Clarence Foster Valentine of 2740 S. Summer St. died Friday in a Salem Hospital following an illness of eight weeks. He was 85.

Valentine retired from farming 17 years ago and had lived in Salem since 1920. He was born in Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 8, 1867, the son of Frank and Caroline Valentine. He lived in Iowa until the age of 26 then moved to Portland. He lived in Baker several years before coming to Salem.

July 29, 1899, he married Ivy Mae Buchanan, who survives him. The couple observed their 54th wedding anniversary last month.

Surviving, besides the widow, are seven daughters, Mrs. Frank Toney, Mrs. Henry Kayser, Mrs. F. L. Cotton, Mrs. Julius Jorgensen and Mrs. Jack Henry, all of Salem, Mrs. Albert Klein, Aumsville, and Mrs. Richard Schotthoefer, Stayton; two sons, William F. Valentine, Salem, and Gerald E. Valentine, Cutler City; sister, Mrs. Helen Webber, Marshaltown, Iowa; brother, Frank L. Valentine, Sioux City, Iowa; 39 grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced later by Howell-Edwards Co.

Driver Hurt By Collision

Verne E. Wikoff, 58, of Salem Route 4, Box 466, was injured in a two-car accident shortly before 5 p. m. Friday at the 12th Street junction on 99E, state police reported.

He was taken to Salem Memorial Hospital where he was treated for a puncture wound on the left arm, bruises and abrasions. He was released later.

Police said a car driven by William A. Rohde, Portland, hit the Wikoff car broadside. Both cars were badly smashed and had to be towed away.

Rohde and his three passengers were uninjured. First aidmen treated Wikoff at the scene.

Twenty Seek Top Job at UO

EUGENE (AP) — Some 20 candidates for the presidency of the University of Oregon have submitted their credentials here, Charles D. Byrne, chancellor of the State System of Higher Education, announced Thursday.

He said the credentials would be studied by the university's board of deans and faculty advisory council, who will make evaluations to him.

Dr. R. E. Kleinsorge, president of the State Board of Higher Education, said earlier this week the board probably will name an acting president until a successor is found to Dr. Harry K. Newburn. Newburn resigned effective Oct. 1 to head an educational television center in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Byrne indicated a recommendation for acting president will be ready for board consideration early next month.

State Workers Requesting Salary Hikes

Requests for salary increases, involving state workers in several state activities, are piling up in the office of the State Civil Service Commission, James Clinton, commission director, said Thursday.

Clinton said these requests are being considered on an individual basis.

He attributed the requests largely to recent salary and wage increases for union workers in private industry.

The commission director said that while some applications for state jobs are being received there is a serious shortage of stenographers, typists and physicians in the state institutions. Clinton said the commission had not yet decided to conduct a salary and wage survey involving state workers prior to the 1955 legislature.

Shortage of workers in the State Highway Department involves largely engineers who have had experience in road construction operations.

Nurses also are in demand at Oregon's mental institutions, Clinton said.

Yamhill Man Drowns in Lake Mishap

McMINNVILLE (AP) — Second drowning victim in Yamhill County in less than a week was Daniel Roy McKinney Jr., McMinnville, who lost his life in Rainbow Lake, 14 miles northwest of here, Thursday.

A companion, Jack Roberts, 18, McMinnville, said the two had been swimming and boating. They were in separate boats, Roberts said, when he heard a splash, and McKinney had vanished.

The body was recovered in about 10 feet of water by city firemen.

Last Friday, Walter Foster of McMinnville drowned in the South Yamhill River near Sheridan.

MEDFORD (AP) — "It certainly is good news," said Mrs. A. H. Webster, when she learned Friday that he son had been released by the Communists in Korea.
