ere Wind Does mage to Roofs

EERHORN — During a recent storm here, damage struck er heavily at the Marquardt . The wind blew the roofs f a chicken house which was ing 4000 chickens, however was only one chicken killed. wind also blew the roofs off wo turkey houses which were ty. Recent guests at the home r. and Mrs. Dick Potter were Grace Farnham, who is a ionary home from Tokyo, Ja- Mr. and Mrs. Orville Weg- of Salem. Mrs. Myrtle Syl- er of Portland, Mrs. Lyza ter and daughter, Mary, of ene. Miss Grace Farnham has been visiting at the e of her brother-in-law and r, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Potter, gone to visit another sister, Orville Wegner, in Salem. Farnham who has been a oner of war and has been in a ol in Tokyo, Japan recently ved in the United States on Gripsholm. She plans to re- to the Potter home in the future.

r. and Mrs. James Davis an- nce the birth of a son. This he second child in their fam-rs. Bert Partridge and son, e, spent the New Year's holi- with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard nn and daughter at Junction .

r. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson re- tly entertained at a dinner ty. Those present were Miss h Sundahl and Miss Gladys ndahl of Eugene, and Mr. and . Hjalmer Sundahl of Cedar s, Ore.

he Deerhorn P-TA will hold regular monthly business meet- at the schoolhouse on Thurs- evening Jan. 13. Refresh- nts and program will be an- nced later.

om Walton

WALTON—Verna Smith and th Harrington went to work the green chain at the mill, nday.

Harold Olson who has been at- ding the university, was noti- d he has been reclassified re- tly.

Elsie Keik visited her mother ry Haynes over the weekend, her sister, Eithel Thurman, of ti.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams re- ned the early part of the week m California where they at- ded the funeral of their grand- .

Mrs. Dale Cunningham, and all son left for California Sat- day, where she will be stationed r Camp Roberts where Dale is training.

Due to the fact that so many of mill men had fallen victim to flu, the mill did not operate t week, but resumed work Jan- y 3.

Laura Aldous has been visiting three aunts and their families past week or so including, s. Jesse Martin, Mrs. J. Piper d Mrs. Surcamp.

Lou Surcamp and his cousin ville Piper had the pleasure meeting up with each other mewhere in the South Pacific d Orville is the possessor of a ptured Jap gun.

The club met in December for annual Christmas party, held the home of Ella Scott. Prizes re awarded in guessing con- ts and "Pollyanna" gifts ex- anged. Mrs. J. Schurling at- nded and joined as a member. th Stevens will entertain the b the third Wednesday in Jan- ry.

Dorothy Schmidt of Mapleton s been visiting her sister, Mrs. enn Armstrong and family.

ewberg Post-War inking Fund Planned

NEWBERG—(AP)—Newberg wa- r users will begin paying a 50 r cent surtax this month to pro- de a sinking fund for post-war nployment. The money will be ed to construct a modern sew- e disposal plant and new servoirs.

Police Report at Grove Is Given

COTTAGE GROVE—The following arrests and fines made during the past week were listed on the police docket as submitted by Chief of Police Glenn R. Merrell: Alfred Hansen and Leo Weaver, arrested for fighting on the street, each fined $15; Don Perini, picked up on an order by Judge Coiner for failure to pay a fine, paid a fine of $25; Frances Hensley, traffic citation for leaving a motor run unattended; Verl Thompson, Gladys Young and Melvin St. Clair, citations for leaving their cars parked all night on Main street; D. E. Sullivan, a ticket for blocking an alley; Art Kraus, a citation for having no driver's license.

Repair Class Starts

The farm machinery repair class now being held in the cannery building, sponsored by the Cottage Grove union high school and taught by H. A. Hein of Eugene, is scheduled to be held on Tuesday and Friday beginning at 7:30 p. m. Any farmer in the Cottage Grove area is privileged to bring material and equipment in for repair. An added attraction is now being added whereby farmers and others may come into the shop to build equipment such as dehydrators, wagon boxes, combine beds, and other material used on the farm and in the home. Donald Kabler, supervisor, can give any information relative to repair and construction of materials brought in.

Thursday Calendar

12:00 noon—Lions club will meet at the Rainbow cafe for luncheon and a business meeting.

1:30 p. m.—Constellation club will meet at the Masonic temple. Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Henrietta Olson and Mrs. Nettie Gawley.

