Brownsville News

BROWNSVILLE, June 17.—(Special)—Brownsville will have representation at the Chicago world's fair as Professor A. H. Weber and family and Miss Glenda Ross of Brownsville have departed with the avowed intention of seeing the century of progress exposition. They will also visit the Atlantic seaboard states before returning home. Professor Weber is principal of the Junction City schools.

Students at the Oregon State college who returned to Brownsville for the summer vacation this week included Boyce and James Stanard, Jack Hutchins, Fred Ireland, Jack Cochran, and Miss Margaret Achason. Boyce Stanard left almost immediately on a highway oiling job which will keep him out of mischief until school starts again.

Fred Gustavson, genial Brownsville confectioner, is batching for a few weeks while Mrs. Gustavson and daughter, Blanche, are "doing" California.

Mrs. C. E. Stanard and Mrs. Josephine Starr and sister, Mrs. Cassie Schick, of Seattle, went by auto to Wells station one day recently in order to pay a visit to Mrs. Stanard's sister, namely Mrs. Angelina Carter. Mrs. Carter is now 98 years of age and she has lived on the Carter donation land claim for 80 years.
