...ge Election Is ...orted at Creswell

...WELL—Officers for the ...lodge year were elected at ...recent meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft. Those chosen were: past guardian neighbor, Mrs. ...Woodson; guardian neighbor, ...Ralph Sears; adviser, Mrs. J. ...Beck; magician, Mrs. R. W. ...; attendant, Mrs. Mabel ...; captain of the guards, ...Stone; flag bearer, Mrs. E. ...Schwering; banker, Mrs. C. E. ...; inside sentinel, Mrs. Adam ...; outside sentinel, Mrs. H. ...Travillion; correspondent, Mrs. ...Dersham; musician, Mrs. ...Bartel; managers, E. A. ...Mrs. Etta Brown, Mrs. ...Parsons. Mrs. Bartel was recommended for clerk. Initiation was planned for the meeting. A social time followed the business meeting with Mrs. Travillion and Mrs. Brown serving the refreshments.

...Presbyterian Aid society entertained at the home of ...C. C. Williamson, Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Crabb ...hostess. Mrs. K. C. ...presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Floyd E. Dorrance as her devotions subject ...'s Part in the Gaining of ...." The usual committee reports were made. Mrs. W. B. Gil... Mrs. C. H. Harrold, and ...David Francis were appointed ...the nominating committee ...new officers. The world's ...of prayer was announced for ...23 at the Presbyterian church. ...day, April 1, was set for the ...pre-Easter food and apron ...at the Red and White store. ...work committee reported ...lap robes for convalescent ...men had been completed ...will be sent to the veterans ...at Vancouver, Wash. ...on more robes was done ...the meeting. The next ...will be held at the home ...Mrs. K. C. Schwering with ...C. H. Harrold assisting hostess. A buffet lunch was served to ...members, seven children, and ...following guests: Mrs. G. N. ...Mrs. Cartwright, Mrs. Bous... Mrs. M. O. Wicks, Mrs. H. ...Wright, Miss King, Miss Fix... Miss Leum, and Mr. William... Mrs. Post was welcomed as ...new member.

...regular meeting of the ...C.S. of the Methodist church ...held Wednesday afternoon at ...church annex with 12 members ...present. The hostesses were ...J. M. Walkup, Mrs. H. N. ...ker, and Mrs. Charles Wet... A large birthday cake was ...served in the refreshments with ...E. E. Rand as the honored ...ber. Mrs. J. E. Smith presided at the business meeting. The ...gram was in charge of Mrs. ...ge W. Ross and the devotions ...conducted by Mrs. Frank ...Hostesses for the March ...ting are Mrs. C. Scarbrough, ...M. C. Redding, and Mrs. ...d. The reading circle of the ...met at the parsonage with ...potluck luncheon at noon. Seven ...bers were present.

...ETING TUESDAY

...OWER CAMP CREEK.—The ...ual meeting for the Acme ...phone association will be held ...the Lower Camp Creek school... next Tuesday evening, Feb. ...at 8 o'clock.

...The Lower Camp Creek Community club is to meet next Thurs... at the home of Mrs. Jess Gates.

FOR SPRING OUTFITS

by Laura Wheeler

...the newest in crocheted beanies ...wear backward or "frontward" ...as it's most becoming. The ...-looking loops are made in a ...band and that's easy! ...beginner's joy this matching ...straw yarn or cotton. Pat... 781 contains directions for ...and purse stitches.

...ELEVEN CENTS in coins ...this pattern to Register-Guard ...Needlecraft Dept. Write plainly ...PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME ...ADDRESS.

...fifteen cents more brings you ...new 32-page Needlecraft Catalog ... 123 illustrations of designs ...embroidery, knitting, crochet, ...quilt, home decoration, toys.

