Obsidian Picture Contest Announced

Annual picture contest of the Obsidians will be held as one feature of the annual business meeting of the organization, set for Tuesday, Oct. 3 at the Episcopal parish hall.

The contest will take place at 6 p. m., a half-hour preceding the banquet, and winners will be decided by popular vote.

All members are eligible to enter the contest. Pictures entered must have been taken on an official Obsidian trip or outing during the past year, between Oct. 5, 1943, and Oct. 3, 1944.

Prizes will be given for the best pictures in the following three classifications: landscape, plant and animal life, and human interest.

All pictures must be enlargements, 5 by 7 inches or larger, mat mounted, and can be tinted or untinted. The name of the picture and the date taken must be on its front.

Names of entrants together with the titles of all entries must be given to the committee, with the pictures, by Monday noon, Oct. 2. The library committee has charge of the contest, its members being Olga Mortenson, Ruth Hopson, Bertha Deckman, Gladys Lees and Adeline Adams. Members are to leave their picture entries with Adeline Adams.

The prize winners of former contests will also be on display at the annual meeting.

Mme. Chiang Kai-shek In American Hospital

NEW YORK—(AP)—Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, first lady of China, is a patient in the Harkness pavilion of the Columbia-Presbyterian medical center, John McCormack, hospital superintendent, said.

McCormack said he was not at liberty to disclose the nature of her illness.

The wife of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has been in Brazil recently, undergoing medical treatment. During her visit to the United States last year, Mme. Chiang was a patient at Columbia-Presbyterian hospital for treatment of what was described then as the after-efefcts of injuries received in China several years before.

Sara Luella Bristow

Mrs. Sara Luella Bristow, 76, died suddenly Tuesday at her home, 1961 Seventeenth avenue east, where she lived alone. A neighbor found her dead, when she failed to answer her door in the evening. It was thought she had died of a heart attack earlier in the afternoon, while preparing her luncheon.

Mrs. Bristow was a native Oregonian, born Feb. 5, 1868, at Canyonville. She was a daughter of Samuel and Sara Cannon Handsaker. She was married July 23, 1890, at Pleasant Hill, to William L. Bristow, who was a son of Elijah Bristow, first settler of Lane county. They made their home at Pleasant Hill until the death of Mr. Bristow in 1929, when she moved into Eugene.

Mrs. Bristow was a member of Fairmount Church of Christ, and a very active worker in church circles and in temperance groups.

She is survived by two sons, Morton L. Bristow of Springfield and Arlo B. Bristow of Toledo; one daughter, Mrs. Ella G. Ketner of Gallup, N. M., who recently spent a month here with her mother; two brothers, Rev. Thomas Handsaker of San Diego, Calif., who also visited her in the past summer, and John Handsaker of Portland; one sister, Mrs. Etta Laird of Pleasant Hill; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangeemnts will be announced through the Branstetter-Simon mortuary.

Public Market

The retail price of eggs advanced at the public market Wednesday, oversize being a cent higher and Grade A large and grade A medium two cents higher. Grade A small remained the same.

All stalls handling fruits and vegetables had great quantities of peaches. The immense crop this year insures a plentiful supply for home canning.

New York Markets

By BERNARD S. O'HARE

NEW YORK, Sept. 13—(AP)—Stocks moved lower almost from the start today and under increased late selling leaders registered declines ranging from fractions to around 2 points.

Volume for the five hours was approximately 800,000 shares, largest in about a week and accounted for by the last hour bilge in offerings. Sellers appeared influenced by the market's failure to extend the slow advance of the two previous sessions, taking this as a sign of an unfavorable technical position.

Stocks in lower ground in the final hour included Goodrich, U. S. Rubber, Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, North American, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, and Great Northern.

Bonds were irregular.

It's the extra leaf that does it

It never gets a smile from Lady Luck—because the 3-leaf clover is a commoner. But—give it another leaf and you've got something. It's the fourth leaf—the extra leaf that makes it a lucky find.

And it's the "extra" that makes IMPERIAL an out-of-the-ordinary whiskey—its extra smoothness, its extra goodness. Like the 4-leaf clover, this grand blend is a lucky find—taste the difference.
