Yanks Clinch World Series

Champs Retain Title In Hectic Final Fray

zuto's double that bounced wildly down the left field line. Big Johnny Mize then punched a single to left, scoring Rizzuto.

Back came the Brooks to bunt Lopat right out of the box in their half of the fourth.

Snider's single to right field was followed by two bunt singles by Robinson and Roy Campanella.

Faced with this emergency, Stengel was forced to call for his best - Allie Reynolds who had been warming up slowly in the bullpen.

Hodges, who wound up tying a series' record by going up 21 times without a hit, drove Reynolds' third pitch to left field, a sinking liner deep enough to score Snider with the tying run.

Allie skinned through the inning by fanning George Shuba and forcing Carl Furillo to ground to McDougald.

Woodling Belts One

Gene Woodling led off the fifth with a home run drive over the right field screen to win back the lead.

Still Reynolds couldn't hold the edge. Obviously laboring with difficulty after starting two games and saving Raschi Monday, he left Brooklyn tie the score again in the fifth on Billy Cox's double to the wall in the right-center and Reese's sharp single to left.

That was the situation . . . tie score, 2-2, when young Mr. Mantle leveled his heavy guns on the Dodgers. His homer was enough to charge Black with his second series' loss and give Reynolds his sixth series' win since 1947.

Allie Misses Record

Reynolds is one victory away from tying the record for most World Series triumphs. Charley Ruffing holds the mark of seven, acquired while pitching for the Yanks in 1932, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41 and 42.

Given a 4-2 lead on Mantle's single scoring McDougald in the seventh, Vic Raschi came in to try to hold the fort.

Raschi threw four balls in a row to Furillo, first man up. Pinch-hitter Rocky Nelson, batting for Roe, popped out but Cox drilled a single to right. When Reese walked to load the bases, Stengel waved in Kuzava.

Yank Hurler Stingy

Only one man reached base against Kuzava Tuesday in his fine relief chore. That was Hodges who was safe on McDougald's high throw - a record-tying fourth error for a third baseman - in the eighth.

Exact values of winning and losing shares must await an announcement from Commissioner Ford Frick's office. On the basis of 34 Yankee shares each will get approximately $6,000 and each of the 33 Dodger losing shares will amount to about $4,200.

For heroes, the Yankees can present Mantle with his .345 batting average, and Mize's three great homers and his "almost" fourth in the Sunday game.

On the Brooklyn side, Snider was a standout with four home runs equalling the series' records set by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig.

More Worries for Vikings . . .

Sweet Homers to Field Big Outfit Here Friday

Fearful that they're in for another beating, Salem's Vikings are tuning up in determined fashion for Friday night's eight o'clock District 8 A-1 football game at Waters Field with the Sweet Home Huskies. And the Salems have good reason to respect the Huskies.

Bend High had a rugged time before finally downing Sweet Home 19-6 week before last, and last week Albany did it only 18-6. Both Bend and Albany were hard pressed in the process, according to Viking scouts who watched and charted the clashes. Albany beat Salem 14-7 and Bend did it last week by a lopsided 26-7.

The Huskies, coached by Eugene Werkhieser and assisted by Eston Way and Jack Frost, use both the T-formation and single wing offensives. And they have some big boys to make them click. Lettered ends Norm Willoughby and Bruce Banke weigh 180 and 170, respectively. Tackles Jim Putnam and Isham McCammon weigh 210 and 220. Another veteran tackle, Bob Grovom, weighs 165, and still another, Gene Patridge, goes at 222 pounds. Guard Allen Galhoon weighs 203.

The Huskies have six veteran backs, Ted Owens, Phil Starholm, Jack Taylor, Don Kartevold, Dick Pierce and Jim Barrett. Starholm is a 200-pounder and Owens weighs 180. The others are 145-pounders.

Centers Bill Alwert and Larry Elliott weigh 160 and 175.

Werkhieser reports that the Husky reserve strength is very shallow, but admits to having a big first eleven.

The game will mean nothing so far as the district derby is concerned, for neither team now has a chance to cop the title.

Kickoff will be at 8 p.m., and it will mark the first appearance of a Sweet Home team in local action.

Friday games (all non-league): Madras at Stayton, Sacred Heart at Columbia Prep, Portland; Cascade, Salem Academy and Philomath idle.

League action in the Capitol Loop is nil this week as two of the teams take on out-of-circuit opponents and the other three are idle.

Stayton's Eagles, currently in a three-way tie for the league lead with Sacred Heart and Cascade, will be at Stayton to play the visiting Madras eleven in a 2 p.m. game Friday. Sacred Heart goes to Portland Friday afternoon to play Columbia Prep. Salem Academy, Cascade and Philomath are idle, according to their schedules.

