Marciano to Help Train Rademacher

COLUMBUS, Ga., July 13 (AP) — Former world heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano is going to help Olympic champ Pete Rademacher get ready for his first professional bout—for the heavyweight crown now held by Floyd Patterson.

Rademacher's backers said Marciano would come here July 22 and spend a week helping the ex-Army Lieutenant in his training for the Aug. 22 bout in Seattle. Marciano also is scheduled to accompany Rademacher to the Washington City 10 days before the fight.

It also was announced today that the bout would not be televised. Mike Jennings, Rademacher's chief financial backer, said TV was ruled out because of time zone problems.

He pointed out that in order to accommodate viewers in the eastern daylight zone the fight would have to begin at 6 p.m. Seattle time. A bout at that hour, he said, would mean the loss of some 60,000 potential paying customers who work at aircraft plants in the Seattle area.

To draw these cash customers, the promoters have set the tentative first bell at 10 p.m. PST or 2 a.m. EDT.

Destruction Derby At H-B Rained Out

Rain last night forced cancellation of the scheduled jalopy destruction derby at Hollywood Bowl. The rain-slickened asphalt turns made it too dangerous for the clunkers to put on their smash and crash show.

Next Saturday night's program has been set up for the souped-up hardtops in a mid-season championship event with the main to go 75 laps, according to Valley Sports promotor Ron Ali.

Smith Beats Pigou

HOLLYWOOD, July 13 (AP) — A fierce closing rally by Tombstone Smith, 149, Los Angeles, earned him a decision over Marcel Pigou, 155½, Paris, France, in a 10-round brawl at Legion Stadium tonight.

Smith, seventh ranking welterweight with a record of 17 straight wins, was outpunched consistently through the first five rounds.

Shu R, Pep Appeal in Final P-M Race Wins

PORTLAND MEADOWS, Portland, July 13 (Special) — Shu R, a brown gelding owned by the Conley Brothers, trained by H. A. Haines and piloted by Glen Dixon, today won the $2,000 Oregon Breeders Futurity for 2-year-olds here, the feature of the final day of racing at the Meadows.

Shu R broke from the gate on top and held the lead throughout, winning easily in the time of 1:00.1 for the five furlongs. The frisky son of Hurakes out of Little Shuttle was a 4-5 betting favorite and defeated Foreign News, Flashthorn and Cresson Wave, in that order.

Pep Appeal, a classy 4-year-old gelding, and also directed by Dixon, won the Invitational Handicap for 3-year-olds and upward, another feature of the final day of the 50-day meet. At 8-5 shot in the wagering, Pep Appeal overhauled Rough Dude near the wire and won going away. Rough Dude was second and Effort's Duels third. Spike, a high class 3-year-old importation from the big California tracks, finished out of the money.

Pep Appeal closed out the day's Double-Betting, and coupled with earlier winners Warky De in the fifth race, Fast Reader in the sixth and Ucanrun in the seventh, paid three ticket holders $3,541.60 each.

The final day's attendance was 4,247, and $207,264 was pushed through the mutuel windows.

Kabler Wins PNW Crown

SPOKANE, July 13 (AP)—Bill Warner, a cool 18-year-old swinger from Spokane, won the Pacific Northwest Golf Assn. men's amateur tournament today with a 3 and 1 victory over medalist Jim Mallors.

Little Carole Jo Kabler of Sutherlin, Ore., won the women's title with a smashing 9 and 8 decision over Mrs. Robert Young of Tacoma.

Warner, a crewcut youngster just out of high school, took a three up lead over the tall former University of Washington basketball player after 18 holes.

Warner went four up early in the afternoon round but Mallors, who also lives in Spokane, found his game and tied it up on the 31st. From then on, Warner applied the pressure and Mallors seemed to be looking up at times on his approach shots. He went two down on a great 25-foot Warner putt on the 34th and then lost it on a gamble on the 35th.

Mrs. Young, whose grandmother won the Northwest's first amateur tournament in 1899, was outclassed in this 35th renewal by the 19-year-old University of Oregon sophomore.

Miss Kabler was six up after 18 holes and closed out the match on the 20th.

Women's 'Am' Set Monday

OMAHA, July 13 (AP) — A field of women golfers to whom par golf is not quite good enough will tee off Monday in the 1957 Women's Western Amateur Golf Tournament — the nation's oldest event for women.

