painted on the refrigerator . . .

Cotton time . . . many attractive dresses this year . . . Glimpsed Mrs. Robert Ramsden shopping one day in a smart pale yellow gabardine dress with which she wore green, yellow and red shoes . . . and the same colors repeated in the scarf she tied around her dark tresses . . .

More of the same . . . Mrs. Chandler Brown's navy and white polka dot cotton . . . a pearl grey chambray for Mrs. Robert Herrall with beading outlining the pockets . . . Mrs. Richard Cooley most attractive wearing a white cotton formal with off-shoulder neckline edged in wide white lace . . . the same lace trim on her white shortie gloves . . .

Hostesses to Fete Mrs. Schmidt

Mrs. Loring Schmidt will be the honor guest at an au revoir party on Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Garlen L. Simpson and Mrs. Vernon Perry entertain at the Simpson home on South 23rd street. Mrs. Schmidt, accompanied by her two sons, Bucky and Bobby, plan to leave early in June for Chevy Chase, Maryland to spend the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sweeny.

A group of Mrs. Schmidt's friends have been invited to call at 3 o'clock and later in the afternoon tea will be served by the hostess. Pastel spring garden flowers will provide the decorative note.

Luncheon Fetes Mrs. Harris

Mrs. Robert Eyre and Mrs. Ralph Eyre were hostesses for a luncheon on Friday afternoon at the former's home of Hudson avenue for the pleasure of their husband's mother, Mrs. C. C. Harris. The afternoon hours were spent informally and spring flowers were used about the rooms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. C. C. Harris, Mrs. C. H. Talmage, Mrs. W. W. Neal, Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mrs. Charles Evre, Mrs. Otto Wilson, sr., Mrs. F. W. Harland, Mrs. Guy Newgent, Mrs. Ralph Harris, Mrs. A. R. Barnard, Mrs. B. E. Edwards, Mrs. E. T. Armstrong, Mrs. A. C. Haag, Mrs. B. H. White and the hostesses.

Trotters Sport Dance Friday

Trotters dancing club will entertain with its last dance of the season on Friday night at Glenwood ballroom. This will be a sports affair and dancing will be from 10 to 1 o'clock to the music of Glenn Woodry and his orchestra. Election of officers will be held and hosts for this dance are the retiring officers and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Max Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Loring Grier.

39 Independence Seniors to Receive Certificates June 1

INDEPENDENCE . . . Thirty-nine Independence high school seniors will receive their diplomas Wednesday, June 1.

The baccalaureate will be at the Calvary Presbyterian church Sunday, May 29, at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. John W. Hood delivering the sermon on "Wisdom Is the Principal Thing." The choir of the church will sing an anthem and Delores Kletzing will sing a solo.

Dr. Henry Gunn, president of the Oregon College of Education, will give the commencement address on Wednesday evening. Clara Brown will give the salutatory and Shirley Peterson the valedictory address.

Diplomas will be presented to the class by Dr. Lewis Britt, chairman of the school board, and Paul Robinson, principal, will present the special awards. Ronald Craven of Salem will sing a solo accompanied by Mrs. Craven.

Miss Joan Voigt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Voigt of Salem, in one of the costumes that won her first place in the fashion show of the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Her designs were shown at the Chicago Fashion Guild luncheon at the Sherman hotel on Friday, May 27. The flower dress is white satin printed in gold, the material designed and silk screen printed in the fabric design department. She also received first prize for the best all around group of designs, first place for suits with her town and country tweed and a special award for coat and suit ensemble. The judge voted her the outstanding young designer of the school. She is completing work on her master's degree in June.
