stern Lane High War Bond Sales

ORENCE — J. C. Ponsler, rn Lane county war bond man, reports that incomplete s in the fifth war loan drive this area with an excess 00,584. Of this amount $81,- was in E bond sales.

mbers of the coast guard in rn Lane are credited with oting sales amounting to 43.75 in their drive the last Largest sale was that by Mrs. Marie Stonefield osevelt Beach, who report- sold $100,000.

ver LaDuke Jr., was honor- th a farewell party at Clea- lake recently before leaving army service. Sharing the rties with Mr. and Mrs. La- were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver ke Sr., Mrs. Bloise LaDuke on, Bloise, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Mills, Mrs. George Crain and ters, Wilma and Mary, Mrs. Faulkner and son, Jimmie, and Mrs. Budd Southworth laughter, Zetta Joy, Mr. and Ed Peterman and daugh- Alta, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin rickson, Mrs. John Hendrick- Dorothy and Doris Meink.

to Nevada and Mrs. Rogatine and ren of Battle Mountain, Ne- who have been here for the ix weeks, left on their re- trip home after purchasing acres adjoining the Choates . M. Grimshaw places north wn. They plan to return next year to build and lo- on the property. Mrs. Roga- is a daughter of Mr. and J. T. Maddaford, who came from Nevada a few months nd took over a resort north orence.

and Mrs. Joe Keuser of n, another daughter of the laffords, also have been va- ning here.

e Pastime pool hall has been by George Nelson to David on Needa, recently of Cot- Grove. He formerly oper- a pool hall and card room ottage Grove. Mr. and Mrs. McHugh, son-in-law and ter of Mr. von Needa, are ted soon from Kansas City will be associated with him e business.

sident Elisabeth Ward of Townsend club donated song to the club at its recent ing and was duly thanked he gift. Mrs. W. C. Fuller, e birthday occurred on this was also honored.

lucky refreshments will be d at the July 25 meeting. auxiliary meeting was an- ced for Friday, July 28, to ld at the home of the tem- y chairman Mrs. Lola Mor-

ps In Shedd trict Good

EDD—Grain harvest is well way here. The crop of rye is said to be very good. g grain also is looking well. local farmers have their hay sted.

. and Mrs. Buffioux of Taco- Wash., have arrived here to a few days with Rev. and G. W. Rohrbough.

wild deer was seen a few days n T. J. Danner's field. Deer eldom seen here.

N. Starnes bought three cows Miss Valera McDonald this Miss McDonald, who is the naster, is moving from her into the rooms back of the ffice.

d black berries are said to lentiful in timber along the ns this year. There also will n unusually large crop of reen and Himalya black- es.

h Anniversary

e 94th anniversary of the hile United Presbyterian ch was observed recently. church, known as the Wil- te church, is the mother h of the demonination.

nes Kennedy, who is in the e, has been visiting his par- Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kens Betty McPherson is visit- her parents, Mr. and Mrs. r McPherson, of the Oak- neighborhood. She arrived tly from Delaware where she instructor in the state uni- y.

ctricity is being brought to s in the Ash Swale neighbor- via a six-mile line built by Mountain States power com-rporal Willard McLagen vis- his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee gen, while on furlough. He y plane for New Orleans.

larger acreage of beans than of last year has been planted e Hawkins place northeast of HILOMATH — Mr. and Mrs. A. Wyman celebrated their n wedding anniversary July their home in Philomath. are the parents of seven ren, all living. All children not be present, however. were presented a wedding with 50 candles, and a flor- ce with fifty one-dollar bills en separately with gold col- ribbons.

PHILOMATH

y officials have hired a num- of children to catch dogs ng at large, after repeated ng to citizens to keep them me or on leash. All dogs t are put out of the way ity Marshal Almon.

Albertsen is building a new on the land recently pur- d from the Ricard family.

lywood motion picture stu- employ 30,000 people.

Youth Group Sets Dance July 21

REEDSPORT—The Reedsport youth group, which has been in the process of organization for the past several months, is composed of approximately 35 teen-age girls and boys, announces a benefit dance to be given in the American Legion hall on Friday evening, July 21. President of the group is John C. Diehl, Jr., Carrol Smiley is vice president, and secretary-treasurer is Jean Arden St. Onge.

Reedsport fire department made a number of calls during the past week as a result of grass and other fires. The interior of the trailer house of Walt Winegar was destroyed on Thursday afternoon, and A. R. Price, upon reaching home about 5:30 Friday afternoon discovered the interior of his trailer house afire. A bucket of water hastily applied by Price quickly extinguished the fire. He reports the loss of a number of articles of wearing apparel.

