Most Grains Advance in Day's Trade

CHICAGO, Oct. 27 –(AP)– Most grains wound up with advances today after a session of rapidly shifting price trends.

In contrast, wheat ended lower after early firmness. The bread cereal went into an abrupt tailspin in the closing minutes.

Wheat closed ¼-⅞ lower, corn 1¾-2⅝ higher, oats unchanged to ½ higher, rye unchanged to 1¼ higher, soybeans unchanged to 2¼ higher and lard 10 to 30 cents a hundred pounds higher.

The reversal came in the closing minutes. Wheat suddenly dropped, pushed over partly by a report by Broomhall, international grain authority, that the French minister of agriculture had set an export goal of 33,000,000 bushels for this season. This brought back wheat's bugaboo: The surplus.

Stocks Regain Some of Loss Of Thursday

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 –(AP)– The stock market, in a grudging advance, regained a small part of Thursday's sharp losses today.

Steels, rails and motors acted as the market's main supports. Gains ranged to a little more than $1 a share.

A substantial number of shares, at the same time, backed down a trifle but losses were small.

Trading today was considerably more sedate and volume dropped to 1,800,000 — which is still a good day's business.

Two pieces of corporate news were credited with playing a large part in the recovery: Bethlehem Steel's $2 a share dividend announced after the close yesterday and General Motors income for the first nine months.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 50 cents to $83.20. The three major groups — industrials, rails and utilities — all moved up with utilities making the smallest contribution.

The market narrowed to 1,154 individual issues from a near-record 1,234 yesterday. Of these 557 were marked up and 329 declined.
