Out All Night" At Colonial Tuesday; McDonald Has "International House"

ck Holt Film Opens At Heilig; "Life of Jimmy Dolan" At Rex week's bills at the McDonald, g Sunday, make for a holiday here in that all three bills stellar character. Beginning nday the feature "International se," brings a coterie of stars Peggy Hopkins Joyce, W. C. Burns and Allen, Col. Stoopnd Bud, Cab Calloway and his rs, Stuart Erwin, Sari Mariody Vallee and the girls in ane." International House is musical, replete with smart and clever situations. Supportfeature is a two reel subject "Century of Progress" showthe intimate scenes and high f the world's fair at Chicago. cluded on this bill will be the "Rusty Rides Alone." This film is said to be far above the average western, with McCoy doing his usual fine job.

The Colonial has nnounced an all-first-run week, opening Sunday and Monday with a double bill, "Nagana," featuring Tala Birell and "Lucky Dog" with Chic Sale. "Nagana" is entirely different from most African pictures. It is not an animal film, but a thrilling tale of a fight against disease. Tala Birell, as a heartless siren who breaks hearts for daily exercise, complicates matters for the young doctor, Melvyn Douglas. "Lucky Dog," is a touching story of a man, played by "Chic" Sale, who has been deserted by wife, friends and children, with only his faithful dog sticking by him. Tom O'Brien and Harry Holman are seen in supporting roles. Tuesday comes the latest effort of the love birds of the screen, Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts in "Out All Night." The picture is rollicking comedy throughout, with a laugh a minute. Slim as a victim of excessive mother love, and Zasu as a pretty nurse in a department store form a hilarious combination. It closes Saturday.

"He was her man, but she done him wrong—" sings Mae West in her lusty interpretation of Diamond Lou, the belle of the Bowery, opening Sunday at the State. The picture is a knockout, or a popout, as Henry McLemore would put it. It is a glittering frame for the beauty and personality of Mae West, who, not content with starring in it, wrote the script as well. The film is virile, a red-blooded melodrama of the old saloons, honky-tonks and be-jeweled dames. It's a picture that wakes you up, keeps you laughing, and leaves you with a satisfied feeling. Don't miss it. However, you'd better leave the children home. They probably know most of the wise-cracks anyway, but it would never do to admit it.

Jimmy Dolan, whose strange and melodramatic life story is pictured in the film, "Life of Johnny Dolan," opening Sunday at the Rex, is one of the most universally appealing characters ever brought to the screen. Brought up to believe that all who do things for others without exacting pay are "suckers," he lives to find that there is more than one way of looking at life. Doug Fairbanks, Jr., Loretta Young, Aline MacMahon, Fifi Dorsay and Guy Kibbee are featured. Bette Davis, petite Warner star, comes on Tuesday and Wednesday in "Ex-Lady," with Gene Raymond, Claire Dodd, Frank McHugh and Monroe Owsley. It is a daring story of the modern outlook no marriage with a well turned plot and excellent acting. Thursday and Friday brings a first run attraction, "Strictly Personal," with Marorie Rambeau, Eddie Quillan and Dorothy Jordan. The story is one of the inner workings of the "get-acquainted" clubs, where bashful Romeos and blushing Juliets find synthetic romance. Saturday only features a mile-a-minute thriller, "Emergency Call" with Bill Boyd, Wynne Gibson and William Gargan. It is a saga of the ambulance driver, and packs thrills throughout, building up to a smashing climax.

There are more women than men in the states of Alabama, Georgia, Massachusetts, New York, North Carolina, Rhode Island, South Carolina and the District of Columbia. All other states have more men than women.
