City News Notes

WHAT'S DOING
Tuesday
1:30 p. m.—Halley Bible recital, Methodist Episcopal church.
Wednesday
12 noon—Weekly luncheon of Eugene Lions club, Eugene hotel.
1 p. m.—Halley Bible recital, Central Presbyterian church chapel.
1:30 p. m.—Halley Bible recital, Methodist Episcopal church.

Report From Hospital—
The report from the Pacific hospital Tuesday morning listed as dismissed Rosemma Carter, Mrs. MacTaylor and baby, Mrs. Inscore and baby, Mrs. Femal Pfingsthall and baby, and Janet Cooley. Admitted were Mrs. Gertrude Miller, Mrs. Doris Cooley, Miss Adelle Brooks.

Entertainment Planned—
The regular monthly social meeting of the Eugene camp, No. 115, Women of the World, an entertainment will be given by Coxey's "Melo-Masters," directed by Z. M. Cox. Members of the W. O. W. and their friends are invited. The entertainment will be at 7:45 p. m., following a dance.

Services In Park—
Sunrise services were started today in the east park opposite the bandhouse and will continue each morning, it is announced. They open at 6 o'clock. The services are undenominational and the public is invited. No collections are taken.

Legion Men At Florence—
More than 100 members of the American Legion posts of Eugene, Junction City, Monroe and other points attended a Legion conclave at Florence Saturday and Sunday. A feature of the meeting was a seafood dinner. Trips out over the bar and to the beach were made.

Lodge Day Program Planned—
The Eugene lodge of Elks will hold its flag day program at the lodge hall Wednesday evening, June 14, it has been announced. The program committee consists of C. S. Dillon, Charles P. Poole, and Ben H. Hill.

To Meet Wednesday —
The regular meeting of the Unity church assembly will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in room 877 Willamette street. Mrs. F. Stansbie is leader.

Rev. Elkins Here—
Rev. W. A. Elkins, former Eugene resident, now pastor of the Christian church at Monmouth, was here for memorial day exercises. He spoke at the Spanish war veterans' plot at I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Improvements Made At Springs—
Frank Bizelow has 16 men at work on extensive improvements in the Lowe Springs resort, according to Ralph L. Taylor, forest ranger who is here.

Miss Minney Leaves—
Miss Gladys Minney of Vida left today for Nyssa to visit for some time. She was accompanied to Eugene by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Minney, Mrs. Frank Minney and Harold Minney.

Miss Shuey Visits—
Miss Thelma Shuey, of Eugene, was last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Richard Riley, in Roseburg.

Here from Medford—
Ernest R. Gilstrap, who is now publisher of the Medford Mail-Tribune, spent the week-end here visiting his family.

Junction City Farmer Here—
J. C. Bryant, farmer of the Junction City district, transacted business in Eugene Monday.

Harold Lee Here—
Harold Lee, who operates a farm in the Central district west of Eugene, was here on business Monday.

Here from Creswell—
Frank Linden of the Creswell district transacted business at the courthouse Monday. J. W. Rocketts, also of Creswell, was here.

Sheriff Here—
Henry L. Bown, ex-sheriff, was in the city Monday from his farm in the Junction section.

Mrs. Bernard In Portland—
Mrs. Audrey Ann Bernard is visiting her grandmother in Portland for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard went over to that city Sunday.

Party at Marshfield—
Mrs. R. Lovely of Eugene transacted business in Marshfield over the last week-end.

Visit at Marshfield—
Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith of Eugene visited at Marshfield over the week-end.

Visit Marshfield—
Mrs. B. Gray of Eugene was at Marshfield on business Saturday.

Returning Home—
Earl Rowling, teller at the First National bank, is back at his window in the bank after a week's vacation.

Here In City—
James E. Noland, an early day sheriff of Lane county, was here from his home at Cresswell Monday.

Here from Noti—
Mrs. Bourgeis of Noti was in Eugene Monday.