In last week's play the Sacred Heart Cardinals overwhelmed Salem Academy in the "Battle of the Academies" 45-13 and Cascade rolled over Philomath 33-0. In a non-league clash Stayton dropped a 7-0 verdict to Sheridan, co-leader of the Yawama League.

Earley Hurt

SEATTLE (AP)— An all-out scrimmage by Washington offensive and defensive elevens wound up Tuesday with Bill Earley, veteran right half and a top pass receiver, sidelined with injuries. Earley, a 200 pound player who figures in Coach Howie Odell's pass plans for Quarterback Don Heinrich, twisted his foot. It was not immediately learned whether the injury was sufficient to keep him out of Saturday's football game with Illinois at Champaign, Ill.

'I Was Lucky', Avers Kuzava As Greatest Thrill Realized

BROOKLYN (AP) — A three and two pitch that was straight down the middle and had practically nothing on it popped harmlessly into the air and husky Bob Kuzava of Wyandotte, Mich., was on his way to the greatest thrill of his life and some $6,000 in cash Tuesday.

The bases were loaded with Dodgers and only one man was out when Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees called in the six-foot, two-inch, 204 pound southpaw from the bull pen to relieve the slipping Vic Raschi.

Duke Snider was the first National leaguer to face Kuzava.

Kuzava worked carefully, refusing to give the Duke anything good. Then, with a full count, "I knew I had to come in with it," said Kuzava.

"The pitch was straight down the middle, carried a little speed, but I was lucky. It was the kind Snider could powder a mile."

But the Dodgers' hitting star got only a piece of the ball and popped up to Gil McDougald for an automatic out.

But the 29-year-old Yankee portsider still had to face the dangerous Jackie Robinson. Jackie popped out to Billy Martin in on the grass, going for a curve.

From there on it was easy sailing for Bob.

He turned the trick on the Giants in the final game of the World Series last year.

Kuzava relieved Johnny Sain in the ninth inning in '51. The bases were loaded with no outs and the Yanks leading, 4-1.

He got Monte Irvin on a fly and one run came in, Bobby Thomson also flied out and another run came in to make the score 4-3. Pinchhitter Sal Yvars then lined to Hank Bauer, who made a spectacular catch to end the series.

'Mantle Big Difference', Bums Moan After Defeat

By WILL GRIMSLEY

BROOKLYN (AP)-"They didn't miss Joe DiMaggio," said Jackie Robinson. "It was that Mantle, that Mickey Mantle killed us.

"If it hadn't been for him I think this would have been a very different series."

The Brooklyn second baseman sat in a deserted corner of the funereal Brooklyn dressing room, a picture of frustration that seemed to envelope all of these athletes who had knocked on the door of baseball's world championship and had seen it rudely shut in their faces.

Beaten 4-2 in the seventh and final game Tuesday, the Dodgers kept clean their unenviable record of never having won a World Series. This was their sixth try.

Robinson's eyes were damp. His chin hung low. He didn't try to hide his bitter disappointment.

"We came so close," he said. "We had so many opportunities. But Mantle was the difference."

Joe Black Downcast

Seven feet away, sitting on his locker stool, was Joe Black, the giant Negro rookie who went to the mound three times against the mighty Yankees, beat them the first time but failed in the other two.

"It gnaws at you. It tears you inside," Black said. "We got so many men on base. We kept saying to ourselves 'this is it' and then there was that let down.

"It would have been better if we had had our brains knocked out, lost 10-0. We would have felt better about it."

"We felt every minute we would get back in the ball game," Manager Charlie Dressen said. "But our big men didn't have the punch when we needed it."

Dressen, Robinson and Duke Snider all paid tribute to Bob Kuzava, the Yankee reliever who came in to rescue Vic Raschi in the seventh with one out and the bases loaded.

Friday games: Mill City at Jefferson, Chemawa at Sublimity, Gervais bye.

The Marion County B League football whirl goes into its third round of action Friday with Jefferson and Mill City colliding in the feature game at Jefferson. Kickoff will be at 2 p.m. The other league skirmish puts Chemawa at Sublimity, with game to start at the same time.

Jefferson opened last week with a 21-7 win over Chemawa, a team that the Timber Wolves defeated 19-7. Mill City last week went to a 13-13 tie with defending champion Gervais, the Cougars coming from behind to get the deadlock.

Sublimity was idle last week, following an opening 6-0 conquest of Gervais. Outcome of the Mill City—Jefferson clash looms as a tossup. Sublimity rates the favored role over the winless Indians.

Gervais is idle this week with a bye.

SEIXAS ADVANCES

MEXICO CITY (AP)-Vic Seixas, the United States' No. 1 ranking player from Philadelphia, needed the full five sets Tuesday before he eliminated the Chilian ace, Luis Ayala, in the third round of the Pan-American Tennis Championships. The scores were 6-2, 4-6, 4-6, 6-2, 6-1.
