New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, May 13—(AP)—A number of odds-on favorites did relatively well in today's stock market competition but many leaders were left at the post or finished in the losing fields.

Buying and selling tonidity was pronounced throughout and small fractional variations either way ruled near the close.

Transfers were around 1,000,000 shares.

On the side of the bulls was the great Tunisan victory, growing idle investment funds and assorted hopeful business items. Some potential purchasers however, stood aside to wait developments in connection with the war strategy conferences at Washington.

Thoughts of curtailed expansion of armament production facilities also acted as a curb an sentiment.

Among laggards were Bethlehem, American Telephone, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, American Smelting, Dow Chemical and Oliver Farm. Resistant were N. W. Central, Southern Railway, Great Northern, Eastman Kodak, Warner Brothers, Texas Co., and Woolworth.

Western Union and Postal Telegraph preferred jumped more than a point in the morning on announcement of a merger agreement had been signed but both eventually retreated.

Bonds were mixed.