PLEASE DON'T . . . Mail loose coins or stamps larger than 3c denomination with pattern orders. Be sure to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Sizes are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO . . . Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you send coins, wrap securely and seal down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

University Teacher Talks at Reedsport

REEDSPORT — Alfred L. Lomax, professor of business administration at the University of Oregon, was guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Reedsport chamber of commerce this week in the American Legion hall, post-war planning being the theme of his talk. Frank L. Taylor acted as toastmaster, and out of town guests included Harold Hickerson, secretary of the Roseburg chamber of commerce; Bruce Elliott, of Roseburg, city chairman for the fourth war bond drive; State Senator Tom Parkison, also of Roseburg, and chairman of the national war fund; President Mess, of the Roseburg chamber of commerce; Vern Aldrich, secretary of the Roseburg Rod and Gun club, and also county chairman for the coming American Red Cross drive; Judge Busenbark, J. Ross Hutchison and H. B. Roadman, of the Douglas county court; Charlie Stanton, editor of the Roseburg News-Review; and Fred Assenheimer and Fred Schulte, of Gardiner. Approximately 100 persons were in attendance.

Among local social events of the week was the bridge luncheon on Monday at the C. R. Elliott residence. Guests included Mrs. Hugh Hamilton, Mrs. Ralph Foster, Mrs. John Dye, Mrs. W. G. Benson, Mrs. J. L. Gibbons, Mrs. C. H. Bennett, Mrs. Roy Cairns and Mrs. Sophia Pelegren.

Mrs. Tom Lillebo was hostess Monday evening for the meeting of the Round Table study club. The program, a review of "A Woman Surgeon," an autobiography by Dr. Rosalie Morgan. Guests included Mrs. E. W. Stephens, Mrs. C. A. Manschreck, Mrs. J. Mortimer Bailey, Mrs. Stanley Cochran, Mrs. Helmick of Yakima, Wash., and Mrs. Emigh, of Walla Walla, Wash., who are the guests of their daughters, Mrs. E. B. Stevens and Mrs. Berge Borrevik, respectively.

Mrs. Paul Bernhardt was a luncheon hostess on Tuesday, contract being the diversion of the afternoon. Guests included Mrs. George Radich, Mrs. Ralph Foster, Mrs. Roy Cairns, Mrs. H. J. Lyster, Mrs. Nelson Hogan, Mrs. W. G. Benson, Mrs. John Dye, and Mrs. J. L. Gibbons.

At Crow

CROW. — Two new pupils entered Crow grade school this week. One is a niece of Mrs. Paul Bloom, and is staying at their home.

The schools observed Valentine day Monday and valentines were exchanged among the children and teachers.

Mrs. Buelah Scofield, Hadleyville teacher, has been absent from her school the past two weeks on account of illness. Mrs. Langfelt of Eugene is substituting for her. She is boarding at the William Hawley home.

Mrs. Gene Holland has received a letter from her nephew, Randall (Jimmie) Haskins, saying he would be starting home soon on his first furlough.

Pop Fletcher who works for Ernest McCulloch has been in the hospital and Elva McCulloch is doing the work at the farm this week.

Marion Boehringer, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boehringer, is joining the Spars and expects to leave soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Graneman and baby, Art McMillian, and Miss Holmes were recent visitors at the Elva McCulloch home. Mr. Graneman and his brother, Ralph, who is overseas now both worked sometime at the McCulloch farm. Louie is in the seabees and is stationed at Virginia.

The government trapper caught another coyote and a bobcat. This makes three coyotes he has caught since he started trapping this winter and all have been caught near the Schrimpf place.

FROM CRESWELL

CRESWELL—Ruth Benner entertained a group of high school students at a social evening of games at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Epps, Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served to Eleanor Fox, Lavaun Denney, Raymond Webb, Darrel Stott, Bill Fish, Margey Satter, LaVonne Fox, Richard Odell, Joyce Everson, Anna Marie Heart, Max Ellis, Jean Garratt, Neal Harvey, Donald Black, and Ruth Benner.

Mrs. Minerva Coddling, district deputy grand adviser for the Neighbors of Woodcraft, met wtih a group of local members of the order Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schwering. Mrs. Norman Skaggs and Mrs. Leonard Young were guests.

Twelve members and two visitors were present at the regular Boy Scout meeting Monday evening with the leader, L. E. Zinike. The troop attended services in a body at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Merle Montgomery, son of Mrs. Hays Burke, left recently for San Diego, Calif., where he has enlisted in the marines. He was employed at the plywood plant in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Skagg and daughter, Judy, were in Portland the first of the week called by the illness of his mother.

