Former Eugene Railroader to Be Honored Friday

E. J. Ellingson, former Eugene railroad man and nationally prominent in brotherhood activities, will be honored Friday night at Salem at a meeting called to observe the significance of the new railroad retirement act.

The meeting will be held in Salem at 8 o'clock in Union Hall, 457 Court street, under the auspices of Salem chapter 399 of the Railroad Employes National Pension association. Ellingson will be the principal speaker.

He has been one of the prominent leaders in the campaign for the railroad retirement act which became a law 10 days ago when President Roosevelt signed it as the first step in his announced program of social security.

Prominent officials, members of the supreme court, leaders in organized labor, and other prominent men and women have been sent invitations to join the railroad workers of the Willamette valley at the meeting.

Halsey Personals

HALSEY, July 12.—(Special)—Mrs. O. E. Green and two children of Sacramento, accompanied by Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. R. D. Cain, are here visiting with their sister and daughter, respectively, Mrs. Carl Nichols and family west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith, daughter, Mrs. Hazel Ewing, and two sons Keith and Milly, of Albany spent a few hours here Friday evening visiting Mr. Hockensmith's mother, Mrs. J. C. Bond.

Many of the available men and boys of Halsey motored to Irish Bend Sunday evening after word reached town of the accidental drowning of Dr. A. J. Hogatt near there. Many remained over night and assisted with the search for the body Monday morning. It was recovered about ten o'clock.

Many Counties Get New SERA Projects

PORTLAND, Ore., July 12.—(U.P.)—Work projects under SERA totaling more than $60,000 and calling for scores more men from the relief rolls of the state, were announced here today by the state relief committee. These projects include work in Columbia, Multnomah, Douglas, Coos, Clackamas and Yamhill counties.

Myrtle Point is to get sewer work done; St. Helens gets school constructions jobs; Douglas gets road grading on the Elkhead-Oakland road; city park work at McMinnville and improvements of the salmon hatchery on the south fork of the Coos river in Coos county are listed.

FLOODS IN JAPAN

TOKYO, July 11.—(AP)—Sixty persons drowned in floods caused by heavy rains in Ishikawa prefecture, it was reported today by the newspaper Asahi's correspondent at Kanazawa.

Johnny Appleseed first began his curious custom of planting apple seeds about 1801, in Ohio. His dress was as curious as his occupation, for he wore a coffee sack for a cloak, and on his head he wore the pan in which he cooked his meals.
