Creswell School Board Holds Meet

CRESWELL, Aug. 20.—(Special)—The Creswell public school directors held the first meeting for the term Saturday evening at the school house at which time they accepted the sixty cords of wood delivered by A. J. Burdick and allowed a few minor bills. The janitor, L. C. Scheen, began his work Saturday and expects to have everything in order for the opening of school, Monday, Sept. 12. The board ordered the fumigation of all school text books and library books and appointed A. H. Olson as truant officer. The entrance age for new pupils is six years as required by school law. The usual supply of towels, floor oil, soap, etc., was ordered. This year's board of directors consists of Mrs. J. W. Gates, chairman, Arthur Olson and R. E. Snider. Miss Elizabeth Tryon is the school clerk.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Hobson and daughter Alice of Los Angeles who have been visiting Creswell friends left Wednesday evening for Salem to visit with relatives on their way north. They plan to call at Creswell on their return trip.

William Flescher of the coast district was a visitor Thursday at the E. G. Viles home.

Signal Notes

SIGNAL, Aug. 20.—(Special)—Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Greyle and son of Eugene, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Eaton Wednesday evening. Rev. Greyle is pastor of the Lowell church.

Thurston Items

THURSTON, Aug. 20.—(Special)—Mrs. Ellen Needham closed a deal Thursday when she sold her four acre tract in Thurston to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fulton of Glendale, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Fulton were in Thursday several days ago looking over property, expecting to locate on the McKenzie, but left without making a deal. The latter part of this week Mr. Fulton returned and purchased the place. He left for Glendale Thursday evening. The Fultons, with two grandsons, will take possession about the first of September. Mr. Fulton is a retired Seventh Day Adventist minister and has spent about 30 years as a missionary in India. His two grandsons will enter the Thurston grade school. Mr. and Mrs. Travis have been living in the house recently sold. They expect to move as soon as possible.

The budget which was voted upon by the Thurston grade school for the coming winter was adopted Wednesday afternoon by the patrons of the school. A large number was present for the meeting.

Two teachers are to be employed at the Thurston school this year as was decided by a vote of the district earlier in the summer. The carrying of the budget confirms the earlier vote. Mrs. Hubert Gray of Thurston and Miss Dorothy Travis of Springfield are to teach at Thurston again this year. Two new scholars are moving into the district the first of September.

The A. R. Mathews baler was at the Ray Rennie home Friday baling straw.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gray left Wednesday for Marshfield where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Earl Sims. Their little granddaughter, Betty Jean Gray, of Signal, Oregon, went with them. They expect to be gone about a week. Mrs. Davenhill and daughters, of Eugene, are staying at the Gray ranch while they are gone.

Miss Marjory Grant of Thurston will entertain the bridge club next week at her home east of Thurston.

Mrs. J. N. Hill of San Francisco is visiting a few days with her son of Thurston, Mrs. J. N. Hill, Jr., and family. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hill and son, James, expect to leave Saturday morning for San Francisco where they will visit Mrs. Hill's mother, Mrs. Howell. They expect to be gone several days.

On Camp Creek

UPPER CAMP CREEK, Aug. 20.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lewis and son, Bobby, of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. George Draper, of Elmira, spent Sunday at the George Burbach home.

Warren Nye has spent the last two weeks visiting his grandmother, Mrs. E. H. Masterson of Coburg.

Evergreen blackberries are ready and a number of people have begun picking them.

Chinook, Steelhead Runs on Increase

THE DALLES, Ore., Aug. 20.—(AP)—Local salmon fishers report an increase in chinook and steelhead runs. Chinooks of large size are now being taken, where until now the run has been characterized by small fish.

During the closed season, Aug. 25 to Sept. 10, Indians who are permitted to take fish at any ime under tribal treaties with the federal government, will not be allowed to sell their catches to canners or markets. During the period scores of Indian families from the Warm Springs and Yakima reservations will smoke their catches for winter food.

At Walterville

WALTERVILLE, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. Lee Korn and son, Billy Gene, left Thursday morning for Portland after visiting through the month of July and part of August with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Jennings. Mr. Korn came down Wednesday evening for them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Irvin and Mary and Jim are visiting a few days at the home of Mrs. Irvin's father, Elliott Potter. Their home is in Springfield.

George Momb was in Springfield a short time Friday morning on business. Mr. Momb is cutting the last of his grain this week and is also threshing for the neighbors. He has finished the threshing in the Walterville vicinity and his next move will be to the Deerhorn farms.

Announcements for the graduation from Monmouth normal school to be held August 25 have been received here from Mrs. L. K. Stacy of Lebanon. Mrs. Stacy has finished her work at Monmouth in record time by carrying both winter and summer work. She is well known in this vicinity, having spent some time visiting at the Stacy home and with other relatives here.

The light rain that began falling Friday morning about 7 o'clock continued falling heavier instead of stopping and checked some of the farm work for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page made a business trip to Eugene Friday morning.

The vacant house which is owned by Mrs. Momb and is being remodeled has been lowered and reset on a solid foundation. Flooring and roofing will be the next work on the house and porches are to be built.

On Spencer Creek

UPPER SPENCER CREEK, Aug. 20.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Witmer and baby, John Gimpl and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knox and the boys were callers at the Clouse home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knox and the boys recently returned from a trip to Marshfield and the coast.

Mrs. Luella Lewis spent the week-end in Eugene.

Schnoorlbergs and Johnsons were having their threshing done Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mulligan and boy from Washington arrived early Sunday morning for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. Mulligan. They stayed until Thursday afternoon when they started upon their return trip.

The Beamer and Clouse families had dinner at the Clouse home Sunday to celebrate their birthdays. Vincent Clouse' birthday was Aug. 9, Glenn Beamer's Aug. 1, and Robert Clause' Aug. 19.

CLAIMS CLOSER KINSHIP

POMEROY, O.—(UP)—Miss Anne Washington, Middleport, O., claims she is a closer kin to George Washington than Miss Anne A. Madison Washington, who flew with Major James Doolittle over Washington's colonial trails recently. Miss Washington bases her claims on the fact that she is a granddaughter of Andrew Park, Baltimore merchant, who married Harriett, favorite niece of George and daughter of Samuel, George's full brother.

ROCKEFELLER AIDS TRIANON

VERSAILLES.—(UP)—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is financing plans for restoring the original classic roof of the Grand Trianon in the style of Louis XIV. Work is in progress for removing the roof designed by Gabriel in 1750 to provide for the drainage of rain water. The Grand Trianon harmonized with Italian architectural design when it was built in 1678.

VETERAN WEDS

WAREHAM, Mass., Aug. 20.—(AP)—James B. Johnson, 90, of North Abington, Civil War veteran and a member of President Lincoln's bodyguard, was married here today to Mrs. Susan T. Wales, 73.

THREE KILLED

TOULON, France, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Two passengers and the pilot aboard a French naval bombing plane were killed when the ship crashed and burned today while making a training flight.