7:30 p. m.—Elite Bridge club will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Thompson for dessert.

7:30 p. m.—Boy Scouts will meet at the armory.

Drain Notes

DRAIN—The U and I Sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. Jim Traylor in Eureka last week. After an afternoon of sewing and visiting, the hostess served refreshments.

A group of young people from the Northwest Christian college in Eugene put on an afternoon entertainment of songs and readings at the Christian church Sunday afternoon.

A family dinner was held New Year's evening at the home of Mrs. Ida Patchen. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Patchen, and Doris Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Patchen, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Patchen and Linda, Mrs. Edna Kenney and Mrs. Ida Patchen.

Mrs. Roy Jones went to Portland Saturday morning to meet her son, Wallace Dysert, who has been stationed in a camp in Indiana and will return here with her to spend her furlough. They will visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. White while in Portland.

Anna May Sneed who has been attending school in Salem, has returned home, and will now attend Drain grade school.

CLASS HAS PARTY

ELMIRA.—The T.N.T. class of the Elmira Christian church will hold its monthly potluck supper Friday evening at 7:30 at the home of Alva Ferebee. Clifford Poole of the U. S. navy will furnish the evening's entertainment. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Lester Sweet.

CLUB MEETS

MEADOWVIEW—The Meadowview 400 club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bell Bertleson, New Year's eve. After an early potluck supper three tables of cards were in play. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Mortenson, Jan. 15 with an early potluck supper.

KALMATH BIDS STUDIED

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Jan. 4—(U.P.)—Contractors from three Pacific coast states today were awaiting final evaluation of bids in Washington for the construction of the naval-marine recuperation hospital to be built here following submission of the lowest bid yesterday of $1,510,790.85 by Brenan and Cahoon, Pendleton.

Church and Sunday School List Officers

TRENT—Sunday school election of officers was held recently, with the following results: superintendent, Mrs. Clayton Kimball; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Nels Kloster; secretary and treasurer, Donovan Kimball; chorister, Lawrence Wheeler. The chorister is to choose his pianist.

Church election was held Sunday with the following named: Elders, W. L. Wheeler, Rob Baughman, Frank Smith, Art Lindley, and Lawrence Wheeler; Deacons, Henry Mathews, Clair Williams, Don Kimball, Roy Lantz, Will Arnold, Clayton Kimball and Rol Delp; deaconesses, Mrs. Henry Mathews, Mrs. Rob Baughman, Mrs. Clair Williams, Mrs. Roy Lantz, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Nels Kloster, Mrs. Art Lindley, and Mrs. Clayton Kimball; chorister, Marjorie Kimball; chorister, Marjorie Smith.

Aid to Meet

Ladies' Aid will meet Friday afternoon at the church annex, with Mrs. Kloster and Mrs. Casey as hostesses. Mrs. Alice Kimball is to have the devotions and Mrs. W. L. Wheeler the special. Scripture verse to be taken from the book of Deuteronomy. Fruit for Northwest Christian college is to be turned in.

Prayer meeting is to be held at the W. L. Wheeler home Sunday evening at 7:3 0o'clock.

Wendling Notes

WENDLING.—James Smith 2-C petty officer, of San Francisco, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reigh Smith of Eugene, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith.

Mrs. Lottie Wright spent the past week in Portland, visiting her daughters, Mrs. Bernie Friday and Miss Mary Wright.

Beginning this week, Alice's Kurl shop will be open Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week.

Jeanne Matteson is employed at the lath factory at the Booth-Kelly plant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Pendall of Coburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Pendall and son Hershel were dinner guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bailey.

Mrs. Guy Pattee and daughter, and Mrs. John Acherson of Cheshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chandler accompanied Mrs. Helen Doty of Eugene to Clackamas recently. They were guests of Mr. Chandler's sister, Mrs. J. B. Jackson.

Shirley Petersdorf of Monmouth spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Petersdorf.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Sherwood will be interested to know that she is able to walk again, after being confined to her bed and wheel chair, for the past eight months with a broken hip. She is now at a convalescent home at Salem.

In 1276 Roger Bacon published a book which gave the first description of how lenses can aid sight.

