t Superintendent orane School

ANE—J. K. West of Eu- as been hired as superin- of Lorane schools. Miss Oglesby has been hired to the high school. She for- taught in California but ummers with her parents, Mrs. W. F. Oglesby. Mrs. Crumbaker of Eugene is er high school teacher. R. dy and Mrs. Brady who here the past two years signed. Miss Edythe Fel- Mrs. Edna McGarvin are chool teachers. Two more school teachers are to be

C. B. Mitchell and Mrs. ise were hostesses at a honoring Mrs. Walter ook and twins at the Mill Sunday school recently. ifts were received. Among present were Mrs. West- Mrs. Ernest Bates, Mrs. Mrs. R. R. Fullington, lma Hughes, Mrs. Loyt Mrs. Joseph Kempston, ira Copple, Mrs. Edwin Mrs. Bert Hayes, Mrs. rader, Mrs. Herbert Peter- s. O. R. Jenkins, Mrs. Ivan Mrs. E. W. Howard, Mrs. arpenter, Mrs. Mitchell and ise. Refreshments were by the hostesses.

ocials

ladies at Mill Camp plan together every two weeks. ext meeting will be at the amp Sunday school, July th a potluck dinner at 1 Every one is invited, also invited to attend the Sun- hool each Sunday at 10:30 ible study is Wednesday :30 to 8:30 p.m. Children's ight is each Friday from 9 o'clock.

Emil Sutherland of Chi- ll., has been visiting her -in-law, Mrs. H. H. Cun- m and other relatives here.

LORANE

ANE—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. visited Mr. and Mrs. Al- Moore in Idaho the past

W. I. Seales visited this with a sister, Mrs. George at Marshfield.

ld Hubbs, Fireman 2-c, has d to Camp Farragut, Ida- r spending a couple weeks is wife and daughters here.

C. B. Mitchell and child- d Elaine Crader spent sev- ys at the coast recently.

me demonstration meeting ld at the grange hall Wed- afternoon when Miss Jean of Eugene explained the new jars and lids and s of preserving food.

Baldwin and Raymond have started a new mill Woods place, known as anson place. Mr. Baldwin man and they employ six ow Hayes who is in A. S. N. R. at Parkville, Mo., vis- cently with his parents, d Mrs. Bert Hayes.

owd went to Cottage Grove y and charivaried Mr. and Velby Schneider, who were d recently. Mr. Schneider rtner in the Schneider lum- ll east of Lorane.

ARCOLA

RCOLA—Recent visitors at me of Mr. and Mrs. Robert ell were Mrs. H. C. Peter- nd daughter, Jackie, and . J. Donnelly of Portland. George O'Farrell who has the past month here re- to Portland with them.

and Mrs. George Keithahn mily were recent guests at me of Mr. and Mrs. Curley n. They were on their way Diego, Calif., to make their They were from Tenino, and the ladies are sisters.

and Mrs. Ed Matturn and atturn's sister recently vis- Mrs. Cora Cockran. They rom Tenino, Wash.

I.O.O.F. hall is under re- The roof and side walls have iven a coat of water proof- d the loose plaster is being off and more plaster put on. hole interior upstairs is to alsomined.

Rebekah lodge did not meet eek due to the work being n the hall.

and Mrs. Wm. McKay and on, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur of Portland were visiting here and storing their ure here as they have sold lace on Parson creek.

LATHAM

HAM—Mrs. Alta Moller and aughter of Seattle visited A. Hulls and other cousins st week.

koglie of Dunsmuir, Calif., rived for a visit at the home daughter, Mrs. Elvis Bos-

Ted Troutman of Los An- has returned to her home visit with her parents, Mr. rs. Charles Smith and other es here.

and Mrs. William Sihletzer to Hood River this week.

and Mrs. Leslie Hull of uver, Wash., are spending eek haying here.

Nelson of Bremerton, Wash., recently with an aunt, Mrs. Baker.

Andrea Frey and Mrs. Lin- and daughter, Janet, of Bend spent a couple of days Overgaards last week.

and Mrs. A. A. Hull cele- their twenty-eighth wed- nniversary last Sunday.

e Hansen came from Ash- or the wedding of Alfred n and Ruth Bricker which place in the Baptist church ening.

Sunday School at Trent Has Election

TRENT—Sunday school election was held recently with all officers re-elected as follows: superintendent, Mrs. Clayton Kimball; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Nels Kloster; secretary and treasurer, Donovan Kimball, and chorister, Lawrence Wheeler.

Ladies Aid will meet Friday afternoon at the church annex with Mrs. Don Kimball and Mrs Bill Barber hostesses. Devotions will be by Mrs. Ruby Bear. Members are to read the book of Ruth.

