Robert Eakin Of La Grande Dies Suddenly

LA GRANDE, Ore., Dec. 28.—(AP)—Robert S. Eakin, city attorney and past grand master of the A. F. and A. M. of Oregon, died unexpectedly at his home here this morning of heart disease.

Mr. Eakin was born at Union Dec. 4, 1884. Shortly after graduating from Willamette university he was admitted to the practice of law, serving as secretary of the state water board until 1911, when he resigned to engage in law practice in La Grande with the late Judge Thomas H. Crawford.

During the last 20 years he was very active in community affairs, serving as chairman of the La Grande school board for many years. He leaves a widow, the former Netta M. Biddle, to whom he was married in 1914, and two sons, Robert Edward and Jack, besides other relatives.

Funeral services will be held here Friday afternoon.

Lone Pine News

LONE PINE, December 28. (Special)—A Christmas program was given Thursday evening, December 22, at the Lone Pine school house. The following program was given before a large crowd: "The Christmas revolt" by the primary grade; star drill, by the upper grade girls; Christmas pageant by the upper and a few from the lower grades; piano music by Mrs. White and a duet by Gale Piquet and Billie Telford. After the program bags of candy were distributed by Santa Claus.

Mrs. Elgin Ballor, teacher of the primary room, left Thursday evening for California where she plans to spend her Christmas vacation. She was accompanied by Mr. Ballor.

The Lone Pine school students are out of school for the annual Christmas vacation which will last until January 3.

The Lone Pine Parent-Teachers will meet at the Lone Pine school house Thursday evening, January 5.

Beacon Drive is once more open to traffic after being closed for the past few weeks, because of a new covered bridge being built.
