ommencement for akridge, Thursday

OAKRIDGE — Commencement ercises for the seniors of Oak- ge High school were held in e school auditorium Thursday. e program was as follows: Pro- ssional, Miss Christine Robb; vocation, Rev. Mr. Rolley; salu- tory address, Ellen Natterlund; o, "Stardust," George Powers; edictory address, Harold La- ke; quartet by George Powers, le Rogers, Harold LaDuke, and ll Diess; announcements and ards, Virgil Kingsley; com- encement address, Dr. Poling, presentation of diplomas, Minerva R. Powers; recession- Miss Robb. Members of the aduation class were: Leland eiger, Harry Bleile, Keith rpenter, Delbert Chastain, Don- d Cockerill, Marie Day, Alvin an, Ralph Gibbs, Harold La- ke, Jean Lovelace, Harvey Mc- rland, Ellen Natterlund, Helen tt, Tom Oleson, James Paddock, orge Powers, Gerald Puckett, et Ramsdell, Lyle Rogers, Bill ruby, Robert Stone, Pearl ight, and Virgil Winkelman. e class flower was the white rnation and the colors, blue and hite.

Mrs. V. H. Tibbetts entertained her home with a dinner for ss Christine Robb who is to be rried in June. After dinner, a en shower was held for Miss bb. Guests were Mrs. W. Cook, rs. Margaret Scott, Mrs. Noma nall, Miss Debby Lou Lever, ss Robb, and the hostess, Mrs. bbetts.

Mrs. William Cook left for Ari- na to be with her husband who stationed at a camp as an air- ne instructor. She has been aching in the high school for e past year.

om California

J. H. Stein of San Francisco s been visiting his mother, Mrs. M. C. Stein. He is on a short ve from defense work there.

Miss Marieta Lang has accepted position at the S. P. depot.

George Powers has accept- a position on the road crew th the forest service.

Mrs. C. L. Trout recently visited husband, Police Officer Trout. Miss Alice Hobson is replacing ss Darlene Curfman as book- eper in the roadmaster's office.

Mrs. Georgia Greer has left for n Francisco where she will visit son and daughter-in-law, Mr. d Mrs. Max Greer.

Chief Petty Officer Lloyd Mor- and his wife visited friends in kridge recently. Mrs. Morris is former Pauline Stein and both e and her husband were teach- at the high school last year.

Virgil Winkelman, apprentice men USN, has been visiting his her, Virgil Winkelman, Sr., ile on a short leave from Far-

HARMING "PRINCESS"

by Anne Adams

If you are young in years or in rit, this captivating dress is for u! An Anne Adams design, tern 4419 has those willowy ncess lines you adore. Accent e square neckline—so smart this aon—with a contrasting yoke, tched by sleevebands and op- nal pockets.

Pattern 4419 is available only misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. e 16 requires 3 yards 35-inch, yard contrast, 2⅝ yards lace.

Send SIXTEEN CENTS in coins this Anne Adams pattern. rite plainly SIZE, NAME, AD- RESS, STYLE NUMBER.

TEN CENTS more brings you new Summer Pattern Book th cool, smart styles for work d play.

Send your order to Register- ard Pattern Department.

PLEASE DONT . . . Mail loose ins or stamps larger than 3c de- nominations with pattern orders. Be re to see that your Name, Address d Pattern Numbers and Sizes are itten plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO . . . Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you ust use coins, wrap securely and ten down with sticker tape. See at your envelope is sealed tightly.

Noti 8th Graders Hold Graduation

NOTI—Eighth grade promotion exercises were held Thursday evening at the grade school.