Neva Julian is in Washington visiting her grandmother.

The Boy Scouts, their parents, leader and a few friends enjoyed a potluck supper on the river bank Wednesday evening. The young folk all went swimming.

Several folks from here have left for the coastal area and the lakes, to be gone over the Fourth.

Kenneth Miller was home recently on a furlough from overseas. He is now stationed at Rhode Island, attending school.

Meetings for New Week Announced

REEDSPORT — The regular monthly meetings of the Port of Umqpua and the Reedsport City council will be held on Monday, July 3, in the City hall bldg., the port meeting at 10 a. m., and the council meeting at 8 p. m.

Meetings of the American Legion and Auxiliary, usually held on the first Wednesday of each month, will be held upon call of the commander and president throughout the summer months.

Members of the Gardiner-Reedsport Lions club and their guests numbering approximately 50, enjoyed a potluck dinner on Friday evening, in the American Legion hall.

Veneta Notes

VENETA—Charles Craighill, S 2-c, has finished his basic training at Farragut, Idaho and is home on a 15-day leave before returning for his orders.

A group of friends surprised Mrs. Walter Hockley on her birthday with a wiener roast and party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flick. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Hunter and Marion; Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Hunter, Delbert and Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Green and Gale; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flick, Beverly and Bobbie Dean; Mr. Walter Hockley, Patty, Norman and Doris Marie and the honor guest, Mrs. Walter Hockley.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Garner recently for a surprise potluck supper and party on honor of Mrs. Pauline Hockley on her birthday. The supper was served outside under the trees. After supper gifts were opened by Mrs. Hockley and the evening was spent visiting. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burns; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilcox; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coneley and Duane and Jimmie; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Spangler and Sharron and Jennie; Mr. and Mrs. George Garner and Ray; Mr. Walter Hockley, Patty, Norman, Doris Marie and the honor guest, Mrs. Hockley.

Emmett Belcher, S 1-c, was home on a four day leave from his base at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon King of Bend were recent visitors at the K. E. Craighill home.

FLORENCE ITEMS

FLORENCE — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilcox and children of Amity were vacationing here the past week. The family are former residents of Florence.

J. O. Harwood returned this week from a two weeks business trip to Seattle and Auburn, Wash.

Miss Cliona Mardock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mardock, is in attendance at a girls' camp at Twin Rocks, Ore.

Paul Benasco, Jr., grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson, is here for a summer's vacation. He came from San Diego, Calif., where his parents reside.

Ray Bentley has returned from Portland where he spent a few days on business.

Mrs. Kenneth McCornack and Mrs. Flossie Huntington were recent visitors in Corvallis where they attended a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Faris of Philomath honoring their silver wedding anniversary. Mrs. Faris is a relative of the local women.

E. J. Johnston went to Portland to accompany his son, Stuart, home on leave from university training at Boulder, Colorado, until July 1.

AT PHILOMATH

PHILOMATH—Mrs. Mabel Fenner received word that her son, Robert, had been injured in action in Italy. Another son, John, in the army air forces, flew to the hospital to visit Robert and found him able to be up and let his mother know immediately.

Gale Zeal is home from Seattle on a furlough.

Miss Verna Throck from North Dakota is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Shuck, and other relatives.

Clarence Gillson from Samoa, Calif., is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gillson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weaver who bought the Lester Bennett farm just south of Philomath soon will take possession.

The Philomath firemen have recently purchased two modern fire extinguishers which will put out the fire in a room with dry ice formed when the equipment is used.

The state highway has a crew fixing the Main street paving in the business section.

FROM FRANKLIN

FRANKLIN—Mrs. Earl Dennis-ton has come home from the hospital.

Floyd Hubbs who has been home for a two weeks furlough has left to return to camp.

Carl Christensen has been home on a furlough.

Coast Guard Show Boosts Bond Drive

FLORENCE—Helping to boost the fifth war loan in western Lane county, the various coast guard units of the district will stage a bond rally here on Tuesday, the Fourth. Beginning at 1 p. m. there will be a parade. At two o'clock, a boat capsize drill and a beach cart drill will be held on the Siuslaw river near the Lincoln street dock. Immediately following this, the beach patrol will stage a varied horse show. Late in the afternoon an army band from Camp Adair is expected to arrive, with the orchestra from the Umpqua coast guard playing for a street dance in the evening, weather permitting. Several other events have also been arranged tentatively for the day here.

Also helping to put the fifth war loan over the top in western Lane county is the Florence theater which has announced that on the coming Thursday, July 6, it will offer a free movie to all purcasers of war bonds on that date. The bonds need not be purchased at the theater, but can be taken of any local solicitor or at any authorized place.

