Ex-Labor Racketeer Dies in Truck Blast

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Willie Bioff, 55, former Hollywood labor racketeer who once admitted extorting more than a million dollars from movie studios, died Friday in a gangster-type explosion at his Phoenix home.

The blast went off Friday morning as Bioff stepped on the starter of his pickup truck. He had just said goodbye to his wife, Laurie, with whom he had lived quietly here under an assumed name for several years.

"I don't know whether this was a professional gangster job or not," said Lt. Ralph Edmundson, chief criminal investigator of the sheriff's office. "But it certainly was an effective one."

Awaits Tests

Police Friday night were checking Bioff's background while awaiting the result of laboratory tests Edmundson said they expected would tell them what sort of explosive had been used.

The blast threw Bioff's mutilated body 25 feet and scattered wreckage over a radius of several hundred feet. It left only the twisted frame, the motor and the wheels of the truck.

The door of the garage was blown off, the roof shattered and windows in the Bioff home and several neighboring houses were broken. Jagged chunks of metal tore holes in the wall of a home 100 feet away. The blast rattled windows a mile away.

"We're working on the theory that it was a bomb," said Edmundson.

"Elements of Gang"

Lt. Martin Pintz of the sheriff's office said the explosion "has elements of the old gangster wars."

Bioff had been special representative of George Browne, president of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employes, before World War II.

Bioff and Browne were convicted in November, 1941, on charges of extorting $550,000 from several motion picture studios. Bioff later testified before a grand jury in New York that he had received more than a million dollars from film producers as front man for an under-world syndicate.

Bioff was sentenced to 10 years and Browne to 8. Both were released in 1944, reportedly for providing testimony to the federal government that led to conviction of other members of the gang.

In commuting the sentence, a Federal Court gave Bioff permission to change his name. He lived here under the name of William Nelson.

Capone Moved in

Bioff's testimony after his conviction indicated the old Capone mob had moved in on him and Browne.

Indicted on the basis of the testimony in New York were:

Capone lieutenant Frank (The Enforcer) Nitti, who killed himself the day the indictments were returned; Charles (Cherry Nose) Gioe and Frank Maritote, both slain in 1954; John Roselli, once wed to actress June Lang; Louis (Little New York) Campagna; Paul de Lucia; Phil d'Andrea; Ralph Pierce, all members of the Capone gang; and Louis Kaufman, an IATSE business agent.

In granting commutation of sentence to Bioff and Browne, a federal judge commented that without their testimony "there might not have been convictions."

Jail Escapee Indicted on Murder Count

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — A grand jury indicted Martin D. Reyes, 23, Seattle, on charges of first degree murder and assault with a dangerous weapon here Thursday.

Reyes is accused of murder in the fatal shooting of James Appelgate, 39, Corvallis posseman who was one of those seeking to recapture Reyes after he and a companion escaped from the Lane County jail at Eugene, Oct. 24.

Reyes was captured a day later at Monmouth, a few hours after Appelgate died of bullet wounds in a hospital.

Appelgate was shot as he tried to capture Reyes after the escaped prisoner had disarmed Corvallis Policeman William C. Bottemiller.

He was indicted on the assault charge for taking the police revolver from Bottemiller.

He is to be arraigned Tuesday morning before Judge Fred McHenry.

Reyees and Clifford "Sonny" Shadd were arrested in Grants Pass on a car theft charge and were taken to jail at Eugene. Reyes had a hidden gun. With it they forced their way to freedom, and commandeered a car.

Strong Rally Sends Stocks Bounding Up

NEW YORK (AP) — A strong rally led by high-priced issues Friday sent the stock market bounding ahead.

It was the second straight forward drive for the market following three days of indecisive drift.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced $1.70. Thursday it was up $2.20. The average now stands at $172.70.

Based on that yardstick, the stock market now has regained more than half of the tremendous loss suffered in the reaction triggered by news of the President's illness.

Friday as Thursday, the market was inspired by the great gains made in high-priced issues, many of them in the split candidate class.

Standard Oil (NJ) was up 7 ½ Thursday and 6 ⅛ Friday to close at 146 as the day's second most active issue on 77,600 shares. Directors Thursday proposed a three-for-one split and raised the dividend payment to $1.50 from $1.25.

Chrysler, up 2 points Thursday, backed down ⅜ at 95⅞ Friday. It was the day's third most active issue on 48,200 shares. After the close directors declared a dividend of 75 cents and an extra of $1 making 1955 payments $4 as compared with $4.50 last year. The directors made no mention of a split.

The industrial component of The Associated Press average was up $3.20, railroads were ahead $1.10, and utilities were up 10 cents.

There were 1,165 individual issues traded of which 670 advanced and 270 declined with 28 new highs and 13 new lows for the year scored.

Volume amounted to 2,430,000 shares as against 2,260,000 shares Thursday.

Twins Trade Kidneys, Drink to Health

Grains Show Dull Session

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain droned along through a dull session to a mixed close on the Board of Trade Friday.

Only definite pattern was set by corn and soybeans, both of which finished with minor losses. This duplicated the action of the past several Fridays.

Wheat closed ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, corn ⅜-⅝ lower, oats ⅛-¼ higher, rye unchanged to ¼ higher, soybeans unchanged to 1 ½ lower and lard 15 to 45 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Despite the ragged appearance of Friday's market, all grains advanced for the week.

Colorado Spot Coldest in U. S.

FRASER, Colo. (AP)—There was an icy crust on the edges of one of President Eisenhower's favorite fishing streams Thursday. The mercury dropped to 12 degrees below zero, making Fraser the nation's coldest spot.

The President fished at a swift mountain stream on a ranch near Fraser only two days before suffering his heart attack Sept. 24. The little timber and cattle town is on a mountain plateau 65 miles northwest of Denver.

North Santiam Road Project Wins Approval

PORTLAND (AP) — The State Highway Commission Friday approved award of contracts for 13 highway construction projects totaling $1,586,598.

This raised the total awards at the commission's two-day session here to $4,757,376.

Among awards approved Friday was a bid by Durban Bros., Eugene, for grading 9.2 miles of the Sublimity Gun Club-Stout Creek section of the North Santiam Highway in Marion County. The Durban bid was $211,888.

Largest Contract

Largest contract awarded Friday went to the Fred H. Slate Co. and E. C. Hall Co., both Portland, for grading and paving 1.36 miles of the Coquille-Rink Creek section of the Coos Bay-Roseburg Highway. Their joint low bid was $306,278.

In other action Friday the commission:

Granted the request from a group of Oakland, Ore., officials that a new access road to the town by provided from U.S. Highway 99.

Took no action on a request by Jackson County officials for completion and improvement of Lake of the Woods Road.

Informed Baker officials that they will be furnished all possible information on the proposed freeway which would bypass the town.

Highly Unlikely

Told a group of Harney County officials that it was highly unlikely that the state would take over as a state highway the Frenchglen-Fields-Denio Road.

Notified Clatsop County officials that the commission will assist in trying to find a way to finance a proposed Columbia River bridge at Astoria. State Highway engineer R. H. Baldock reported, however, that if the state should devote federal aid money to the bridge project, it would require every cent of funds from that source for two years.
