Saturday Marts Quiet; Stock Market Rallies

OUTDOOR GROWN TOMATOES, BLACK BERRIES DUE SOON

Saturday brought but few changes for the local markets.

Eggs, poultry, butter, butterfat, livestock, and grains all remained unchanged.

Oregon grown tomatoes were selling here Saturday at two pounds for 25 cents, retail. It will be only about 10 days or so until the local outdoor will be coming on, it is said.

Blackberries are making a very tardy appearance this year, being about two weeks behind schedule.

Raspberries, blackcaps, and Young berries were very plentiful Saturday.

Following was the local price list for the day here:

Winnipeg Grain Rallies Saturday

WINNIPEG, July 22.—(AP)—Supported by generous purchases from overseas, wheat snapped out of early session pyrotechnics with a broad and active rally today. The gain, while not a complete recovery from an opening decline of 11¼ cents, was decidedly cheering. The close found prices resting 4 1-2@4 1-8 cents lower than Friday's close.

STRENUOUS TIME MARKS TWO HOUR SESSION SATURDAY

NEW YORK, July 22.—(AP)—Stocks closed with a rally today after two strenuous hours in which fluctuations, though extremely erratic, were much narrower than those of yesterday.

Final prices were mostly above yesterday's close and shares that showed net losses were well above their lows of a mid-morning setback. The market had a number of $1 to $3 advances.

Rallying at the opening, prices slumped later when fresh waves of liquidation from impaired margin accounts caught the leader and quotations stiffened in the final quarter hour.

The stock exchange estimated the day's transactions at 4,220,000 shares.

Cotton closed at gains ranging from 15 to 70 cents a bale after having shown earlier losses of more than $2 a bale.

NEW POTATOES ARE LOWER ON MARKET

The Producers' Public market was a wonderful sight Saturday with local produce in vegetables and fruits in its peak season.

Quantities of raspberries and blackcaps as well as cherries of several varieties were seen.

Many more green beans were in too.

James Gardens were displaying some Oregon grown tomatoes, selling at two pounds for 25 cents. The local will be in soon.

Peas are up a bit to 5 cents a pound and scarcer.

New potatoes took another tumble, being down to 13 pounds for 25 cents.

Summer squash is all retailing at 5 cents each, now.

Butter, eggs, and poultry remain unchanged. A good display of dressed poultry was out Saturday.

Flowers continue a big item on the market. Many varieties are in now, selling at reasonable prices.

Following was the price list for the day on the market, Saturday bringing out a big trade:

SATURDAY PROGRAMS

McDONALD—"Peg O' My Heart," with Marion Davies. Closes Saturday.

HEILIG—"Rusty Rides Alone" with Tim McCoy. Saturday only.

STATE—Double bill. "Riders of the Purple Sage," with George O'Brien, and "Destination Unknown," with Pat O'Brien and Ralph Bellamy. Today only.

REX—"Emergency Call," with Bill Boyd, William Gargan and Wynne Gibson. Closes Saturday.

COLONIAL—"Out All Night," with Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts. Ends Saturday.

Wynne Gibson emerges from the roles of a lady of the underworld to assume that of a whimsical hospital nurse teamed with William Gargan in Bill Boyd's newest action drama, "Emergency Call," playing Saturday only at the Rex. Wynne is seen as an eternally hopeful girl who aspires to catch a millionaire in a sufficient weakened condition to offer her marriage so that she may toss aside her nurse's uniform. No sooner does she land the man than he loses his fortune—which sets her to thinking that there may be something to the steady income earned by the wise-cracking pugnacious Gargan, in the role of the ambulance driver. Other members of the cast include Betty Furness, Reginald Mason, George E. Stone, Edwin Maxwell and Alberta Vaughn.

• • •

A musical fox hunt is an innovation to be seen in Marion Davies' new picture, closing Saturday at the McDonald. The scenes, depicting an English hunt and a celebration in a picturesque lodge after the kill, were arranged with a stirring musical score by Herbert Stothart, well known composer responsible for the scores of many of the original numbers in the Lawrence Tibbett pictures as well as many Broadway shows. The musical interlude carries the theme of the story joins the musical scoring which backgrounds the entire dialogue of the film.

