OVER TAKES UP RELIEF PROBLEMS DURING CAMP STAY

RAPIDAN, Va., June 6.—(AP)—His free of tax bill worries for the ment, President Hoover at his tain camp today gave another ing problem—relief—a thorough ey.

Present for an analysis of the sub- were the men who direct the re- struction finance corporation. The ident has recommended that it ate a billion and a half dollars re to be used, if necessary, to aid the upward economic climb.

This and making available $300,- 000 for help to states, municipali- s and counties which have about hed the limit of their resources, o figured prominently in the de- erations which President Hoover d with President Dawes of the cor- ration, Eugene Meyer, chairman of board, and its directors.

Undersecretary Ballantine of the easury; Secretary Hurley; Paul Bes- farm loan board commissioner; d Henry M. Robinson, California nker whose financial judgment is ghly respected by the chief execu- e, were other guests.

One of the subjects talked over as a prospect of breaking the broadief program into separate bills. e would include relief to the states; other would give the finance cor- oration the additional billion and a lf.

This would leave the bond issue posal separate and would enable e administration opposition to be ncentrated on them.
