NEW YORK, Sept. 7 .- (Special.)-The New York Times, after looking carefully over the field, concludes that there is no present indication that the Democrats will be appreciably stronger in the next Senate than they are now. At the close of the last session they had 33 members against 65 Republicans. Unless there should be a great political overturning this Fall, the Democrats will just about

The Panther found the Crete-a-Plerrot in the harbor of Gonnives and the commander of the German gunboat informed Admiral Killick on the Crete-a-Pierrot that he must remove his crew and surrender his asked that this time be extended to 15 minutes. The request was granted on the condition that the arms and ammunition on board the Crete-a-Pierrot should be abandoned when her crew left her. The crew of the Crete-a-Pierrot left that vessel amid great disorder. At the end of 15 minutes, the Panther sent a small boat carrying one officer and 30 sailors who were to take possession of the Firminist gunboat. When these men had arrived at a point about 20 yards from the Crete-a-Pierrot, flames were seen to break out on board of her. She had been fired by her crew before they left her. The Panther then fired on the Crete-a-Plerrot until she was completely immersed. Thirty shots, all toid, were fired. There is much feeling here against the Firminists, and their cause is considered to be a bad one. Soldiers are leaving here to attack St. Marc. Port-au-Prince is calm.

THE TROUBLES IN HAYTL The Vessels and the Cause of German Action.

The Crete-a-Pierrot was a steel-screw vessel of 950 tons displacement. She was armed with one 6.7-inch disc, one 4.7-inch, four 3.5-inch, two maxim machine guns and four Nordenfeldt machine guns. The Crete-a-Pierrot formerly was in the service of the Haytjen Government and Admiral Killick was commander of the Haytien fleet. On June 17 of this year, Admiral Killick disembarked troops from the Crete-a-Pierrot to support Gen-oral Firmin, ex-Haytien Minister at Paris and one of the candidates for the presidency of the republic, and after re-fusal to recognize the constituted authoritles, he threatened to bombard Cape Haytien. The consular corps protested against such action being taken, but their Havtien. efforts failed of success, for a few days later the Admiral did bombard Cape Haytien, although little dumage was done by the Crete-a-Pierrot fire. Since June 27 the Crete-a-Pierrot has been operating in the interest of General Firmin. The Haytien Goverment disavowed the action of Admiral Killick in bombarding

Cape Haytien and ordered his arrest, The Panther is a steel cruiser of 997 tons. She was built at Danzig in 1901, and is 206 feet long. She is armed with six 3.4-inch quick-firing guns, six 1.4-inch and two machine guns. The Panther left Germany July 9 for the Caribbean

Sea. Captain Scheder, the newly ap-pointed German Commodore on the Amer-ican Station, had an audience with Emperor William to receive special instruc-tions before starting for his post on the Panther. The present revolution in Hayti started in the month of April, this year, and General Tiresias Simon Sam, president of the Haytlen Republic, reaigned his office and left the island in May. For the last two months American interests in Haytl have been looked after by the United adopted the German view that Killick was a pirate, it has, on the basis of his own instructions to Commander McCrea, never admitted his right to interfere with foreign shipping. It, however, did enter-tain a doubt as to whether Killick was anxious that he should see the drill and vessel in five minutes. Admiral Killick not priviloged to operate as he did in case of the Markomunnia, provider the seizure was made within the mile limit and thus within Havtier waters.

However, any question that might arise as to the legality of the action of the commander of the Panther, is one that the State Department will probaby regard as solely between the Government of Germany and of Hayti, and as the latter government has already denounced Killick as a pirate, and had besought Commander McCrea to seize his ship, the Crete-a-Pierrot, it is certain that it will make no issue in this matter. As there has been no attempt on the part of the German commander to selze any Haytien port, of course, the Monroe Doctrine cannot be regarded as involved in this incident, which, after all, in the opinion settle of officials, may tend to a speedy nt of the internal troubles of Hayu, The United States interests so far cannot be regarded as jeopardized or interfered

Says Crew Was Drowned.