• • •

A western Machiavelli whose greed for a range "empire" inaugurates open warfare over the possession of property known as the "basin" provides the motive that keeps "Rusty Rides Alone," Saturday only at the Heilig, moving at a fast pace. Opposed to the tyrant is our hero, Tim McCoy, ridin' for glory and a lady's love! An excellent cast supports Tim, featuring Dorothy Burgess and Barbara Weeks. Also included are Rockliffe Fellows, Edmund Burns, and Wheeler Oakman. The picture is healthy entertainment for the kids, and packs quite a kick for an adult audience.

• • •

Five thousand cases of liquors in the hold, but 13 men aborad a drifting ship near to madness for want of a drink! This is the situation in "Destination Unknown," dramatic story of regeneration aboard a rum-runner adrift in a terrific storm. Thirteen men and one girl! Five thousand cases of liquor and men mad with thirst! All the elements of mighty drama are packed in these combinations, which, coupled with the excellent cast, makes for one of the most thrilling pictures in some time. Ralph Bellamy, Pat O'Bren, Betty Compson, Russel Hopton, Tom Brown and Alan Hale are included in the cast.

• • •

Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts, featured in "Out All Night," closing Saturday at the Colonial, go "to Niagara on a sleeper," following a hasty marriage, and spend their wedding night playing checkers while Slim's doting mother occupies the only available berth. This is only one of the ludicrous situations which arise in the latest comedy hit of the popular team. From the time they are locked in a "sample" love nest in a huge department store, with Slim's mother making him marry the girl (Zasu) to protect his reputation, until the final fade-out the picture is a riot of mirth.

Bright Spots

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, July 22.—(U.P.)—A 20 per cent increase in motor fuel demand in the final six months of this year was predicted today by the American Petroleum institute.

CLEVELAND—Loadings of bituminous coal at Lake Erie docks made a new high record for the year in the week ended July 17, when 1,250,880 tons were loaded, it was reported today.

NEW YORK—The Tide Water Oil Co. today reported its net profit for the quarter ended June 30 was $1,167,078, against $1,151,300 in the second quarter of 1932.

BUTTER VALUES SHADED SATURDAY

PORTLAND, Ore., July 22.—(U.P.)—Butter values on the produce exchange were shaded today, due, it was asserted, to accumulations thrown on the market.

The weakness was reported not due to any increase in churning, for the reverse is true in this section. However, with the decreased make, there continues a firm market for butterfat.

There was no change in the general egg market situation for the week-end. Demand for quality stuff is fully up to current supply. The only drawback is in hot weather offerings as well as poor storage goods.

Generally dragging tone is noted in the market for live hens with continued free offering by the country as a result of very much higher feed costs. Springer stuff is just about steady.

With fresh arrivals of dressed stock barred as a result of the hot weather, there is a strong call for turkeys. Cold storage holdings are scant and are passing rapidly into consuming channels at stronger prices.

Market for apricots is holding firm locally with only scant offerings from the home territory. The Dalles is expected to increase its movement during the coming week but the season there will close rapidly.

New potatoes are holding fairly steady locally although the volume of offerings continues to increase while quality is excellent.

Advances in the price on lettuce are indicated with good quality very scarce and all offerings meeting with more favor unless too slimy.

CRESWELL NEWS NOTES

CRESWELL, July 22.—(Special)—Mrs. W. I. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Benter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benter and daughter Helen, Mrs. Harry Simmons and son Junior of Bradwood who are visiting here and Mrs. Margaret Martin were those from here attending the funeral of William Veatch at Cottage Grove Thursday afternoon. The services were held at the cemetery west of town and were in charge of Rev. W. V. McGee, a former pastor of the Creswell Presbyterian church. Mr. Veatch was a brother of Mrs. Adolph Benter and died Tuesday at his home in Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harrell and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hall of Eugene were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Woodson and family Thursday evening.