Mrs. Strong Here—
Mrs. Zoe Strong of Oakridge was a business visitor Sunday.

Here from Marcola—
Bernard Land of Marcola was in Eugene Sunday and Monday.

Story Sold—
Dorothy Cox Hesse (Mrs. J. L.) has received word that another story written by her has been bought by the Street and Smith publications. It will be in the July issue of "Love Stories."

Out This Month—
Miss Florence Thompson of Eugene has a story, "You Pay As You Go," in the June issue of the Woman's Home Companion.

At The Dalles—
Mrs. W. H. Brooke and Mrs. Ivan Collins of this city are at The Dalles for a few days. Mrs. Brooke is a former resident of that city.

Report From Hospital—
The report from the Eugene hospital Tuesday morning listed as admitted, J. V. Fleck, Charles Wetzel and Clark Gower. Vernie Dial was listed as dismissed.

Snow Remains At Lake—
There is still a great deal of snow at Crescent lake, according to L. A. Hughey, who keeps a resort at that place and who was in Eugene Tuesday.

Mrs. Irving Returns—
Mrs. Bertha Irving returned Tuesday from a short visit with her folks in Salem.

Supreme Judge In Portland—
Circuit Judge G. F. Skipworth was in Portland Memorial day in Portland.

W. O. Holland Here—
Walter J. Holland of the Coos district was in Eugene on business Monday.

Judge At Mapleton—
County Judge Fred Fisk was at Mapleton Monday and Tuesday inspecting roads and bridges and visiting old friends.

In Portland—
Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Burnett spent the last week-end in Portland and stopped at McMinnville for Memorial day.

I SAW—

A small girl with beautifully braided "pigtails" neatly arranged over either ear was shopping in one of the local stores. The proprietor came along and announced he guessed he would cut off one of the braids. The little miss, very prim, made a protest. After he had gone on, she was thoughtful for a moment, then said to the clerk: "Maybe I should give him some, he looks as if he needed it," nodding towards the proprietor whose head was slightly bald.—C. C.

What Did You See?

Recorder In Portland—
R. S. Bryson, city recorder is spending the day in Portland.

Mrs. Martin Here—
Mrs. Edith Martin of The Dalles is here to visit her sister, Mrs. R. Claude Gray and her brother, Dr. M. C. Harris.

Ira Powell Here—
Ira Powell, banker of Monmouth, is here to visit relatives.

Washburne In Portland—
Carl G. Washburne, member of the state highway commission, went to Portland Monday and will attend a meeting of the commission Wednesday.

Miss Hawthorne Here—
Miss Minnie Hawthorne, a former resident of Eugene is here on a visit from Pendleton.

Here From Oakridge—
C. T. Beach of Oakridge is here for a few days' visit.

Fred Smigley Here—
Fred Smigley, road supervisor of the Crow district, was in Eugene Monday.

In Records

BORN

MARSHALL—At the Pacific hospital, Monday, May 29, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Marshall, 1124 Adams street, Eugene, a daughter.

HORN — At the Eugene hospital, Tuesday, May 30, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Horn, 2288 Birch Lane, a daughter.

DIVORCE DECREE

Bernice J. Harrington against Byron Harrington, decree of divorce and care and custody of minor child granted.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Bennie Isackson and Sally Katherine Caylor, both of Canary.

Funerals

Dr. H. Y. Spence

Funeral services for the late Dr. H. Y. Spence are to be held Wednesday afternoon at the Veatch chaped at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Clay E. Palmer of the Congregational church will officiate at the services. Interment will be in Fest Haven Memorial park.

Almost 8,000,000 women were employed in the United States in 1920; in 1930 that number had increased to 11,000,000.

---

one foot in one minute.

The wingless leaf hopper causes peach tree blight, according to Dr. Lewis Kunkel, eminent botanist.

Hurricanes which blow at a rate of 80 miles an hour exert a pressure of 32 pounds per square foot.