Rev. Jesse Griffiths, pastor of the Reedsport Community church, has returned from Portland where he attended the 54th Synod of Oregon Presbyterian churches.

Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews, of Reedsport announce the birth of a daughter on Saturday, July 8, at McAuley hospital, Marshfield. Grandparents of the infant are Mr. and Mrs. Noah Black of the Smith River district and Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Andrews of Reedsport.

Miss Florette Janelle was a luncheon hostess on Thursday, her guests including Mrs. R. B. Knight, of Eugene, Mrs. Fred Goodwin, Mrs. Earl Butler, Mrs. LeRoy Chenoweth, Mrs. W. G. Benson, Mrs. John Dye, Mrs. Ernest Zinliker, and Mrs. Darwin Bernhardt.

Mrs. Oliver Cowan has returned from Seattle where she attended the American Red Cross school of instruction for swimming instructors.

Mr. and Mrs. George Radich and son, George, Jr., left on Friday for Astoria, enroute to San Pedro, Calif., where Mr. Radich, Sr., will become associated with the Franco-Italian Packing Co. For the past several years he has been manager of the local plant of the Columbia River Packers' association, and is being succeeded by Melvin Jensen, former manager of the Newport plant of the same company. The Radich home has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hagerty of Eugene, and Mrs. Hagerty has succeeded Mrs. Radich as bookkeeper for the Bernhardt Furniture company of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Berquist, owners and operators of the Gardiner Tavern until its destruction by fire a few weeks ago, have moved to Portland where they plan to make their home for the present. The hotel property was sold last week to M. H. Durbin, of Gardiner and will be cleared and used as a parking lot until materials can be secured for the construction of auto cabins. Mrs. Berquist has recently been released from the Sacred Heart hospital, Eugene, where she was under treatment for pneumonia which developed as a result of exposure during the tavern fire on June 16.

Deerhorn News

DEERHORN—Mrs. Rheta Hanson was surprised recently with a friendship shower at her home, sponsored by Mrs. Virgil Olson. A short program consisted of two readings by Mrs. Lee Sr., of Leaburg, a solo by Mrs. Lee Jr., also of Leaburg, a solo by Nellie Lafever of Lowell, accompanied by Mrs. Nila Olson of Cedar Flat. Also there was a contest. The honor guest opened her gifts and then refreshments were served to Mrs. Estes of National City, Calif., Eva Crawford who is Mrs. Hanson's sister, Syble Helsley, both of Forest Grove, Mrs. Clara Ensign of Veneta, Mrs. Ben Lefever and children of Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sr., Mrs. Lee, Jr., and daughter, Miss Myrna Lee all of Leaburg, Mrs. Elsie Gray, Mrs. Nila Olson and two children all of Cedar Flat, Mrs. Marx, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Lester Millican all of Walterville, Mrs. H. A. Morris, Mrs. Eston Bradley and daughter Kathleen, Mrs. Ruth Smeltzer and daughter Betty, Mrs. George Conklin and daughters Sharen and Eunice, Mrs. Cecil Johnson all of Deerhorn, and the guest of honor Mrs. Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson were hosts at their home recently at a picnic supper in honor of Mrs. Johnson's brother, Jim Wearin, USNR. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alexander, Bill and Lauren Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fountain, Raymond Fountain all of Walterville, Stephanie Erickson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Byers, of Wendling, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Eddings, and daughter Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Benson, Don Benson, Mrs. Irving Jones and son Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wearin, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wearin, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Shrode, Robert Shrode, Francis Shrode, Lyle and Florence Ann Shrode, W. R. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Koozer and family, all of Deerhorn and the honor guest. After the picnic supper the evening was spent in visiting. Jim left Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Eddings were hosts Thursday evening at a dinner party in honor of Harry Schluckebier on his fifth birthday. Guests were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schluckebier, Larry, Dorothy, Bert Schluckebier, Doris Eddings, all of Deerhorn, and Betty Eddings of Eugene.

Miss Betty Eddings of Eugene is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Eddings, on an 11 day vacation. She is employed as a telephone operator for the telephone company in Eugene.

Reedsport Chamber Announces Meeting

REEDSPORT — The Reedsport chamber of commerce will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening in the Reedsport city hall.

The Reedsport branch of the American Red Cross met Friday evening, at which time routine business was transacted.

D. N. Busenbark, Douglas county judge has called a meeting of the ways and means committee of the proposed Douglas county recreational district, Thursday at 7:30 p. m., at the Roseburg chamber of commerce office, at which time plans will be formulated for presentation to the voters of the county the question of creation of the proposed recreational district for development of recreational possibilities of the county.