SMART CAPELET

751

by Laura Wheeler

Priorities on fuel have made capelets ride the crest of fashion. When the furnace burns low throw this woolly bit of crocheted warmth about your chilly shoulders. Look pretty as only a capelet can make you look. The puff and knot stitch are quick to do. Pattern 751 contains directions for capelet.

Send ELEVEN CENTS in coins for this pattern to Register-Guard, Needlecraft Dept. Write plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

Fifteen cents more brings you our New 32-page Needlecraft Catalog . . . 133 illustrations of designs for embroidery, knitting, crochet, quilts, home decoration, toys.

PLEASE DON'T . . . Mail loose coins or stamps larger than 3c denominations with pattern orders. Be sure to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Sizes are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO . . . Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Alvadore Women Meet for Quilting

ALVADORE — The Willing Helpers council will meet all day at the home of Mrs. Adkins, Jan. 6. Quilting will be the work of the day. All the ladies of the community are invited. A potluck lunch will be served at noon.

Sunday evening the people of the Alvadore district gathered at the church to enjoy a Christmas tree and program. Credit is due Luella Hansen and Ramona Vernam under whose direction the program was given.

The Thursday club met last week at Augustine Hill's home. Letters, Christmas cards and gifts were acknowledged, as received by several men in the service. Christmas gifts were exchanged and new "peanut sister" names were drawn for the coming year. The next meeting of the club will be Jan. 13, Mrs. Curtis Sanborn acting as hostess.

At Elkton

ELKTON.—A watch night service was held at the Methodist church New Year's eve, all three churches taking part. During the first hour community singing was led by Miss Venola Marsh, Mrs. Agnes Hudson gave a reading, and Miss Marsh sang. Piano accompaniments were played by Mrs. Anna Beth Thorne. A Bible quiz was given. During the second hour a potluck supper was served, and the last hour before the new year was spent in devotions. Mrs. Glenn Ayers read a memorial for those who have died here in the past year, followed by a poem. A list of the 40 boys in service was read. Songs were sung by Mrs. Walter Haines, Donna Jean Haines, Mrs. Clairette Ayers, Rev, and Mrs. S. S. Hotchkiss, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ayers. Miss Margaret Alldridge read the scripture and Walter Haines led in prayer. Pastor Ayers gave the sermon of the evening, and this was followed by a period of voluntary prayer.

Elkton lodge No. 192, I.O.O.F. met last week in regular session.

Dr. Silas E. Fairham, district superintendent of the Methodist church, will speak here Sunday morning, Jan. 9, and at Gardiner Sunday evening.

Rev. S. S. Hotchkiss will take a carload of young people to the youth fellowship convention at Drain, Fridsy evening.

AT ALVADORE

ALVADORE. — Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Frost and family of Portland spent the holidays with Mrs. Frost's mother, Mrs. Joe Adkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hill made a business trip to Portland last week.

Scott Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ash Bailey and Miss Katie Goddard of Portland were married Dec. 18 at Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. James Eagan entertained 50 relatives and friends at a Sunday dinner in honor of their son Jesse, who has been home on a two week's leave. He is in the navy in the department that has charge of the navy guns on a merchant ship. Jesse has been in the service six months and during that time has travelled far, almost around the world, touching many ports in all three theaters of war. He has left to return to his ship.

Mr. and Mrs. Colby Sanborn and family of Parkplace, Ore., spent the holidays with relatives and friends in the Alvadore district.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Drew and family of Portland spent the Christmas holiday with the O. A. Drews.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Saunders were in Klamath Falls with their son Max over the Christmas holidays.

VISIT AT HARRISBURG

HARRISBURG.—Cpl. Clarence E. Warden Jr., was home on furlough to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Warden Sr., of Harrisburg. He is stationed in Mississippi at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Warden spent Sunday at the C. E. Warden home, visiting their nephew, Clarence Eldon Warden, while he was on furlough here. Mr. and Mrs. Warden gave a holiday dinner in honor of their son, Cpl. Clarence. Those present for the day were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Leach and family of Blachly, Mrs. Verna Rasmussen and children of San Francisco, Barney Leach, Elpha McBee and daughters of Junction City, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Warden and sons of Creswell, Corma Wells, Robert and Darlene Andersen, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Warden. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Flint came in the evening for a few hours visit.

FROM CENTRAL

CENTRAL.—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Storey and LaRoy spent New Year's at the Zieloskosky home in Newberg as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Storey who recently moved there from Eugene. They returned home Sunday night.