MEL-ROY!

Here is Mel-Roy, noted magician, who is appearing at the Colonial theatre in a full length stage presentation of magic and mysticism. Boris Karloff's "The Mummy" supports the bill.

NOTI GRADE SCHOOL HOLDS EXERCISES

NOTI, May 30.—(Special). — Nine pupils finished the eighth grade this year. Commencement exercises were held Friday night at the school house. The following program was presented: Salutatory, Carlton Sutherland; class history, Helen Jean Withrow; class poem, Ester Pifer; class song, class; class will, Gordon Hamilton; class prophecy, Dick Slauton; valedictory, Hope Fisk. Prof. Taylor of U. of O. spoke on leadership.

These receiving diplomas are as follows: Hope Fisk, Carlton Sutherland, Helen Jean Withrow, Gordon Hamilton, James Dunham, Esther Pifer, Dick Slauton, Janette Greenwalt, Richard Bussiere.

Hope Fisk also received a high school certificate for visiting, and Gordon Hamilton, Dick Slauton, James Dunham, Ester Pifer received perfect attendance certificates.

• • •

A shower was given for Mrs. Walter Hockley at her home Thursday, May 24. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Schmitz in serving the following guests: Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. Chester Mathews, Mrs. Wm. Lee, Mrs. Ed Bourgeis, Mrs. Jim Allison, Mrs. Leon Huston, Mrs. Elwyn Kayser, Mrs. Wm. Jay, Mrs. Maud Cresson, Mrs. Thomas Jones, Mrs. Oliver Kayser, Mrs. E. R. Wilson, Mary Schmitz, Mrs. Peter Schmitz and the hostess, Mrs. Hockley.

• • •

A picnic was held at the school grounds Saturday, May 27. After dinner a "pick up" game of ball was played and various other sports occupied the time. During the morning, led by the three teachers, Mr. Engle, Miss Blaines and Eda Hult, the children had a treasure hunt. Some were fortunate enough to find some specimens.

• • •

Mrs. Hazel Smith and daughter Zelma, and Mrs. T. C. Bryant of Franklin, were all-day guest Friday of Mrs. E. V. Kayser.

Martha Hunt of Eugene was visiting her sister, Eda several days last week.

Jesse and Billy Alley of Veneta attended the grade school picnic on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schmitz had as their guest last Saturday their daughter, Dorothy of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walters of M. R. 1 Eugene, were callers at the Walter Hockley home Monday.

Mrs. Johnson and Iris Fitch of Vaughn were Wednesday dinner guests of Mrs. Dave Chesum.

Mrs. Orlie Stingley and daughter Shirley, spent Friday with Mrs. Geo. Drinkwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrington have moved into their new house recently completed.

At Junction City

JUNCTION CITY, May 30.—(Special).—Mrs. Marie Howe of Eugene is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Ballard.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Thompson and daughter of Oakland, Cal., are here for a few days, visiting their son, Thomas Thompson, who operates a service station here.

Paul Borgaard and William Dyer, Sr., made a business trip to Eugene Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jaeger went to Silverton Monday to attend the funeral of an old friend.

The funeral of Walker Harpole was held from Miller's funeral home Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. The American Legion held graveside services.

Charles C. Sinclair was struck on the cheek bone by a cable while working at Keith's mill. Dr. W. W. Hicks dressed the injury and thinks no bones are broken.

The Junction City Orphans defeated the Wendling team in a closely played baseball game here Sunday. The score was 5 to 1. Batteries: For Orphans, Sognard and Beck; for Wendling, Bilderbeck, Crowe and Dorsey.

Mrs. Sam Lehman entertained a number of little folks Saturday afternoon in honor of the eighth birthday of her daughter, Jo Anne. The afternoon was spent in playing games and a lunch was served to the following guests: Dolores Stucky, Bessie Marion Gibson, Mary Carolyn Gibson, Donalda Rieder, Norma Mae Washburn, Phyllis Keck, Betty Lu Seigman, Donna Marie Seigman, Janet Douglas, Maxine Jensen, Mrs. Douglas, June Rogers, Janice Lee Hansen, Jacky Lehman and the honor guest Jo Anne Lehman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Volsted and daughter of Albany visited friends and relatives in Junction City Sunday.

