Hal Roach Jr. Buys Studio

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Hal Roach Jr. said Tuesday he has purchased from his father the assets of the Hal Roach Studios, estimated to be worth 10 million dollars.

The amount of purchase price was not announced. The younger Roach said his television corporations would be consolidated into the studio properties under a single, newly formed corporation, Hal Roach Enterprises.

The elder Roach began prodcing movies in 1914 and included some of the industry's top stars on his roster of performers at various times. He will serve in an advisory capacity to the new organization.

Last year an estimated 150,000,000 frozen chicken pies were eaten in the United States, and this year, say frozen food processors, it will be 250,000,000.