Mrs. C. L. Camp, pastor of the Methodist church, spoke at the vesper services at the Cottage Grove church Sunday evening. She also filled her appointment at the Unity church that day.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

MEADOWVIEW—The Meadowview 400 club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hofer recently. Four tables of cards were in play. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Flint on Feb. 26, with an early potluck supper.

Sunday School for Bailey Hill Formed

BAILEY HILL—J. J. Ray, missionary of the American Sunday school union, recently organized a non-sectarian community Sunday school at Bailey Hill. The first session, with all teachers selected, will be held in the Bailey Hill public school house at 10:00 a. m. Sunday, Feb. 20.

Teachers and officers are: Supt., R. E. Dunsmoor; assistant, Mark Baker; secretary, Mrs. W. L. Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. George Watson; librarian, Dale Watson; song leader, Dorris Maughan. Teachers: adults, R. E. Dunsmoor; Y. P., Mrs. Francis Ford; juniors, supplied from Eugene; primary, Mrs. Cecil Maughan.

Red Cross Sewing Planned at Meeting

HARRISBURG.—The ladies will meet at the city hall Thursday, Feb. 24 for Red Cross sewing. They are asked to bring scissors and wool material to be used for making slippers.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hathaway are going to move back to Eugene about the first of the month.

The Missionary society met last week at the home of Mrs. Gladys Tanton. Mrs. Katherine Bowers was the hostess.

Those who went from Harrisburg to attend the wedding of Bill Mors and Lois Pittenger were: Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Stan Davidson, Mrs. Ira Harrington, David and Donald Harrington Mr. and Mrs. William Siefky, Mrs. Roxanna Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith, Yvonne Smith, Mrs Ellen Hunton, and Mrs. Elmer Wadsworth.

The Christian church Bible school entertained the Halsey Christian church at a patriotic party on Lincoln's birthday at the city hall. Mrs. Ralph Bierly was in charge of the games which were enjoyed by both young and old. Mrs. Byrd Waggener planned the program. Four soldiers from Camp Adair put on a half-hour broadcasting skit, followed by local people in seven pantomines, in costumes portraying the four freedoms. About 70 attended.

The Epworth League held a skating party at Halsey Friday evening.

A community program was held in the high school gymnasium last week. The program opened with the entire group singing. The singing was led by Maxine Spurlin with Mrs. Gladys Wadsworth at the piano. Mae Douglas played on the piano some of her own arrangements. Katherine Barry sang. Betty Kizer gave two readings "Taint Nothing to Laugh About," and "The Girl with the Date." Fred Walcome played on his accordiion. Mr. Roland gave two readings, "Kelly's Dream," and "In Der Sweedt Long Ago." Bertie Tweedt played two violin solos, accompanied by Juanita Roland. Maxine Spurlin sang. Jerry Douglas gave two readings. Billy Morse sang two songs. A skit, "The Villian Still Pursued Her," was given by Jim Douglas and Phyllis Cunningham. Mae Douglas, Charlie Kizer. A surprise number was given by F. S. McEldowney, Miss Louise Keyes, Miss V. Burkhart, and Lester Olsen. The program closed with community singing led by Katie Barry with Mrs. Gladys Wadsworth at the piano.

Last week another group went from Harrisburg to Portland to donate blood at the blood bank. This group was made up of members from the Christian church. Those who made the trip were Joe Hayworth, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. George, Roy Bowers, Mrs Frank Huston, Mrs. Byran Smith, Geraldine Douglas, Louise Harrington, Mrs. E. W. Blehm, Dave Blehm, Howard Bowers, Stanley Davidson, Charles Kizer, C. E. Allen.

In an assembly meeting last week, George Philpott, the student body president, was presented with a track trophy won by Harrisburg last year. The four boys who helped to win this trophy were: Claude Pearce, Jack Pearce, Mac Malone, and Ted Metzger.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Blehm of Calgary, Canada, spent a few days this past week visiting the former's brother and family, E. W. Blehm, while enroute to Berkeley, Calif.