Miss Ellen Petersen is visiting with relatives in Roseburg for a time.

Several members of the Junction City high school graduating class left Sunday afternoon for a short trip to Newport. Those making the trip were Mr. Webber, Billy Nelson, James Webber, Marvin Beck, Frank Gray, Leonard Love, Keith Short, Gerhart Jensen, Gretchen Movius, Jewel Eccelston, Viola Barker, Violette Barker, Eugenia Broughten, Edna Adams, Marjorie Smith.

News of Drain

DRAIN, May 30.—(Special)—In the third baseball game of the Umpqua Valley league, Drain was defeated Sunday, 14 to 4 by Cottage Grove.

Miss Marjorie Moorman has gone to Eugene where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. Mary Watson returned Saturday from Yoncalla where she spent several days at the Phil Huntington home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Speck of Portland visiting Mrs. Speck's mother, Mrs. Anna Moore, brother Claud Moore, and sister, Mrs. D. C. Davis and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gardner of Portland arrived Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Gardner's mother, Mrs. S. J. Cowan, and brother, Gus Cowan.

Mrs. Algot Anderson and baby Beverly Kay of Melrose is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Alford.

Mrs. James Murphy who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Montgomery and brother George Montgomery and family, for several days, left Monday for her home in Orofino, Idaho.

NAVY BOARD INVESTIGATES AKRON DISASTER!

Members of the navy department's board of inquiry, chosen to investigate the cause of the destruction of the airship Akron, are shown here as they convened at Lakehurst, N. J. Left to right are Capt. Harry E. Shoemaker, Rear Admiral Henry E. Butler, presiding, Lieut.-Com. Sydney Krause and Lieut.-Com. Ralph G. Pennoyer, judge advocate.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS NOTES

SPRINGFIELD, May 30. — (Special).—Elections were held Monday night by the Rebekahs, but returns were not obtainable late Tuesday. posts to be filled included noble grand, secretary and treasurer.

Hobo Picnic Planned By Christian Group

SPRINGFIELD, May 30. — (Special).—At the regular meeting of the Friend's Christian Sunday school class a "hobo" picnic was planned for June 10 at the city park. The picnic will get under way immediately after the conclusion of the church service.

Various sports are planned, with baseball and swimming predominating. Beulah Thurman is chairman of the refreshment committee, and Quentin Thurman is program director. Lela Squires has charge of invitations.

QUIET DAY PLANNED

SPRINGFIELD, May 30. — (Special).—With no special parades or ceremonies planned, Memorial day was being passed quietly in Springfield Tuesday. Most stores were closed, and many people were out of town.

DINNER SLATED

SPRINGFIELD, May 30. — (Special).—A public benefit dinner will be given by the Christian Missionary circle Wednesday noon in Taylor's hall, Mrs. C. A. Peterson and Mrs. Elva Adams are directing the affair.

FACULTY MEETS

SPRINGFIELD, May 30. — (Special).—With next year's scheduling the most important business at hand, teachers of the Lincoln school met Monday night, following the summer dismissal. Discontinuance of the sixth grade made it necessary to completely re-schedule. Miss Eleanor Smith, Brattain teacher who is to instruct in junior high next year, met with the faculty.

PERSONALS

SPRINGFIELD, May 30. — (Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Privat were at Fall Creek Sunday.

Donald Meakins, who is employed at Tillamook, is spending the holiday in Springfield.

William Pollard visited here during the past week-end, coming down from Portland where he is attending medical school.

Mrs. Dallas B. Murphy returned this week-end from a trip to Seattle.

Rev. and Mrs. Veltie Pruitt will spend Memorial day in Grants Pass.

