Beavers Take Twinbill From Sactos

Both Tilts End In 2-1 Scores

Suds Roll Into 3rd As Padres 'Doubled'

PORTLAND (AP) — Portland's Beavers kept alive their hopes for a place in the first division by sweeping a Pacific Coast League doubleheader from Sacramento, taking both games by 2-1 scores, here Sunday. Red Adams hurled the first game win for Portland, shading the Sacs' Glen Elliott. Lyman Linde was the winner in the nightcap, though giving way to Roy Welmaker in the eighth.

Seattle's Rainiers swept into third place in the standings, displacing the San Diego Padres who they whipped in both ends of a twinbill, 15-3 and 6-4. The hot Rainiers won the series 7-2. Los Angeles and Hollywood split a pair, the Angels taking the opener 6-5 and the Stars the nightcap 8-3. The split cut Hollywood's lead to 4½ games over the Oakland Oaks, double winners over San Francisco's Seals by 8-6 and 12-5 counts.

Despite Portland's double win Sacramento took the series, four games to three. Don's Eggert's single scored Jim Russell, who had singled and stolen second base, with the winning run in the ninth inning of the scheduled seven-inning second game. The Beavers' winning marker in the first contest came on Eddie Barr's double. Jack MaGuire's single and an infield out.

Babe Ruth

HIT THE LONGEST HOME RUN ON RECORD! TRUE ☐ FALSE ☐

1—True. Ruth hit one 587 feet at Tampa, Fla., in 1919; Red Sox vs. New York Giants.

2—The Chicago White Sox, in 1920. Urban Faber won 22, Claude Williams 22, Dickie Kerr 21, and Ed Cicotte 21, but they finished in second place.

Cuban Masters Stormy Waters

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Husky Joe Cortinas of Havana, Cuba, staggered ashore at Point Fermin Sunday after nearly 29 hours of battling Catalina Chanel waters in the eighth and possibly roughest crossing on record.

Cortinas started swimming from offshore Santa Catlina Island at 5:10 a.m. Saturday. He tottered ashore at 10:05 a.m. Sunday for an official elapsed time of 28 hours 55 minutes.

The straight-line channel distance is 21 miles. Life guard captain John Olguin, who charted Cortinas' zig-zag course, estimates nearly 40 miles.

ARGENTINE STAR DIES

BUENOS AIRES (AP)- Argentine tennis star Heraldo W. Weiss, 35, died early Sunday and was buried in the afternoon. Weiss had been ill since his return two weeks ago from a tennis tour of Europe. He has been a member of Argentine's Davis Cup team several times and coached the squad last year.

WU Drills Start Tuesday

New Bearcat Coach Staff To Look Over '52 Squad

Ted Ogdahl takes on his first duties as Willamette University's new football mentor this afternoon as he and Aide Jerry Frei, also a new face on the local campus, issue uniforms to some 50 candidates for the 1952 Bearcat team.

The initial 'Cat practice session is set for Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, with another following that afternoon at 3 o'clock. Twice-a-day drills will continue up to the opening of classes.

The Bearcats open the campaign Sept. 27th against Chico State's Wildcats there.

Ogdahl, taking the place of the resigned Chester Stackhouse, will have the initial job of acquainting himself with the returning men as well as freshmen newcomers. The former Jefferson of Portland coach utilizes the "T" and variations, as did Stackhouse.

Of the opening turnout, approximately 22 will be returning monogramers from the 1951 squad. Some promising men are due up from last season's Jayvee crew and there are indications that the club may get considerable help from the freshmen ranks.

The lettermen list includes: Linemen — Bob Dyer, Bob Cody, Don Hayes, Ken Cooper, Bob Hanauska, Bill Clarke, Rube Menashe, Harv Koepf, Dorrance Noteboom, Wally Richartz, Buzz Oerding and Mike Hovis. Backfield—Bill Van Horn, John Kent, Benny Holt, Ray Fretheim, Chuck Lewis, Mickey Coen, Chuck Naone, Bob Walker and Andy George.

One of Ogdahl's tasks will be to fill the holes left by the graduation of such men as Linemen Bob Hall, John Markoskie and Don Hosford and Backs Mark Cotton and Bob Shangle.

The Bearcats open their home schedule at McCulloch Stadium Oct. 11th against College of Idaho.

Favorites Win National Net Tourney Tests

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)- One minor upset and another which appeared to be in the making but evaporated at the end put a small amount of life into the third day of the national tennis championships Sunday as the big stars advanced in unbroken procession.

Grant Golden of Wilmette, Ill., a member of the American Davis Cup squad who was seeded No. 10 on the domestic list, expired quietly when he ran into G. D. Oakley, a newcomer from England, 5-7, 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

Harry Likas, a season campaigner from San Francisco, gained a 2-1 lead in sets over Lewis Hoad, the junior Viking from Australia. He couldn't quite pull it off, though, and the 17-year-old Aussie finally won out by 4-6, 6-2, 6-8, 6-1, 6-4.

Sidney Wood Jr., who won a Wimbledon crown more than 20 years ago, gave a quite remarkable exhibition before he bowed to Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, the nation's No. 1 star, 7-5, 6-3, 7-5.

Maureen Connolly of San Diego, the 17-year-old defending champion in the women's department, walloped Mrs. Gladys M. Heldman of Memah, Tex., 6-0, 6-1.

Briton Makes Channel Swim

CALAIS, France (AP)—Philip Rising of Britain succeeded Sunday in swimming the English Channel despite an adverse sea.

Rising touched ground on the French side at 10:45 a.m., at Sangatte after being in the water 18 hours and 38 minutes, according to the swimmer himself.

Royals Clinch Flag

MONTREAL (AP)—The Montreal Royals clinched their second straight International League baseball pennant Sunday by defeating the Baltimore Orioles in both ends of a double header.

Montreal, a Brooklyn Dodgers farm club, took the league lead early in the season and never was headed.

RACE PILOT KILLED

DAYTON, O. (AP)—Jim Rigsby, a "rookie" driver from Lennox, Calif., was killed Sunday at the Dayton Speedway before 13,000 spectators and a television audience. His car jumped a retaining wall. Rigsby's car hit the retaining wall, bounced 60 feet and landed upside down in an open space near the track. The car started to burn. Rigsby died on the way to a hospital.

NEW YORK (INS)— The famous clay tiles of ancient Persia were designed in many shapes, with the star formation high in popularity, along with animal figures, flowers and men.

Inter-European Ball Game Fiasco

ROME (AP)—Spain beat Italy, 7-3, Sunday in Europe's first international American baseball game. The three-and-a-half hour contest was enlivened by 21 errors, including 13 by Italy.

An announcer explained the game to more than 15,000 fans in the national stadium here, home grounds of the Torino soccer squad.

Many of the fans, whose favorite sports are bicycle racing and soccer, began to walk out after the seventh inning grumbling the the game was too long.
