BUTTER AND EGGS REMAIN UNCHANGED

PORTLAND, July 19.—(AP)—Butter and egg markets here were unchanged today with the exception that butter price firsts were quoted up ½c at 21½c on the exchange in the late Wednesday session. Butter sales on the exchange totalled 300 cubes.

Butter, egg and cheese receipts were smaller the first two days of this week than for the same period of a year ago. Butter surplus is going into storage with outside markets taking little or none.

Eggs were fully steady with most grades closely cleared for the first half of the week.

Cheese ruled steady at current low prices.

Moderate supply of new local green lima beans was offered at 8c the pound. Quality was good.

Following the boom the first half of the week, the potato market was slow and inactive. Retail stocks were heavy and home supplies here about normal. Prices were erratic.

Some fancy Bartlett pears were offered at $2.35. Elberta peaches notable at 75c, Hales at $1.15. Apricots at 50c.

Cukes from nearby sources are available in ample supply. Most green beans are quoted at 40c and lemon limes at 45c.

Market for Leghorn hens was dragging and quotable down to 10c. Traders on the street have been advising truckmen and farmers to hold off until the marine trades strike is settled. Colored hens were in light receipt and held a steady market. Broiler demand was slower. Some storage movements reported but at least one or two heavy shippers are reluctant to take much stuff. Leghorn hens are quotable down to 10c.

The shortage of good calves continued and the market was firm at mostly 8c. The street was quoting at 7½-8c range. Other country meats were about unchanged.

Cantaloupe quotations were somewhat erratic but they are at or nearer the minimum price. The trade was quoting $1.50 to $1.65. Market is unsteady.
