Growers Still In Quandary Over Prices

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
Farm Editor, The Statesman

Strawberry growers remained in a quandary Friday so far as picking prices were concerned, following the announcement that 14 cents was being paid by a number of the larger packers.

Birds-Eye Division of General Foods Corporation plant at Woodburn continued its posted price of 15½ cents. The 14 cents quoted by a number of the Salem plants also held Friday.

The Stayton area berry men remarked that as the Stayton Canning Company is a cooperative, the price paid to growers would be based on receipts from the pack. The same applies to other cooperatives in this area.

Growers contacted Friday continued to state that at a 14 cent price they could not break even with a 4½ and ½ cent bonus, picking price. However, a survey revealed that none of the larger fields, where picking had started, had dropped their price by Thursday night.

One grower reported that "it won't make any difference for very long if this weather continues." Some of the valley floor field owners said that unless a comparatively heavy rain fell shortly, the picking in his area would wind up in a week's time.

Berry Growers Association of Silverton Hills voted at the Thursday night meeting to pay 4½ cents with ½ cent bonus for strawberry picking this year. Approximately 250 acres are represented in this association and the crop, all of which goes to United Growers, Salem, is excellent.

While rain "could be used," Mrs. E. A. Beugli, association secretary, said Friday morning, "we are getting along." The dry spell has not yet been as noticeable in Silverton Hills berry fields as on the valley floor.

Last year the United Growers, a cooperative, paid out 17½ cents together with the certificates of interest which cover the remainder of the year's pay. Growers expressed "fair satisfaction" with this and believed they would do about as well this year.

Younger Children Get Poorer Grades

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Children who enroll in school at too early an age earn the poorest grades, says H. M. Davis, supervising principal at River Edge.

Writing in the New Jersey Educational Review, he reports studies of first grade pupils under 6 show a higher percentage of low marks than those over that age.

"A child of 5 is 25 per cent older than one who is 4," he writes. To insist that a 4-year-old enter school and compete with 5-year-olds, is the same as to insist that a 16-year-old boy fight with 20-year-old men not once or twice, but day after day."

Dick Sim Leaves For Philippines

Dick Sim, Salem Seabee who worked 13 months on Navy construction in the Aleutians, is now off for new assignment in the Philippines.

Sim left Salem Wednesday after spending a month's leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sim, 2770 Garden Rd. He is a steelworker, third class, with the Seabees. He graduated from Salem High School in 1950 and has served with the Navy the past two years.