And to make sub-par golf a little more difficult for them the yardage at the rolling Omaha County Club course has been stretched from the conventional 5,825 distance for women to a challenging 6,147 for the first two days of the week-long meet and to 6,242 yards for the remainder of the competition. Officials sliced one stroke off four holes to establish a par of 73 for the tournament.

Defending champion Ann Quast of Marysville, Wash., will not be in the tournament because of illness, but at least three former champions will be on hand — Marjorie Lindsay, five-time Illinois state champion and 1951 winner of the Western; Mrs. Lucille Mann of Omaha, winner in 1933 when she played under her maiden name of Robinson, and again in 1941 following her marriage, and Polly Riley of Fort Worth, winner in 1950 and 1952.

Dick Mayer said the birdie putt he sank on the 18th green at Inverness in Toledo to tie for the National Open title was a 10-foot putt with a four-inch break. He beat Cary Middlecoff in the playoff, 72 to 79.

Lew Burdette won his seventh by scattering 9 hits, although the Pirates got only one run, short of a tie with two in the ninth. Covington's homer was an inside-the-park job with nobody on and Crandall's came with Andy Pafko on base in the seventh, actually winning the ball game.

Harry Anderson's two-run homer and another home run by Joe Cunningham helped Philadelphia down the Chicago Cubs 3-2. Warren Hacker, a Cub in 1956, gave up only five hits until the ninth when he weakened and needed relief help from Red Ruffing.

Anderson's shot was an inside-the-park homer with Ed Bouchee on base and Dick Drott pitching in the [illegible]. Cunningham's smash also came off Drott, Jerry Kindall homered for the Cubs in the seventh.

Pastrano Gets Harris Rematch

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., July 13 (AP) —Willie Pastrano, who suffered a stunning defeat by Roy Harris of Cut and Shoot, Tex., in a June fight, will get his chance for revenge in the Miami Beach auditorium Aug. 20.

Promoter Chris Dundee announced that he had signed Pastrano, fourth-ranking heavyweight title contender, and Harris for a rematch.

The undefeated Harris gained a unanimous decision over Pastrano in a fight that drew a $40,000 gate in Houston. The loss dropped Willie from third to fourth in the heavyweight rankings.

The rematch will not be televised.

Don Priestly, 198-pound senior from Bessemer, Ala., will captain the 1957 Georgia Tech football team. He plays center on offense and is a linebacker on defense.

Seeks Title

Bicep Title Top Prize

Luther "The Tank" Lindsey is [illegible] for the Northwest heavyweight mat championship after a [illegible] and no later than Tuesday night, night at the Armory.

Matchmaker Elmo Owen has succeeded in signing the title grappler, the powerful Negro star from West Virginia, and Wild Bill Savage, the hooded hoodlum from Illinois.

The two were booked for a rematch following their bloody no contest bizarre of last week which ended with both fighting on the Armory floor and refusing to reenter the ring. But Savage was at first reluctant to risk his coveted title belt in the rematch. That is until Owen serenaded him with a cash guarantee.

Savage Was Cut Up

Lindsey once held the Northwest title and is recognized as one of the top heavyweight mat gladiators in the nation. He recently returned from a jaunt to New Zealand and just got back in time for last week's bloody spattered clash with Savage. Wild Bill did most of the breeding in that one as Lindsey cut him about the face under the mask Savage wears.

Another gent who figures he should be in the middle of the title picture also leads off Tuesday's card, is the 8:30 o'clock opener. He's Huge Herbie Freeman and he's to meet Jap Judo villain Haru Sasaki.

Leo Garibaldi, owner of a fast and furious style and exceedingly popular with local fans, appears in the special event opposite Ali "Terrible Turk" Pasha.

Owen had hoped to have Dirty Doug Donovan on the Tuesday card also, but Montana Douglas has refused to appear here unless it's in a tag match with his brother Red.

Outlook Good For Deer, Elk

PORTLAND, July 13 (AP) — Dave Lyman, condition assignment for the Oregon Game Commission, says the deer and elk outlook in the state next fall will be good.

The Game Commission said the day that deer and elk herds are in the best physical condition in years. Days attributed the fine herds to a mild winter, better than average browse and good spring food supplies.

