New York Markets

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—(AP)—Profit taking hit recently buoyant liquor stocks in today's market and most leaders were unable to show much in the way of recovery animation.

The list got off to a fairly steady start but early advances were erased in many cases at the close. The turnover for the two hours of around 250,000 shares was one of the smallest in more than two months.

The distilling group, which has had a long pull on the upside, had to contend with the move in the senate to inaugurate a widescale inquiry into this industry.

American Distilling, which had spurted nearly 60 points in the past six weeks, tumbled about 10 in early transactions. Hiram Walker and Distillers Corp.-Seagrams were off as much as 2 or so at the worst.

Modest improvement was recorded for Santa Fe, Standard Oil (NJ), Woolworth, Bethlehem and Consolidated Edison. In minus territory, occasionally were U. S. Steel, American Telephone, N. Y. Central, Goodrich and International Telephone.

Bonds and commodities held to a slim area.