PARIS, Sept. 7.-A brief cablegram has been received here from Cape Haytlen dated September 7, saying the Firminist gunboat Crete-a-Pierrot had been sunk by the German gunboat Panther and that the crew of the Crete-a-Pierrot had been drowned. A dispatch adds that General Jumeau, commander of the Firminist troops in the Department of Artibonite, has taken the town of Mirabalais.

as this was the only opportunity he would have to do so, he consented. Luncheon was served soon afterwards and then divine services which the President attended, were held on the park grounds. The services were conducted by Evangelist Porter and were of a very impressive nature. At their conclusion the President made a short address to the soldiers. He complimented them upon their soldierly appearance and also for the splendid drill they had put up. He said he had enjoyed his stay with them very much. His remarks were frequently interrupted by handclapping and when he con cluded the soldiers, led by Colonel Bald-win gave him three hearty cheers. The President also complimented the members of Troop B, of the State Guard under command of Captain Fyffe, which formed a guard of honor at the depot and which also accompanied him on his visit to Lookout Mountain. At the conclusion of the President's remarks and as he was about to depart from the field, the sol-diers called for "Garry Owen," the selec-tion to the strains of which the Seventh Cavalry went into the battle of Little Big Horn, where Custer and so many other brave men lost their lives. "Yes, give us 'Garry Owen,' " said the Presi-dent. The band struck up this spirited march and rendered it amid cheers from the crowd

Cane for the President.

A very pleasant incident occurred shortly before the President resumed his inspection of the battlefield. A delegation of citizens of Georgia, headed by H. A. Harper, of Rome, presented to him a cane cut from the Chickamauga battlefield. It is of hickory, with a silver head and band, suitably inscribed. On the head is the following: "Presented to President Roosevelt by citizens of the Seventh Congressional Dis-trict of Georgia, September 7, 1902."

On the band are the names of the six Generals who participated in the battle of Chickamauga-Longstreet, Wheeler, Hood, Rosecrans, Thomas and Boynton. The Seventh Georgia District was the home of the President's mother, and he alluded to this fact in accepting the gift. The presentation speech was made by Hon. Moses Wright, of Rome, to which the President responded as follows: "My Dear Mr. Wright-I say how rouched and pleased I and I can impute touched and pleased I am! I can imagine no gift that would have pleased me more than to have the young men from my mother's state present me this cane with the names of six Generals, three of whom wore the blue and three of whom wore the gray, but whose descendants and kins folk are equally loyal to the flag as it now is. I want to mention one curious thing. You have on here General Wheeler's name. I served under him at Santiago. General Hood fought in command of the Southern Army. One of his soldiers was in this regiment and fought with great gallantry. I am so much obliged-I cannot tell you how I appreciate it. No gift could have been more appropriate and given in pleasanter spirit and exactly at the right time. I thank you most warmly,"

Vermont and Wisconsin. What Delaware will do is problematical but it is possible for this state, if it elects, to determine which party shall make a net gain in the next Senate. Naturally, a Republican will succeed Mc-Millan, of Michigan.

Cable Keeps Up Courage.

Chairman Benjamin T. Cable, of the executive committee of the Democratio Congressional Committee, now in Washington, says the prospects for the election of a Democratic House this Fall are excellent, and by such a victory his party will have easy sailing in 1904. He says:

"I have no sympathy with this talk which is accredited to some Democrats that we ought not to try to carry the next House. I am working earnestly for victory, because I believe that we ought to have the House. It is a plain fact that a Democratic House has, since the war, preceded the election of a Democratic President. This statement holds good even as to 1874, for it is known that Tilden was actually elected in 1876, even though he was not allowed to take the office. I believe that if we can win the victory this Fall we will certainly inaugurate a Democratic President in 1905. Besides this, a Democratic House would be a great safeguard for the people as against further, legislation along the lines of Republican policies."

Jones Is Socialistic.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, now classed as a Republican, in an interview regarding the President's trust speeches, makes some original comments in a decidedly socialistic tone. He says:

"Mr. Roosevelt's references to the regulation of trusts is only so much campaign matter, and in the nature of alds for votes at the coming election. He must know that an amendment to the Constitution is next to impossible. Take the sugar trust, for example. They own all their property, and how can you reach them or do anything more with them than has already been done? "Instead of having fewer trusts we shall have more of them. The tendency of the times is toward greater consolidations of capital, and in the end we shall have Government control. Why should not the Government own the railroads and telegraph lines? Indeed, I would go further and include gas and water in the

"I am coming to think that the Government might take over the coal mines with advantage, too. The trusts in general are fostering and causing the spread of socialism. It is worse now in England than in this country.

"The time is coming when every man will have an interest in these great com-