Also, the commission said agents reported a preponderance of twin births. In the Tillamook Burn area, five of every eight does observed had twin fawns. Elk bands likewise have many calves.

Meanwhile, the commission was asked to increase hunts in areas where deer damage young trees. The Industrial Forests Assn. said landowners must take a long look at the deer problem on their lands before embarking on large scale tree plantings.

An association spokesman asked establishment of either sex and special sessions in areas "where landowners can establish serious damage to young trees from over population of deer."

Bill Rose, Davis Tennis Finalists

PORTLAND, July 13 (AP) — Bill Rose, Portland, and Gordon Davis, Santa Monica, Calif., seeded No. 1 and 2, today advanced to the finals in the men's singles in the 60th Oregon State Tennis Tournament.

Rose defeated Seattle's Art Kono 3-6, 6-1, 6-4 and 6-2. And Davis, University of Southern California ace, downed John Swann of Vancouver, B.C., 6-1, 3-6, 7-9, 8-6, 8-6 in today's semifinals.

In other matches, Dave Reed, Glendale, Calif., defeated Barry Baskin, Monterey, Calif., 6-1, 6-3 for the boys' singles title.

Baskin and Reed won the boys' doubles crown.

Sue Huff, Tacoma, Wash., won the girls' singles championship with a 6-1, 6-0 victory over Judy Gamlin, Vancouver, B.C.

SBC Meets Monday

Final plans for the Salem Breakfast Club's annual stag picnic will be made at a committee meeting Monday, 3 p.m., at the Hotel Senator, according to Chairman Jerry Long.

Dunn Still Tops In NWL Hitting; Lybeck Leader

Salem's Jack Dynamite Dunn, sporting a .364 batting average, is still atop the hit parade of the Northwest League, according to official statistics released by William J. Weiss, league statistician. Eugene's Don Fraley is batting .391, but hasn't been at bat enough times.

Another Senator, Chuck Lybeck, is pacing the hurling department with a .812 winning percentage on 13 wins and 3 losses. Ollie Brantley of Eugene is the loop's top winner with 15. Lybeck and Vern Kindsfather, also of Salem, have the most complete games as each has pitched 13.

Back in the hitting department, Tri-City's Ellis Burton has belted 13 homers for that lead and is tied with Herman Lewis of Yakima for the most total bases, at 154. Lewis leads in doubles with 22 and has 91 runs batted in.

Here are the statistics for games through July 9.

SPORTSLIGHTNER

by Al Lightner

Hotchkiss won the blue ribbon one year when he signed a flock of Washington State, Idaho and Gonzaga collegiates and later sold most of them for quite a profit.

We refer to first baseman Ed Bouche, now with the Phillies; pitcher Jack Spring, now with the San Francisco Seals after a brief fling in the majors; catcher Jerry Ogle, now with the Schenectady, N.Y., club, and infielder Wilbur Johnson, also with Schenectady. All came from either WSC, Idaho or Gonzaga. So did current Lewiston outfielder Bruce McIntosh, another of Hotchkiss originals.

They'll be kicking Hotchkiss' name around a lot in Spokane baseball circles as the days go on. But he showed them that even though he wasn't a likely candidate for mayor of the town, he was a businessman who knew how to get his dollar's worth . . .

St. Paul, Molalla Shows Rater Among Tops

The folks who put the recent St. Paul and Molalla rodeo shows through their paces again this year can be right proud of the contents in the latest Rodeo Cowboy Association bulletin from Denver. Both the St. Paul and Molalla shows were among the biggest in 24 states during the "Fourth" celebration . . . Also, Bill Boag of Portland won more prize loot than any other cowpoke during the nationwide shows, collecting $1,342 by appearing in both the St. Paul and Molalla productions . . .

A special paragraph in the bulletin went to Molalla's 14-year-old Bobby Broderick, too, as this 120-pounder won $160 by placing second in the steer wrestling portion of the Buckeroo, competing against grown men . . .

Speaking of the rodeo bronc-busters, State Fair chief Howard Maple hopes to lure the nation's best to the local extravaganza this year, including the great Casey Tibbs, who has won the country's bronc-riding championship five times and who is now leading the pack in the "all-around" totals . . .