C. H. Sedgwick, F. K. Noordhoff, A. S. Olson, L. E. Ziniker and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benton of this community and Riley Petty, Tom Parks and Mr. Getchel of the Bear Creek and Cloverdale districts attended the meeting of the county school district boundary board at Eugene Thursday on business relative to the forming of a Union high school district here.

Miss Marjorie Cole of Eugene is spending a few days with Miss Kathryn Treanor.

Mr. ad Mrs. Elbert Veatch of Klamath Falls were over night guests Thursday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Adolph Benter and family. They came to attend the funeral of his brother, William Veatch at Cottage Grove Thursday.

A meeting of the local Chamber of commerce was held Thursday evening at which time plans were made to welcome a contingent of the trade and commerce department of the Portland chamber of commerce who will stop at Creswell on their good will tour of the state Tuesday morning, July 25, at 11:30. All citizens of the community are urged to be out.

The local representatives of the relief project that is sponsored by federal, state and county met Thursday evening with Mrs. F. K. Noordhoff and made arrangements for the county canner to be on the local school grounds Thursday, July 27, at 8 a. m. Parties who have not been called upon by members of the committee are requested to report at Olson's store by Sunday.

Dr. L. C. Hobson, former practicing physician of Creswell, who has been visiting in Eugene called on friends here Thursday on his way home to Los Angeles. He was accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Gill of Salem, who will spend her vacation at the Hobson home.

The July meeting of the Civic club will be held Tuesday afternoon, July 25. The program which will consist of readings and music by home talent will be in charge of the membership committee, Mrs. Elizabeth Snere, chairman. The hostesses are Mrs. W. E. Nason, Mrs. F. K. Noordhoff, Mrs. Arthur Olson, Mrs. W. W. Parsons and Mrs. J. G. Radebaugh.

The Methodist aid society sponsored a cooked food and candy sale at Land's store Friday. Sunhats and bonnets were also sold and orders taken for them. Miss Genevieve Thompson and Mrs. H. N. Traxler were in charge.

F. K. Noordhoff's class of the Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed a weiner roast and social evening at the river Thursday evening. With the teacher were Kathryn Treanor, Opal and Ruth Woodson, Emma Marquart, Joan Hoagland, Audrew Arms, Dorothy Gillespie, Stella Schmitt, Ruth Benton, June Allen, Paul Ross, Lawrence and Francis Benton, Earl and Erbine Grousbeck, Charles Moore and Avalo Gwyther and George Lindsay as additional guests.

COTTAGE GROVE NEWS NOTES

COTTAGE GROVE, July 22.—(Special).—The Cottage Grove band presented its first free outdoor summer concert Thursday night at their bandstand at the corner of Whiteaker and Fifth streets. There was a large attendance.

The Walden baseball team defeated Brighton's Leonard's baseball team in a game played here Thursday evening by a score of 8 to 7.

Hair cuts in Cottage Grove will cost 35 cents beginning Wednesday morning. This action was taken at a meeting of the city barbers Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd and daughter Edradell of Salem, former residents, visited briefly Thursday with friends here.

Word has been received here that Donald Metcalf, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Metcalf of this city, is now employed in Salem. He was formerly employed in Seattle.

The Cottage Grove school district has received $2,700.45 as half the money due it from the high school tuition fund. This was the largest amount received by any district except Eugene.

George Foster came near meeting with a serious accident Monday while shingling a roof. The shingles were piled on a board that was sustained by a roof board. The weight was so great that the roof board was forced loose and the shingles toppled off the roof, several of the bundles striking Mr. Faster, who had seen what was about to happen and hung onto the roof boards.

Union church services will be held Sunday at the Christian church with Rev. Bruce Cole of the Presbyterian church as speaker.

Rev. A. M. Williams of Live Oak, Cal., will preach at the forenoon services at the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Schofield Stewart will entertain the Dinner club this weekend at their summer home on the Umpqua.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will entertain with a social evening following their regular meeting next Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mae Ostrander is chairman of the hostess committee.

The annual Masonic and Eastern Star picnic will be held next Wednesday evening at Horn's grove at Saginaw. Coffee, sugar and cream and ice cream will be furnished by the Masonic lodge.

The S. C. Swanson family have recently returned from California to make their home here.