The Reedsport division of the Douglas county mounted police will sponsor a rodeo in Reedsport on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 26 and 27, at the posse grounds west of the city. World champion riders and ropers are scheduled to appear. Posse drill teams, buckaroos, wild bulls, bucking horses and roping, dogging, bareback riding and wild cow milking contests will be held. A large attendance is anticipated.

The Reedsport division of the Douglas county mounted police or posse, as it is called, has been organized for some months, during which time a modern, streamlined barn, which will stable 24 horses, has been practically completed; a club building has been moved to the Posse grounds; a quarter mile track and performance arena has been cleared and graded; one section of bleachers has been constructed and others will be completed prior to the rodeo. Corrals, chutes and runways will also be built and parking sections will be constructed to facilitate orderly drive-in, easy handling, and parking.

Drain Folk Seek Recreation Program

DRAIN—At a recent meeting of the city council, a petition was presented to the council, asking for recreation facilities in the city park, namely, tennis court, horseshoe pitching, croquet ground and seats for spectators, and tables. The petition had 57 names, and the request was adopted by the council, in part, being 50 per cent paid by city and 50 per cent by the citizens of Drain. All funds are to be handled by the city of Drain, with H. L. Goodmanson having full supervision over the projects. Location of all projects will be decided by the city council.

FROM DRAIN

DRAIN—Mrs. Maude Cowles entertained her sewing club Thursday. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Myrtle Davis.

Ward Henderson has left for Texas, after spending a short furlough at his home here.

H. L. Goodmanson has purchased the W. G. Cool residence, adjoining the Richfield service station, and W. G. Cool has bought the Bill Griswold residence on the hill in east Drain.

Wayne Ohleen, bookkeeper for Chapman Lumber Co., has bought the Jack Randall property, adjoining the Texaco service station.

Mr. and Mrs. John Melville and family have returned to their home at Gold Beach, after a 10-day visit at the home of Mrs. Melville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Davis and with other relatives.

Kenneth Morgan, has sold his service station at Springfield and has joined the marines.

Hurley Swearengen is here from a military camp in Arkansas.

Joe D. Leonard, who is stationed at a camp at Denver, Colo., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leonard.

Mrs. Bessie Lakey, has returned from Monmouth, where she attended summer school.

Mrs. Douglas, arrived here from Washington several days ago and is living in the Mabel Swearengen house. Mrs. Douglas will teach in the Drain high school next year.

AT BLUE RIVER

BLUE RIVER—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dustin of Sacramento, Calif., have purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clapper, also additional nearby river frontage. The Dustins spent several days here recently and plan on taking possession of this property when they return next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Payne entertained a number of their friends recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wicks. Mr. Wicks is entering the navy and Mrs. Wicks and children will make their home in Portland.

Recent guests at Forbes' Holiday Farm were Mr. and Mrs. John Swaney of Boston, Mass., Mr. McManus of New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Edwards of San Francisco, and Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Hesse of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert I. Dunn are here for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Burnham have returned from the Umpqua where they spent several days fishing.

A copy of a letter from General Dwight D. Eisenhower to his men just before the invasion has been received here by Mrs. Orval E. Dyer from herh usband, Corporal Dyer, who is in the field artillery. Cpl. Dyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer.

Before the war, tanker ships delivered about 1,250,000 barrels of oil daily to eastern seaboard points.

Lycaon, in Greek legand a king of Arcadia, was turned into a wolf because he offered human flesh to Zeus when the god came to visit him.

Western Douglas Reports On Bonds

REEDSPORT— Western Douglas county's quota of $92,000 in the recent fifth war loan drive was exceeded by the sale of E bonds alone, the total maturity value of all bonds sold during the drive amounting to approximately $147,265.00. Gardiner postoffice sales amounted to $4,368.75 with a maturity value of $5,460.00; bond sales at the Gardiner bank amounted to $31,925.00 or $39,906.00 maturity value, and other bonds amounting to $33,802.75, with a maturity value of $42,252.75. Reedsport postoffice sales amounted to $40,350.00 or $50,437.50 at maturity, of which sum $13,000.00 were sold through activities of the local Boy Scout troop. Since July 8 sales at the Reedsport office have amounted to $8,380.00 with a maturity value of $10,437.50.

Wendling Women Aid With Bandages

WENDLING — The report for the surgical dressings folded during the month of June shows a total of 4025. More ladies are urged to come and help fold bandages. The class are held every Tuesday and Wednesday from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Ruth and Rachael Walker of Eugene are guests at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dillon.