Waves Visit

Ensign Barbara Sadler and Petty Officer Joan Obidine of the Waves will be in Florence from Wednesday through Saturday at the city hall for the purpose of recruiting eligible women here for enlistment in this branch of the navy. The two will be on duty from 9 a. m. to 6 . m., it is announced.

Mrs. W. C. Mardock has purchased the interest of Lester Gulley* in the Gulley-Mardock mill near Canary and Mr. and Mrs. Mardock are now operating the mill as the Mardock Lumber company. It is located on the Holesapple place.

Mrs. Alvin Faris was hostess Thursday afternoon at a birthday party for her three-year-old son "Skippy" and the following attended: Mrs. Bloise LaDuke and son Johnny; Mrs. S. B. Stone, son Burton Jr., and daughter Mary Frances; Mrs. Harley Earle, son Buddy and daughter Alice; Mrs. Kenneth Hanscom and daughters, Laurel Lee and Sophie Zoedelle; Mrs. Elmer Earl and daughter Kay. Little Carmen Faris was also present. The event, held from 2 to 4, featured the serving of refreshments. The honored guest received a number of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Houghton have returned from Woodland, Wash., where they had gone to attend the Gardner-Houghton family reunion held at Mr. Houghton's boyhood home Sunday, June 25. His only brother was also present. The Gilbert Houghtons of Portland, former Florence residents, accompanied the J. L. Houghtons. Gilbert is a son of J. L.

AT ELKTON

ELKTON — Pastor and Mrs. Glenn Ayers and several members of his congregation have gone to Brooks to attend camp meeting.

A fire of unknown origin destroyed the house owned by Lee Smith and occupied by Mrs. Maude Sparks and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Goodman. No household furnishings or personal effects were saved.

Mrs. Edith Gates has returned from a month's visit at Woodland Calif., where she attended the graduation of her daughter, Norma, from high school, and her grandson, Leon Maupin, from grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharon Colley and family and Miss Ella Fetter have left for a trip to Portland, Seattle, and Wenatchee. They expect to return in about two weeks.

Carl Binder has sold his logging outfit to the Griswold mill at Drain.

Staff Sergeant James Fairfield is homeon a furfough from Douglas, Ariz. From here he will go to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cooper were hosts this week at a family reunion. Out-of-town relatives attending included Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ward and family of Englewood, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cooper and family of Drain, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cooper of Drain, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ward and family of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper and family of Dorena.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grubbe have returned from a visit with their son, Yale, and Mr. Grubbe's brother, Robert, both of Smith River.

NAVY MAN BUYS BOND

NOTI—The first bond sold at the beginning of the fifth war bond drive in this district was bought by Jack Costello, who is in the navy.

The Red Cross unit and Ladies Aid meet on Wednesday of each week. Potluck luncheon is served. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings to help make Red Cross surgical dressings or assist with quilting and other work done by the Ladies Aid.

A special invitation is extended to all newcomers in the vicinity. Mrs. John Fox is chairman of the Red Cross unit and Mrs. Clifford Fisk is president of the Ladies Aid group.

Mrs. Harry R. Merrill, who has been in Los Angeles this winter has returned. She will stay here during the summer.

MRS. AGNES CLARK

SHEDD—Graveside services for Mrs. Agnes Clark were held in the Pugh cemetery on Thursday afternoon, conducted by the OES. Rev. G. W. Rohrbough offered prayer. Mrs. Clark was born in Rierdon, England on Oct. 16, 1869. She came to this country many years ago and had lived in Shedd before going to the Masonic home at Forest Grove where the last years of her life were spent. She died June 26. She was a member of the Methodist church and of the O. E. S.

Holiday Picnic At Upper Camp Creek

UPPER CAMP CREEK — The Upper and Lower Camp Creek communities are planning a Fourth of July picnic to be at Oswald Peterson's picnic grounds if weather permits, and at the community hall if it rains. There will be a potluck dinner at noon and games in the afternoon. The main event of the afternoon will be a baseball game between the two communities. Everyone is invited to come.

Stewart Inglis of marine corps reserve, Occidental college, Los Angeles, Calif., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Faithe Imbachs and family.

At a recent school board meeting of Upper Camp Creek Dist. No. 5, Delbert Sikes was elected for a three year term, taking the place of Tom Ray.

Visitors at the George Fisher home recently were Mrs. R. U. Wyatt of Sedro Woolley, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Koch, Mrs. Charlotte Johnson and son, and Mrs. Nora Linn and daughter, all of Sringfield. Mrs. Wyatt is Mrs. George Fisher's mother.

Mapleton Notes

MAPLETON — Cadet Wilma Barnett is on furlough visiting her parents at Mapleton. They live on Mapleton Heights.