SPRINGFIELD, May 30. — (Special).—The Ladies' Civic club is planning a picnic for Wednesday night at 6:30, honoring their husbands. It will be held at the home of Mrs. L. K. Page, and all members are invited.

COTTAGE GROVE NEWS NOTES

COTTAGE GROVE, May 30. — (Special)—A number of people entertained with a covered dish dinner Sunday at the Charles Conner home honoring Mrs. Conner and Mrs. A. E. Hamloth on their birthday anniversaries. Those present were the Charles Conner family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fullmer, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fullmer (Eugene), Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wooley and daughter Faye and son Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Beidler and daughter Kathleen, George Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hamloth, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hazen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Green, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Conner, Paris Breedlove, Alfred Beidler and Boss Conner.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton entertained with a dinner Monday evening in honor of the birthday anniversaries of S. L. Mackin and Mrs. E. E. Cone. The evening was spent socially and playing rook.

• • •

The Future Farmers club of the high school entertained with a radio program Saturday evening over KOAC in Corvallis. G. V. Breese and D. A. Emerson gave short talks, Alpha Pitcher gave several harmonica selections, Harold Boslaugh, James Hemenway and Alpha Pitcher sang several numbers and Harold Boslaugh sang several solos. Ed Bauder acted as announcer. Others from here who went were Burris Young, agriculture instructor, Arthur Bauder, Georgetta Knowles, who was accompanist, and Maxine Nixon.

• • •

The senior class of the high school entertained with a party Thursday evening at the home of June Wheeler honoring their class advisor, Miss Florence Jenks, and their class dad, Worth Harvey. Later in the evening they went to Swanson hall and entertained with a dance.

• • •

The senior class won the citizenship cup presented by the Lions club this year for the third consecutive year. Robert Fromm, president of the club, presented the cup to the class Friday evening at the annual commencement exercises.

• • •

The Cottage Grove baseball team defeated the Drain team by a score of 17 to 4 in a game played Sunday at Drain.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkinson and small son of Portland spent the week-end here at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stacy left Saturday to spend four days in Portland at the home of Mrs. Stacy's sister, Mrs. Elmer Frans, a former resident of Cottage Grove.

K. K. Mills has returned from attending a funeral director's meeting in Portland.

The Keepers of the Den met for luncheon Thursday noon at the Colonial cafe for their last meeting until September. Reports for the year were given.

Mrs. Mary Stoneburg expects to leave this week-end for Greenwood, Wis., to spend two months with her mother, Mrs. Caroline Mathison, who is 98 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short and daughters Margaret and Patty, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills and son Robert and Vera Scott were dinner guests Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grube in Pengra.

Creswell News

CRESWELL, May 30.—(Special).—Mrs. C. J. Long had an unusual experience while dressing a White Leghorn hen for dinner Saturday. She removed eight large well formed eggs and the shell from four soft shelled ones and a large number of small eggs. She feels that she must have killed the hen that laid the golden egg.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Erickson and family who have been visiting with her mother, Mrs. J. S. Taylor, left Saturday for North Bend to visit with relatives before returning to their home at Klamath Falls.

Members of Honor Rebekah lodge are reminded that Thursday is clean-up day at the hall. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon.

Mrs. Clara Traxler's children served a birthday dinner for her at her home Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reeves and son Billie, and Miss Lois Traxler of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Traxler and daughter Roberta of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler and daughters Beverly, Barbara Jo and Bobby.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne and daughter Ruth will leave Thursday for Salem where they will visit with his mother and attend the commencement exercises of the class of '33 of the high school of which his brother Norman is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Howe were Sunday guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Louk and family of Springfield. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Howe's birthday anniversary. The other daughter, Mrs. Arthur Chase of Myrtle Point remembered the mother with a large angel food cake and a bouquet of roses and violets.

The regular business meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mae McKay.

Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Groves of Cottage Grove and her mother who is visiting from Pasadena, Cal., were callers Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Long. The visitor brought greetings from Horace Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Long, who lives in Pasadena.

A practice for children's day program of the Methodist church June 11 will be held at the church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. F. W. Ogram, Miss Vivian Ogram, Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne and Mrs. J. E. Smith.

Rev. H. J. Irvin will conduct a series of Bible teachings at the Christian church beginning Tuesday evening, May 30, continuing for two weeks. Song service begins at 7:30, sermon at 8 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited.

The postponed business and social meeting of the Conquerors class of the Methodist Sunday school will be held Friday evening at the church annex. Those who can come early are requested to meet and complete the screens for the primary room. A potluck supper will be served at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. W. R. Gillespie and Miss Edith Marquart will have charge of the children's day program of the Presbyterian church. Practice will be held at the church Thursday afternoon.

NEW FURNITURE
Our present stock is all new. We invite you to see it.
Applegate Furniture Co.
11th & Will. Old Powers Store

NELLIE SIMPSON CAFE AND DELICATESSEN
Former Location Fish & Chip Shop
Will Open Wednesday, May 31
A Special Fried Spring Chicken Dinner Will Be Served from 11:30 to 2:00 p. m. for 35c
We will be open from 6:30 a. m. to 11 p. m., serving short orders and regular meals.
Picnic Lunches — Sandwiches
Salads and Pies

TRENT'S ANNUAL PICNIC JUNE 25

TRENT, May 30. — (Special) — Trent's annual picnic will be held June 24. A program is being prepared by the Sunday school. Mrs. Frank Kimball, Mrs. Clayton Kimball, Mrs. Henry Mathews, Rob Baughman and Wilbur Culley are the program committee.

Crystal Baughman closed her school at Deerhorn last Friday and spent the week-end at her home here, leaving Monday morning for a two weeks stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Lelia Bothick and son, Melvin and A. C. Bothick of Tillamook county are visiting at the Bohart home here. They attended the commencement exercises at Pleasant Hill high school last week.

The Pleasant Hill high school graduates from Trent this year are Martina Ferguson, Viola Bohart, Zella Mauney and Gordon Jacobs.

Evert and Alton Wheeler visited at the Charley Hayes home in Goshen last week.

Leslie Jacobs is home here now, after being in Portland the past winter.

The Chic Bridge club met at the Clayton Kimball home last Saturday evening.

Little Betty Joy Kimball visited at the Dr. Claud Kime home in Cottage Grove several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stuman have moved back to their place here.

8 Up and 28 to Go Is State Standing On Repeal So Far!

WASHINGTON, May 30. — (AP) — Eight states thus far have votes for repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

And, under present plans, a total of 32 will have recorded a decision by Nov. 7 on whether they wish to continue the amendment.

Ratification by 36 states is required before repeal can take effect.

States favoring repeal to date are: Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Wyoming, New York, Delaware and Nevada.

Eight more are to vote by July 1: Illinois, June 5; Indiana, June 6; Massachusetts, June 13; Connecticut, New Hampshire and Iowa, June 20; California and West Virginia, June 27. Oregon votes July 21.

The Death's Head moth, now rarely seen, emits squeaks almost as loud as those of a mouse.

London's sewers have a total length of more than 500 miles.

PLENTY!

George Whitney, partner of J. P. Morgan, made a profit of $899,000 in one deal on stocks of a company in which he was a director. Whitney is shown here as he testified in the Senate inquiry.

Kidnaper Violent; Sanity Questioned

BRIDGEWATER, Mass., May 30. —(AP)—Kenneth Buck, 28, under observation in the Bridgewater hospital for the criminally insane today as the state went ahead with preparations for trying him on charges of kidnaping Margaret (Peggy) McMath.

Buck was taken to the hospital from the county jail in Barnstable yesterday after he became violent.

Nine-Year Old Boy Arrested For Theft

The arrest of a nine-year-old boy, charged with breaking into two establishments here Sunday, marked Eugene's week-end police report.