Mrs. Robert Wilson of Long Beach, Calif., came recently for a short visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Retzold and with other relatives and friends.

The Good family consisting of two brothers and a sister, of Trent, who recently purchased the Storey estate, have taken possession.

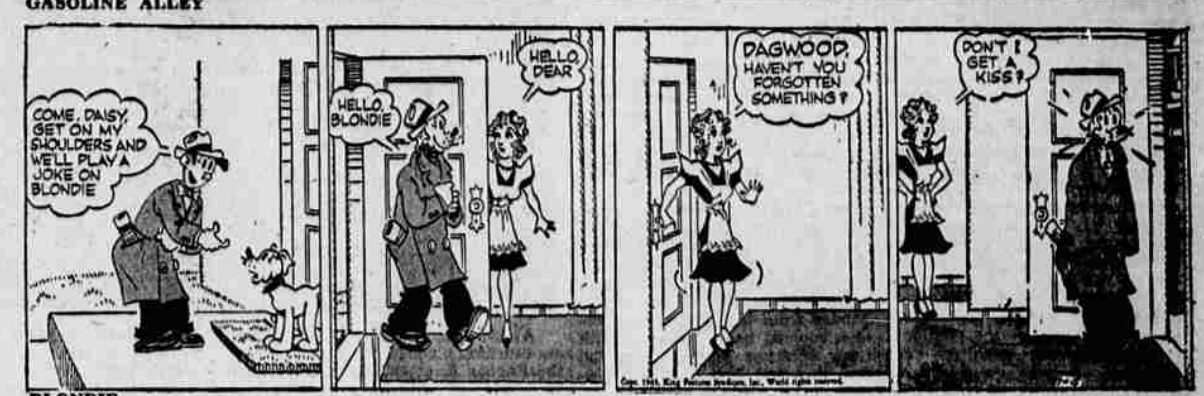
The pie social given at the grange hall Friday night was a success. There was a good attendance and a little more than $50 was taken in.

PARTY GIVEN

GREENLEAF. — Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Almasie gave a New Year's party at their home. Presetn were Mr. and Mrs. Almasie, son, Emmett Eaton, of Eugene Mr. and Mrs. Milke Johnson and son, Peter, Mrs. Dorothy Wilcut, and children, Ronnie and Delores; Mr. Slack, Mrs. Wilcut's father.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY



BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

"What's the war got to do with your report card? I was getting A in arithmetic at your age, and that was during the Spanish-American War!"

IN WALTERVILLE

WALTERVILLE — The loggers who went to work Saturday morning came out of the woods and were home by 9 o'clock, not working because of the high wind which lasted all day at frequent intervals. Not much damage was done around here although some roofs were damaged and trees could be heard falling on the hills to the south of Walterville.

Classes opened for the new year Monday at the different schools in the valley after the Christmas vacation. The Walterville and Cedar Flat schools had a ten-day vacation. Some sickness was reported among the school children.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page entertained Saturday evening for a New Year's family dinner inviting Mrs. Elizabeth Page, Mr. and Mrs. George Willian, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Alexander and daughter, Lois, and Elda McCollum.

Rev. R. E. Clark preached at the Walterville Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Mrs. Clark of Eugene accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Clark to the Walterville service Sunday evening.

The Christian Endeavor young people held their watch party Friday evening at the social room of the church. Games were played and refreshments served about midnight. Guests for the evening included Jeanne Rogers, Hazel Hansen, Ruth Kirkpatrick, Doris Kirkpatrick and her house guest from Eugene, Norma Lou Wiest, Robert Shrode, Lyle Shrode, Jim Wearin, Don Benson, Jack Zebriskie, Carl Storment, Eugene Kirkpatrick, Gerald Kirkpatrick, Dick Roberts, Donald Scott, Raymond Fountain, Ned Morris.

TRENT NOTES

TRENT—Visitors in Trent during the holidays included Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, from Myrtle Creek, the Chester Wheeler family, from Albany, Mrs. Ray Bond, Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Evert Wheeler, eastern Oregon, The Gene Lakey family and Mrs. White, Drain, Flint Delp, Portland and Lloyd Hollis, Salem.

The Good family have bought and moved to a place west of Eugene.

The Bill Copeland family have moved into one of Mrs. Wood's houses here.