The program was as follows: Processional, Pomp and Circumstance, by Miss Ruth Buhler; welcome by John Beckner; class history, read by Dale Johnson, written by Audrey Harper and Dale Johnson; class prophecy, written by Barbara Warthen and JoAnne Hale, given by JoAnne Hale; class will, written by Joan Drinkwater and Doris Swanson, and presented by Doris Swanson; "Likes and Dislikes," written by Dale Blanchard and Norman Marsh, read by Norman Marsh; solo, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," by Pat Perine; duet, "I Love Life," by Pat Perine and Audrey Harper; song, "American Prayer," by Dale Christianson, Duane Simpson, Keith Harper, and Billy Pendleton; address by John Stone; commencement song by Joyce Harper and Carolyn Drinkwater; piano solo, "Barcarolle," by Doris Swanson; presentation of diplomas by Lester Lake; farewell by John Beckner; Recessional, Clayton Grand March by Dale Christianson.

The class motto was "Upward Ever, Downward Never." The class flower was sweet pea and class colors, green and pink. The class roll included: Audrey June Harper, Barbara Jeanne Warthen, Millie JoAnne Hale, Laura Joan Drinkwater, Doris Vivian Swanson, Phyllis Marie Christianson, Dale Johnson, John Beckner, Frank Raymond Koehler, John David Hall, Jr., Charles Arlington Brown, Norman Marsh, Dale Blanchard, Lester Beckner. School closed Thursday with a picnic.

Santa Clara School Closes On June 4

SANTA CLARA — The Santa Clara school closes Friday, June 4. The eighth grade will have its exercise Tuesday evening, June 1. It has been a successful year from a scholastic and patriotic view. Miss Harold, first grade teacher, has had as her project, making of puppets. They are working on the play "Jack and the Bean Stalk." The children of this room bought $110.80 of war savings stamps. Mrs. Nudenon, second grade teacher, carried out health, music and art projects with patriotic emphasis. This room bought $94.60 of war savings stamps. The third and fourth grade room, under Miss Francis, formed a junior American club with a point system by which they won badges. Every two weeks they sent packages of candy and other goodies to members' relatives serving in the armed service. They also sponsored the tin can drive with good results. Their war stamp and bond purchases were $504.50. The fourth and fifth grades in Mrs. Nees' room organized 4-H clubs. The boys have victory gardens, also, they took part in the rodent contest. The girls have a sewing club, "Patriotic Sewers." This room made murals of western states, southern states and Holland. Their stamp purchases were $75. Mrs. Cellars' room, the sixth and seventh grades, also organized 4-H clubs. One was the girls' cooking club, "What's Cooking," had an angel food coke contest and sale. The health club "Keep 'Em Healthy," studied first aid. The girls also had a sewing club, "Santa Clara Stickems." Their purchases of war savings stamps were $350. Miss Beckman, principal, had the eighth grade room. Her 4-H club girls, "Cooking Queens," completed their projects and had a nut bread contest. The winners were: Dolores Jeppesen, first; Dorothy Winfrey, second; Marian Blanton, third.

The eighth grade stamp and bond purchases amounted to $175, making a total of $1,309.90 for the entire school.

MOSBY CREEK NEWS

MOSBY CREEK.—The Blue Mt. school closed Friday with a program and picnic.

Gorden Patten broke his arm the day of the school picnic while playing on the swing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stewart and children visited recently in Portland at the Walter Stith home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duerst and family attended the baccalaureate exercises at the high school in Cottage Grove.

Callers recently at the Arnold Duerst home were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Vlaricom and two children of Chilsea, Wis., and Mrs. Margaret Woodron, and Mr. and Mrs. Finley Whipps of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. May Noble of Eugene is spending two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dugan.

ragut, Idaho. He attended his high school graduation exercises Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. O'Connell and son, Larry, are leaving this week to visit their son. Tom, who is stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif. Their daughter, Eileen, from Portland, will join them at Oakridge.

The annual junior-senior prom and banquet were held at the high school on May 28. A Hawaiian theme was carried out. Art Holman's orchestra from Eugene furnished the music. Honored guests were members of the school board, the faculty, and Dr. and Mrs. George C. Varney.

PFC Bruce Harrolson from Fort Lewis, Wash., has been visiting his wife, Jean, for the past week.