The boy entered the Crabtree Feed store by climbing a tree and going through a window. He obtained $2.68 in cash. He later cut out the glass in the skylight of the Hendershott Gun Store, but obtained only a few cartridges.

The youth was arrested by police and turned over to juvenile authorities.

H. C. Stone, 195 Tuttle avenue east, reported to police the theft of a gold chain and a lodge charm set with six chip diamonds from his home sometime Saturday by a man who came to look at a room. The man, whose name was not learned, asked to see the room and while Smith left him for a moment, is thought to have taken the articles.

Robert Hayward, 942 Lawrence, reported the theft of his bicycle.

A. M. Bayly, of the Anchorage, reported that two tires had been taken from his car and Jack Phillips, Eugene route 1, reported the theft of two glass side wind wings from his car while parked near a theater.

News of Heceta

HECETA, May 30.—(Special).—Verns Dahlin visited with his father and fished in Mercer lake Saturday. He was accompanied by his nephews, Eldon and Verns Kezar of Florence.

Leonard and Lloyd Grimshaw have completed their work on the Houghton residence at the Sea Lion caves and are helping Lewis Circle with his new house.

Miss Janet McCrae has returned to her work in Florence after spending a ten day vacation with the home folks.

The flurry of excitement caused by the report that a petition is being circulated to move the Mercer postoffice from its present location to Moore's auto camp has subsided. Al Wiseman, proprietor of the camp, says he has no knowledge of a petition and no desire to take on the responsibility of the postoffice.

Frank Casteel, driver of the Yachats-Florence mail truck, says that the new bridge being built across the marsh near the old Levage homestead will in no way facilitate mail delivery to the Mercer office. The mail will continue to be carried across the lake by boat, regardless of all rumors to the contrary. More than one-fourth mile of road would have to be graveled to make the road passable in wet weather.

J. C. Herren, who is employed as a guard at the state penitentiary, was home over the week-end.

Queens to Appear At Armory Dances

All five of the girls in the Queen Eugene II contest will be introduced Wednesday evening from the armory stage when Ted Fio-Rito's band presents its dance and concert there. The girls are Barbara King, Maryelma Rundlett, Marie Anderson, Arlene Sossey and Helen Hemmingsen.

But three days remain in the queen race and the winner will be announced Friday evening at the Queen's ball which will also be held in the armory. Tickets are being sold for the affair and the huge balcony will seat nearly a thousand spectators who wish to watch the coronation and hear the music of Sherwood Burr's dance band.

The shrinking of washed woolens can be reduced by the use of warm water, mild soap and slow drying.

A theater in Madrid lends umbrellas to its patrons if it starts to rain while they are in attendance.

For Graduation Gifts
Special Reductions on Fountain Pens and Desk Pen Sets
Kuykendall Drug Co.
870 Willamette Phone 28

Phone 1996 BEARD'S 957 Willamette
WOMEN'S WEAR
Month Out - Month In
TWO DAYS SALE May 31st June 1st
Coats - $10. - Dresses

Many Less Than Wholesale!

35 Spring Coats—every one this season's most popular styles and colors, taken from our regular high grade stock of better coats—

CREPY WOOLENS!
WOOL MATELASSE!
NOVELTY TWEEDS!
BASKET WEAVES!

Every coat lovely — distinctive — different— Every size 12 to 44.

Featuring 100 Lovely Dresses For Every Occasion

SILK PRINTS! MATELASSE! CAPE DRESSES! ONE PIECE!
SHEER PRINTS! PURE SILK WASHABLE! JACKET DRESSES! TWO PIECE!

More than half of these lovely dresses are just unpacked. The rest are taken from our regular stock of $12.75 to $19.75 and are the rarest values of the season. New pastels and white high shades, bright new prints—Plain shades. Come early! All regular and half sizes—

Two Days Only! See Window Display!