At Noti

NOTI—Valentine parties were enjoyed by most of the Sunday school classes of the Christian church recently.

Mrs. Florene Garner has returned from Colorado where she spent the past few months with her husband, Air Cadet Kenneth Garner. Cadet Garner has transferred to Florida for further training.

Miss Vesta Bourgeis of Portland was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Perry.

According to word received here Lt. and Mrs. Leonard Hester are the parents of a baby daughter born Feb. 5. Mrs. Fred Branneman, mother of Lt. Hester, has gone to California to see them and Mrs. Hester expects to return with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Grady of Vancouver, Wash., visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kayser.

Mrs. J. E. Fox is visiting relatives in California.

AT LEABURG

LEABURG—A large number attended the recent Ladies Aid meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Mills. The afternoon was spent working on baby quilts and lap robes for the Red Cross. Plans were discussed for a chicken dinner to be served by the aid early in March, and the menu was planned. Special guests present at the meeting were Mrs. Frances Barnet, and Miss Myrna Lee. The next meeting of the aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Gladys Hansen on Thursday, Feb. 24.

Sgt. Norman Elston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Elston, is home on a furlough from Stephens Point, Wisc. He is recuperating from a recent illness.

School More Than Doubles Bond Quota

McFARLAND—The pupils of Central school bought $275.00 worth of series E war bonds. Their quota was $150.00. All are proud of their achievement.

A 4-H garden club was organized at Central school last week with Charles D. Colegrove as leader; Patty Barker, president; Margaret Colegrove, vice president; Doreen Zyseth, secretary; LoRay Rickard, treasurer; Doris Rigor, song leader; Virgil Marcum, yell leader; Harris Marcum, reporter.

The Cooking club was organized with five members. Mrs. Barker is leader; Doreen Zysett, president; Harris Marcum, vice president; Patty Barker, secretary; Doris Rigor, treasurer. Meetings will be held weekly.

Clare Trenholm was knocked down by a bull recently. Three ribs were loosened. Trenholm is still confined to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Trenholm arrived home from Texas this week for a short furlough.

Lester L. Dodd, well known resident of the Irish Bend community and more recently of Kings Valley, died Feb. 12. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ella Harvey Dodd, and a daughter, Arlene Dodd at home in Kings Valley, and a son, Lt. Kenneth Dodd, now stationed in Florida; his mother, Mrs. Albert H. Dodd, four sisters, two brothers, one of whom is Percy I. Dodd of Irish Bend.

Valentine Party Given at School

MOHAWK.—The Mothers club of the primary grades of the Mohawk grade school met recently at the school and enjoyed an afternoon with the pupils at a Valentine party. There were 18 ladies present. A short program was given by the pupils, after which came Valentines. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lee McKenney and Mrs. Gladys Scott who were co-hostesses, and were assisted by Freda McKenney, Betty Joe Dillen and Lois Hufstader.

A Valentine party also was held in the advanced grades of the Mohawk grade school. There was a taffy pull, games and refreshments.

Oscar Edmonson, Lennis, Mo., is a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Leota Buckley.

The Boy Scouts took over church services at the Mohawk Community church last Sunday in observance of Boy Scout birthday anniversary. Opening with "It's Me O' Lord, Standing in the Need of Prayer," and "Sweeter as the Years Go By;" the scout leader, Arthur Bough, addressed the congregation. Darrell Spores and Kent Bowerly assisted Mrs. Parris on the platform. Darrell Spores gave opening prayer, after which was the sermon by Mr. Parris, followed by the invitation hymn.

The Girl Scouts met recently at the Mohawk grade schoolhouse, Mrs. Ruby Hufstader instructed in dramatizing. Lova Denker and Freda McKenney gave a skit, "In the Best of Families." Martha McKenney, Lavonne Denker, and Bonnie Scott a skit, "The Ribbon Counter." Kathryn Baugh and Lois Scott gave "Late for Worcestershire." Roll was called and the girls paid their dues. Freda McKenney and Lova Denker plan to give their skit, "In the Best of Families," at the following meeting of the Girl Scout mothers to be held at the home of Mrs. Gladys Scott. Eleanor Vroman's patrol will arrange for the stage setting and Lavonne Denker's patrol will arrange for the costumes.