Charles Briscoe, U. S. Army, is now stationed in Maxton, North Carolina.

A budget meeting was held by the school board at the high school this week. Each member was accompanied by a taxpayer. Discussion of next year's school problems was held.

Creswell's High Lists Commencement

CRESWELL — Commencement exercises for the class of 1943 of the Creswell Union high school were held at the school auditorium Wednesday evening with a large attendance of parents and patrons of the school present. Dr. Victor P. Morris of the school of business administration, University of Oregon, was the speaker. His subject was "A Quest for a Better World." The processional and recessional were played by the school band under the direction of Mrs. Gwendolen L. Hayden. The girls' chorus sang two numbers and a trio consisting of Mira Ruede, Mary Louise Stone, and Betty Satter sang "Londonderry Air," accompanied by Suzanne LaMain. The salutatory was given by Donna Allen and the valedictory by Paul Harvey. A special award for the most outstanding student of the senior class was given Donna Allen by the faculty, Dr. Carl H. Gross, principal, making the presentation. Sue Garrat and Paul Harvey tied for second honors. The diplomas were presented by Earl Benton, vice-chairman of the board of directors. The class roll included Donna Allen, Beatrice Barrie, Leora Bear, Ralph Black, Rolla Chapman, Robert Fox, Sue Garrat, Paul Harvey, Uldine Hoover, Madeline Perine, Finess Powell, Ross Speck, Arleta Syphers, Barbara Jo Traxler, and Robert Welding.

The intramural soft ball games of the high school closed this week with the Green house winning first place, Orange second, Purple third, and Red fourth. Orange won first in soccer, Purple and Green tied for second place and Red, third. The house program for the entire year which includes boys' football basketball, volleyball, obstacle course, hunch ball, soccer and softball and girls' volleyball, boys' rope climbing and assembly programs completed the year with the following points: Purple 574 points, Orange 481 points, Red 402 points, and Green 385 points.

Officers Installed

At the last assembly for the year the following officers were installed: president of the student body, Vernon Kerr; vice-president, Alden Ellis; secretary, Mildred Good; treasurer, Doris Kraft; assistant, Doris Sellars. Each senior gave a talk and gifts were presented the respective advisors, freshman, Mrs. Bryant; sophomore, Mrs. DeMattei; juniors, Mrs. Hayden; seniors, Mr. Gross. The boys' athletic and shop classes also presented a gift to Mr. Van Lydegraf. School closed this week with report cards to be given on Monday.

Mrs. H. W. Gross of Salem visited recently with her son, Carl H. Gross, principal of the high school, and with her mother, Mrs. Schulenberg. Rev. H. W. Gross joined his family here and remained for the commencement exercises, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Rex Gywther and daughter, Judy, of Portland are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Finess Powell, and family. She came to attend her brother, Finess Powell's, commencement exercises at the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hills of Eugene attended the high school commencement exercises Wednesday evening. Their son, Ross Speck, was a member of the graduating class.

PEACOCK EMBROIDERY

His Royal Majesty—the peacock—spreads his gorgeous plumage in this brilliant bedspread embroidery. The more colors, the better! Smaller motifs are included for pillows or scarf. Pattern 601 contains a transfer pattern of a motif 15 x 19¾, two 3½ x 4, and three 2 x 2-inch motifs; stitches; list of materials required; color chart.

Send ELEVEN CENTS in coins for this pattern to Register-Guard Needlecraft Dept. Write plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

PLEASE DONT . . . Mail loose coins or stamps larger than 3c denominations with pattern orders. Be sure to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Sizes are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO . . . Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Noti Women Work On Surgical Dressings

NOTI. — There will be classes for making surgical dressings every Wednesday at the Christian church annex. These dressings are for the government through the Red Cross. The quota for this group is 5200 surgical dressing. Anyone interested in helping in this work is asked to come. There will be all-day meetings with a potluck dinner at noon. Adelaide Fox is supervisor, Iva Lee, Eunice Massel, Mae Pilon, and Adelaide Spencer are instructors.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Branneman were called to Molalla because of the death of Mr. Branneman's mother.