Max Dudley has left after completing his work on the housing project.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bernhardt are visiting relatives in Mapleton. They are both employed in the shipyards at Bremerton.

Morris Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Beck Jr., of Portland were in Mapleton recently visiting relatives. Morris Jr. has just finished his boot training at Farragut, Idaho.

Mrs. Merle Beck has gone to Leaburg to visit her parents.

Mrs. Charles Eubanks who is employed at the office of Siuslaw Forest Products leaves Sunday for Little Rock, Ark., to visit. Her husband who is stationed at Siltcoos will accompany her.

Logging Camp Now

Camp Jackson which was formerly a WPA camp will open the first of July as a logging camp for the Siuslaw Forest Products Co., and Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will do the cooking. At present they are at the Mapleton hotel.

The Odd Fellows celebrated the birthdays of members whose birthdays are in June. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Miss June Gibson, daughter of Mrs. Tidd, has joined the Waves and leaves the 23rd of July for training at Hunter's college in New York.

H. D. Loseth of Eugene has been in Mapleton this week tuning and repairing pianos.

ELKTON NEWS

ELKTON — Dell Weatherly was injured this week in a logging accident. He is in the Roseburg hospital.

A basket dinner and afternoon church service were held at Kellogg, Sunday. Rev. Mr. Sconce of the First Baptist church at Roseburg, conducted the service, and Frank Grubbe of Roseburg sang.

Private James Gates is here on furlough from North Camp Hood, Texas.

A. B. Haines has gone to Noti for the summer, where he is employed by Western Lane Fire association.

Mrs. Dorothy Binder has left for San Clementi, Calif., called by the illness of her grandfather, Frank Haines.

A silver tea, sponsored by the Methodist WSCS, was held at the home of Mrs. Ida Thomas this week. A short program was given. It included a song by Dorothy Binder, an accordion solo by Mrs. Erda Chestnut, and a reading on child-care by Mrs. Edith Adams. There were 20 guests present.

Mrs. Lenore Glunz has been transferred from Hunter College, New York, to Maryland, where she is to receive special training in the medical corps of the Waves.

PROPERTY SOLD

MARCOLA — Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Petersen have sold their place here to Mr. Ficher.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Garrett have sold their farm on the Wendling road and have bought a house in Marcola and moved here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Withers have returned to Texas where he is stationed with the air forces. Mrs. Withers has been here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stevens for some time.

No meeting of the Friendly Sewing club was held this week. The next meeting will be in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hatton have had two of their sons, Richard and Howard, home for a few days.

Mrs. Harold Chappel and children have returned home after spending several days visiting relatives near Astoria, Ore.

PARTY GIVEN

VENETA — The losing side of the jar contest of the Mothers' club entertained the winning side with a party at the home of Mrs. S. A. King, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Darlene King was losing captain and Mrs. Haysel Garner was captain of the winning side. During the afternoon Mrs. S. A. King was surprised with a friendship gift shower. Refreshments were served to Haysel Garner, Mapel Crone, Clara Spangler, Thora Thorne and Joy, Darlene King, Mrs. Davis, Ilo Gardiner, Mary Belcher, Cora Craighill, Mrs. Kight, Pauline Hockley and Doris Marie, Darlene King and Nadine and Mrs. S. A. King.

The iguanodon, an extinct animal, is said to have walked on its hind legs.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Shedd Items

SHEDD—Miss Hallie Blankenship of San Francisco is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blankenship. Additional guests at the Blankenship residence Sunday were the Clay Stone family from Harrisburg.

Rev. J. Boyd Patterson, superintendent of the synod, spoke in a union service here at the United Presbyterian church. Abe Dyck of Portland sang with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Dyck. Mr. and Mrs. Dyck and baby were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halverson.

Hay harvest is well under way. The crop is said to be heavy. Present appearances indicate a good crop of both fall and spring grain.

A farmer's union has been organized at Oakville. Officers elected are: president, C. D. Spencer and secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, A. C. Heyman, county farmer's union president, called the meeting for the organization.

Mrs. W. W. Abraham and Mrs. Percy Taylor arrived home recently from a trip to Texas. Mrs. Glenn Smith who accompanied them remained there with her husband.

L. N. Starnes has been elected director for the Shedd union high school to fill out the unexpired term of the late W. H. McConnel. Walter Hense was re-elected for a five year term and C. C. Duncan was re-elected as clerk. A board meeting was held on Tuesday evening.

Wayne Parker and sons, Allen and Irvie went on a fishing party to Pamela Lake recently.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Allen received word of the death of their great-grandson, Ernest George Weber, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Weber. Mr. Weber is in the service.

The United States could build 10 battleships with the annual costs of insect and rodent damage.