AT RIVER ROAD

RIVER ROAD. — Mrs. Fred White, who is now in Montana, has sold the apartment house at Green Gables and the store building in which the River Road Market is in, to Mrs. M. Krehbiel.

Wayne White is a guard at a war prison camp at McLean, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark have bought a lot between Park avenue and Sunnyside from Roberts real estate firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howell who were living near Los Angeles, are back again living at the home on Horn Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan and two children of Olympia, Wash., have purchased and moved to the property of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Howland.

SHOWERS GIVEN

VENETA—Mrs. Eva Deshazer and Mrs. Eunice Babb were joint hostesses for a bridal shower in honor of Miss Nellie Hanson, Tuesday afternoon in the side room of the church. Gifts were opened by the honor guest assisted by Miss Bylo Keith. Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Ruth Killmon and baby son; Mrs. Thora Thorne; Mrs. Esther Keeler; Mrs. Irene Hunter and Wayne; Mrs. Inga Caldwell; Mrs. Pauline Hockley; Mrs. Darlene King; Mrs. Mertie Robinson; Mrs. Hanson and baby daughter; Mrs. Louder and Myrna; Miss Ella Fay Chamberlain; Miss Elva Burns; Miss Melva Burns; Miss Violet Nichols; Miss Mary Baker; Miss Dollie Belcher; Miss Marvel Halledey; Miss Ila Belcher; Miss Bylo Keith; Mrs. Goble; Mrs. Leona Keith; Mrs. Craighill; Mrs. Lewis; Mrs. Baker; Miss Clara Hanson; Mrs. Eva Deshazer and baby daughter; Mrs. Velda Sutherlin; Mrs. Letha Smith; Mrs. Eunice Babb; June Hanson; Mrs. Margaret Hunter; Mrs. Eldora Flick and the honor guest, Miss Nellie Hanson. Those who were unable to attend but sent gifts were: Mrs. Berkey; Mrs. Carrie Marshik; Mrs. Sarah Trout; Mrs. Defoe; Mrs. Merle Faulhaber; Mrs. E. E. Hunter; Charles Craighill; Mrs. Mullen; Ruth Brabham and Mrs. Orpha McCutcheon.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

IN ALPINE

ALPINE — Tommy McClaughry, who joined the navy last November and has since been stationed at Farragut, Idaho, is spending a 10-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McClaughry, at their home west of Alpine.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thornquist returned last week from a visit at the home of their grandson, William J. Killaby and family, in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Killaby are announcing the birth of a son on Jan. 31. This is their first child and he has been named Joseph Loren. Mrs. Bert Dougerthy of Philomath, a sister of Mrs. Killaby's is staying at the Killaby home for a time.

Mr. Ed Larkin has returned from a visit with his son, Lester, and family of Parma, Idaho.

Ten ladies attended the class which folds surgical dressings last week and 500 dressings were completed. This is one of the best single day records the group has made. The ladies meet at 11 a. m. on Thursdays, at noon they hold a covered dish luncheon after which they work until 4 p. m. On Tuesday the group works from 1 till 4 p. m. and Tuesday evening from 7 till 9:30.

IN VENETA

VENETA.—The Veneta Mothers club met this week at the home of Mrs. Shultz, all day, with a chili dinner at noon. After dinner a business meeting was held. It was decided to have a contest to collect coffee jars to sell. Sides were chosen with Mrs. Hayse Garner and Mrs. Darlene King to act as captains. The losing side is to entertain the winners. It was decided to raise the club dues to ten cents a month. The day was spent embroidering tea towels for the hostess. Mrs. Davis, Mrs. King, Mrs. Marshik, Mrs. Kathleen Miller and daughter, and Mrs. Job were guests.

Mr. W. B. Caven of Glenwood, Iowa, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Aikman.