Lt. Joseph Richards and Francis Kelley, area supervisor, inspected the observation post and the new tower that is nearing completion. Lt. Richards praised the men who have given their time to the building of this tower. Later in the week Sgt. Perkins, sector sergeant, and a group of chief observers and captains from the Walton area also came to see the new tower. Sgt. Perkins was also pleased to see the tower so nearly ready to be put in use, and commended the workers for its being so well built and nicely finished; also, on the visibility from the many windows and the cat-walk.

Waldport News

WALDPORT. — Mayor Leo Goodman has filed for the position of school director from zone 5 in the coming school election. Directors in the county unit systems are elected for a five-year term.

Lawrence Dawson, now in the U. S. service, has been enjoying a short visit with relatives and friends at Yachats.

F. L. Wilson was in from Beaver Creek this week to buy a five-horse power pump for his irrigation system. Several farmers on the creek have successfully used irrigation in past seasons.

Mrs. John Greenbo is visiting friends in Canada. She will be away about two weeks.

Harry Hunter has bought several lots from the Goin property in Waldport and is contemplating improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Monroe who spent the winter in Portland have returned to their Waldport residence.

Bud Harris who operates a big bulldozer was here last week looking over some proposed work for Waldport parties. One of these jobs is the Frank Lathrop road near Yaquina John point.

Jeff Davis who operated a barber shop in Waldport for a number of years died at his home in the Alsea valley last week. A number of Waldport friends attended the funeral at Alsea.

School graduation programs were well attended. Carl Mays, Jr., was valedictorian for the senior class.

Bruce Ambler is doing some engineering for the Lincoln county P.U.D. and otherwise helping the new organization get off to a good start.

Lewis Colvin has been designated summer custodian of the school buildings. Quite a number of improvements and repairs are planned for the vacation period.

Lincoln county's 12 granges will be well represented at the state meeting at Eugene beginning June 7. In most cases masters will attend but where this is impossible alternates have been selected.

AT THORNTON CORNERS

THORNTON CORNERS. — Pvt. Melvin Tonole of Fort Canby, Wash., was a visitor here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tonole, last week, while on furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaBlue and family were on an outing recently at the coast, near Reedsport.

Mrs. Nettie Johnson of Portland, was an overnight guest recently of her sister, Mrs. F. L. Hockett. She was enroute to her home from Gardner, where she had attended the graduation of her grandson.

Miss Dorothy Gierau, who recently enlisted in the WAVES, called her mother by telephone from Milledgeville, Georgia, where she is attending a school of bookkeeping.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swigart, who recently returned from a trip to Los Angeles and Los Vegas Nevada, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Swigart's brother, R. B. Dixon.

Mrs. Phil Brown of Portland, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. S. P. Shortridge.

Julius Heindahl of Seattle was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. R. B. Dixon.

Graduation Held

BAILEY HILL — Graduation exercises for the eighth grade were held at the Four Oaks Grange hall with a large attendance of relatives and friends. Members of the class were Patricia Moore, Mary Halverson, Robert Pfeiffer, Betty Collins, Leta Mae Baarstad, and Wilbert Todd. The following program was given: Welcome by Patricia Moore; song, by the class; history, by Robert Pfeiffer; song, by the girls, class will, by Mary Holverson; musical selection by Mrs. Laura Baarstad, prophecy by the class, graduation address by Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, presentation of diplomas by Harry Orr. The motto was "Always United," the flower, the deep red rose, and colors, blue and white.

The annual school picnic held at the Skinner Butte park was well attended. In charge of arrangements were Mrs. William McFadden, Mrs. Pat Devine, and Mrs. Harry Orr.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

POPEYE

BOOTS and HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

OUT OUR WAY