Mrs. Dean Hoback of Santa Maria, Calif., is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bilderback. Her husband, Sgt. Dean Hoback, will leave for overseas duty soon.

Quite a large hole was burned in the roof of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson's house recently. The neighbors assisted in extinguishing the fire.

The Needle club meetings will be discontinued for the remainder of the summer.

Elkton Items

ELKTON—Rev. Clarence Currier of Roseburg gave his first sermon of the year at the Methodist church here. Rev. Mr. Currier will fill the pulpit at both Elkton and Gardiner for the coming year. He and his family plan to live at Gardiner.

Miss Nono Greenwood of Junction City is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greenwood.

Mrs. Harry Ayers is here for a three-week visit from Anaconda, Mont.

The Dorcas circle of the Methodist W.S.C.S. held its regular meeting this week. The afternoon was spent working on fancy work for the fall bazaar.

Warrant Officer and Mrs. Foy Elwell of Camp Carson, Colo., visited recently at the Wayne McKinney home. Mr. Elwell was a former commanding officer at CCC Camp Elkton.

Marine Private Bernie Slagle has been home on a short furlough from the Marine base at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Schad of Portland are visiting at the Elmer Schad home.

Mrs. Alvin Westenskow, who has been a guest of Miss Iris Haines for the past few weeks, has returned to her home in La Grande.

Private James Gates, who has been home on furlough from North Camp Hood, Texas, has reported back to duty in Louisiana.

Elkton theater patrons attended their last movie here last week when they saw the benefit performance of "This Is The Army." The theater has been closed by the owner, Mrs. F. Merk, who plans to move the equipment to her new building at Yoncalla.

AT WENDLING

WENDLING — Mrs. Jeff Abell has left for San Diego to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Maycumber.

The regular monthly meeting of the grade school board was held at the schoolhouse last week. Routine business was transacted. Mrs. Evelyn Thompson of Vida, who has been elected principal for the coming year, attended the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Gard and family have returned from a vacation at the coast.

A group of young people from the Open Bible Standard church recently hiked to Mt. Nebo. Those who went were: Rev. and Mrs. H. Gear, Sylvia Dunn, Mrs. Prue Landreth, Irene Grant, and Jo Warner.

Mrs. Mack Landreth is leaving to make her home in Eugene, where she has employment.

Carol Maxwell of California, and Margaret and Marsha Wilson of Eugene, were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson, recently.

AT MARCOLA

MARCOLA—A group of neighbors and friends gave Mrs. Robert Gardiner a surprise birthday party. Many gifts were received by Mrs. Gardiner and refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miracle, Rita and Patricia Miracle of Wendling, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Doctor and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hammond, Mrs. Irene Walters and son, H. T. Walters, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Biessell and Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dorsey haves old their place on Parson creek which they bought a few years ago from Fisher Lumber company. It was where the old mill and camp were located.

Mrs. Nellie Stevens was hostess for the meeting of the Friendly Sewing club at her home last week. The members are working on slippers and wash cloths for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Hubert Williams and children recently visited at the home of her sister at Carlton. Mrs. Williams and children are moving to the Hayden bridge district where she will work in the gardens there.

AT STAFFORD

STAFFORD—Mrs. Milo Hart is visiting in Eugene with her mother.

Gust Jones has been very ill at the Raymond Hill home.

Beethoven, the great musical composer, showed signs of deafness at 28.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

At Mapleton

MAPLETON — Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Bryant have purchased the Frank P. Spencer place and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryant have purchased the Francis G. Spencer place and are taking possession at once. The Spencer families are moving to Creswell.

Mrs. Sarah Smith, 85, of Elkton, is visiting her two sisters, Mrs. R. P. Bernhardt and Mrs. Annie Maw, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Amy Morris of Mapleton.

Wilfred Gonyen has returned from Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dunn of Seattle have moved to Mapleton. Mr. Dunn is bookkeeper at the Siuslaw Forest Products mill.

Remus Herring of Florence suffered injuries in the woods at Mapleton. He was taken to Eugene for treatment.

T-Sgt. Walter Camp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Camp of Mapleton, was married this week in Australia to Miss Anne Bullock.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gilbert of Portland are in Mapleton. Mr. Gilbert is doing some repair work in his mother's home.

Jennie Lipkey of Portland is visiting her sisters and brothers and their families in Mapleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Whittaker and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whittaker have gone to Portland to visit relatives a few days.

Mrs. Howard Cannon is in California. Mrs. Keith Johnson is assisting in the store during her absence.