Price Of Wheat Takes Jump Here; Stocks Show Downward Tendency

89 CENTS BUSHEL BEING OFFERED IN EUGENE FOR CROP

The price of wheat took a jump in Eugene Wednesday, advancing from 85 to 89 cents a bushel.

The drought in the middle west has been a factor in the increase in the price as the crop in some of the states is an entire failure.

All other Eugene prices are steady.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 29.—(AP)—Almost panicky buying of Canadian wheat for transatlantic shipment totaled late today around 5,000,000 bushels, with Chicago prices up nearly four cents.

Fears were expressed that Canada this season may not raise even 200,000,000 bushels, the present crop outlook being that the yield would be more than cut in half from what was expected a short time ago. Except in Canada, reports today indicated that little wheat remains for sale in other surplus producing countries.

Heavy profit-taking caused some reaction at the last, and wheat closed nervous, 2½ to 2 7-8 above yesterday's finish, Sept. $1.08 3-4 to 7-8, Dec., $1.09 3-8 to ½; corn, 2 3-8 to 3c up, Sept., 93 7-8 to 94 1-8, Dec., 86½ to 3-4; oats, 1¼ to 1 5-8 advanced, and provisions showing 20 to 30 cents jump.

Wheat:

Sept., open, $1.06 3-4 to $1.07¼; high, $1.09 7-8; low, $1.06 3-4; close, $1.08 3-4 to 7-8.

STEELS DECLINE; SPECIALTIES GAIN TO IGNORE TREND

NEW YORK, July 29.—(AP)—Stocks generally took the downward trail today as Steels were subjected to heavy profit taking pressure for declines of 1 to 2 or more points.

A number of specialties, however, ignored the trend and emerged with gains of a point or so.

At the same time speculative forces counting up the number of sessions in which the list had advanced with only minor interruptions, were said to have decided on a try for a sizeable technical correction on the theory that current commitments could be replaced at lower levels.

TOMATO OFFERINGS INCREASE ON MART

PORTLAND, July 29.—(AP)—Egg supplies increased at the produce exchange today but prices remained generally unchanged because of the spread caused by offerings of cold storage stock as fresh lay.

Butter remained unchenged despite increased receipts but the market for country killed beef was unusually good. There was a noticeable absence of turkeys.

A sharp increase in offerings of tomatoes, corn and other seasonable supplies poured into the East Side Farmers' wholesale market today along with the first crates of cantaloupes from The Dalles, which sold at $1.75 a crate.

Yakima cantaloupes were liberally offered at $1-1.15 for standards.

The corn market showed a spread of 45-50c a box or sack of 5s and one small lot went to 65c. The first north west watermelons appeared from boardman and were of fine quality but not so heavy as a year ago. Tomato prices slump to 50c or less than an extreme top of 60c.

Raspberries and blackberries weakened and potatoes trended downward. Apples were slow. Cabbage was firm. There was a shortage of good lettuce. Peas were fir mto higher but celery was soft.

Greater buying of fresh fruit by processors was predicted, with a shortage of barreled fruit seen by many.

Peppers were in rather liberal offering with the bulk of the supply 55-60c with a few 65c box.

Zuchinni sold mostly 20c box.

Danish squash was around 50c lug.

A small supply of turnips was offering 60c dozen bunches. No. change in other root stock. Onions sold 15-17c dozen bunches.

Apple offerings were very liberal with sales spreading 40-60c for transparents and nominally 80c for some very well colored stripped astricans while Gravensteins moved at a range of 60-90c, according to size and pack.

Cucumbers were 20-25c for table stock.

Plums sold well, mostly 50c box for the best.

Shell beans were around 3cc lb. with Kentucky Wonder beans mostly 2-2½c lb.

Spinach was 70-90c orange box.

Lettuce spread $1.15-1.75 crate according to quality.

Peas were 4-5c lb.

Asparagus held $2 pyramid.

Jumbo celery was 80c with No. 1 70c and 2's around 50c dozen with hearts $1 dozen bunches.

Strawberries were $2.25-2.75 crate.

Raspberries sold mostly $1.35 with a few $1.40.

Loganberries were $1-1.15 crate.

Youngberries generally were $1.80-1.90 with a few $2 crate. Some selections by Fred Brown of Gresham sold quickly at $2.

Blackcaps, again in nominal offering sold to $2 crate.

Peaches were 50-60c for Alexanders and 60-70c for Altons.

THURSDAY'S BILLS

McDONALD, "White Fang" and "Educating Father" (Wednesday evening, same program).

HEILIG, "The Final Hour" and "Avenging Waters." (Wednesday evening, "These Three").

STATE, "The Invisible Ray" and Louis-Schmeling fight pictures. (Wednesday evening "The Savage Girl").

MAYFLOWER "Times Square Playboy." (Wednesday evening "Rose of the Rancho").

REX—"Poor Little Rich Girl" and "The Return of Sophie Lang."

* * *

The Rex will carry the bill over to the McDonald, from Wednesday on, scheduling "Poor Little Rich Girl" and "The Return of Sophie Lang" until Saturday, when the regular week-end bill will be shown.

The Heilig starts a sizzling murder mystery Thursday, when "The Final Hour" flashes on the screen. Ralph Bellamy and Marguerite Churchill are the main characters in this story of a newspaper torney who rises from the ruins of defeat and despair to a high place in the world through the encouragement of a pretty dance hall entertainer and then successfully defends her from a charge of murder. Maynard completes the bill in a rough-and-tumble western, "Avenging Waters."

* * *

The McDonald continues with "White Fang" and "Educating Father." Michael Whalen and Jean Muir endure the rigors of the trail in the former and Jed Prouty contributes most of the comedy in "Educating Father," another of the Jones Family series.

* * *

Boris Karloff and Bela Lugosi delve into the occult again in the State's offering, "The Invisible Ray." Wrapped in lead, Boris goes through this weird melodrama destroying everything in his path. The Louis-Schmeling fight pictures kick off the program.

* * *

Warren William, bright-eyed comedy star, engages in a witty conversational duel in "Times Square Playboy," Mayflower headliner Thursday. Drawing room stuff.
