Pleasant Hill High Begins New Season

PLEASANT HILL—The Pleasant Hill high school started last week with an enrollment of 98. Registered are: freshmen 22; sophomores 26; juniors 26; and seniors 24. Mr. Otto who is principal, teaches general science and typing I; Mrs. F. F. Cooper, plane geometry, orientation, algebra, commercial law and general mathematics; Mrs. Gregg, English IV, English III, English I, cooking, and sewing; Mrs. Leonard, English II, U. S. history, world history, orchestra, social economics; Mrs. Parker, Aeronautics, biology, public speaking, geography, and bookkeeping.

Last year Mr. Leabo organized an orchestra which was so successful the board has made orchestra a regular full time subject with credit at the high school. Mrs. Leonard teaches this class but the orchestra will still practice with Mr. Leabo. Several pupils, if they can get the instruments, are taking up music. There will also be glee club work under Mrs. Gregg as of last year.

The girls' glee club was organized at the Pleasant Hill high school last week and the following officers elected: president, Olivia Farnsworth; vice-president, June Jensvold, secretary, Dorothy Tinker, treasurer, Eunice Stevens, music committee, Donna Dane, Rose Fotta.

Classes Elect

The different classes at the Pleasant Hill high school had elections Monday with the following results: freshmen, president, Helen McKinney; vice-president, Keith Kimball; secretary, Lucile Reams; treasurer, John Dowdy. Sophomore, president, Alvin Lindley; vice-president, Richard Casey; secretary-treasurer, Dan Graham; student council, Vernon Mitchell and Jim Lautz. Juniors, president, Chester Hutton; vice-president, Wanita Parr; secretary, Marie Hurford; treasurer, Donovan Kimball; student council, Dorothy Tinker and Sidney Hammond; Sarg. at Arms, George Keepers. Seniors, president, Ted Tinker; vice-president, Rose Parker; secretary, Wanda Lindley; treasurer, Jack Robertson; student council, Olevia Farnsworth and Merle Kloster.

Football practice has started at the Pleasant Hill high school.

The following teachers have been chosen as advisers for the different classes at the high school; Mrs. F. F. Cooper, senior; Mrs. Alice Gregg, junior class; Mrs. Marjorie Leonard, sophomore; Mrs. Holly Parker, freshmen.

The first high school orchestra practice of the school year was held Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham at Jasper.

At Yoncalla

YONCALLA—A potluck supper and bridal shower were held at the Hayhurst community hall recently honoring Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKirdy, who were married recently. Mr. McKirdy is with the U. S. army.

Mrs. Luthur Daugherty entertained at a dinner recently in honor of her grandson, Paul Rychard's 6th birthday.

Mrs. C. D. McElmurry entertained at a party recently in honor of her daughter Judy's third birthday.

Word was received here from Florida of the marriage of Bill Wittmeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wittmeyer, former residents of this community. Bill is a graduate of the Yoncalla high school. His bride is from Atlanta, Georgia and the wedding took place at Dayton, Florida.

Wenling News

WENDLING—At the Brownie Scout meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Holm recently, the following officers were elected: chairman, Mrs. Grover Sumner; vice president, Mrs. Charles Paris; treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Atwood; secretary, Mrs. Bill Harris; leader, Mrs. Roy Holm and assistant leader, Mrs. Delbert Metzger. The last Friday of each month the meetings will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Paris. Other meetings will be held at various places.

The first fall meeting of the Needle club will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Chandler, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 12.

The Senior Mothers' club will hold its first meeting this fall at the home of Mrs. Verd Jones, Tuesday evening, Oct. 17.

Johnny Osburn, S 2-c of Terminal Island, San Pedro, Calif., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mollie Osburn, and his sisters, Mrs. Carl Fulton and family and Mrs. Archie Allen and family.

Mrs. T. C. Payne of Ashland, is a guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. H. Gear.

The pupils of the grade school plan to sell defense stamps again this year at the school house every Tuesday.

TO MEET FRIDAY

WILLAKENZIE — The first regular meeting of the Willakenzie Parent-Teacher association will be held at the schoolhouse on Friday night at 8 o'clock. There will be a program and refreshments will be served by Mrs. Carl Rutherford, Mrs. Leslie Johnson, and Mrs. Tom Copelan.

Mrs. Myron Stevens is returning to her home in Los Angeles after spending several weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Saunders. Her husband is overseas.

New Year Opens At Alvadore School

ALVADORE — The Alvadore school began its year recently with Ellis R. Parker as principal and teacher of the upper grades and Vale Parekr as teacher of the lower grades. There were 60 pupils in attendance, more than usual.

Kenneth Eagen, who is serving in the navy, was home recently on a five-day leave, after an absence of seven months. He is attending school at Los Angeles. He was given a reception by several of his relatives, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Snow, and parents and several uncles and aunts. Misses Kathryn Odneal and Helen Vaughan were invited guests.

Apple picking is the order of the day at King's orchard, while Mr. Saunders is gathering apples and filberts.

P. E. Saunders is absent this month, serving on the federal grand jury in Portland.

Miss Luella Hansen is attending the Oregon State Normal school at Monmouth.

Reception Is Given For Grove Teachers

COTTAGE GROVE — The teachers of the Cottage Grove union high school, Jefferson, and Adams schools, were honored guests at an informal reception held at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening. The WSCS sponsored the reception. Mrs. Earl Cone, president of the society, had charge of the decorations and refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Land were in the receiving line to greet the guests. The entertainment committee composed of Frank Brown, Mrs. Alvis Wicks, and Robert Graham was in charge of the games for the evening.

The Service guild was in charge of the serving. Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Arthur Weinkauf poured, while Mrs. Harry Lewis, and Mrs. Damon Scott assisted in serving the guests.

Eagles Auxiliary

At the regular meeting of the Eagles auxiliary, held in the Eagles hall on Tuesday evening, plans were made for a Halloween party and the following committees were announced: program, Mrs. Theresa Carter, Mrs. Lois Williams, Mrs. Dorothy Harris, Mrs. Esther Corliss, Mrs. Margaret Berge, Mrs. Hazel Grimes. Decorations, Mrs. Grace Enny, Mrs. Vera Medley, Mrs. Lula McCullough, Mrs. Wilda King. Following the business meeting, the birthdays of Mrs. Mildred Powell, Mrs. Laura Greer, Mrs. Eliza Booher, Mrs. Minnie Morrison, Mrs. Grace Denny, and Mrs. Lula McCullaugh were observed. Late in the evening, refreshments were served by Mrs. Alline Andrews, Mrs. Elsie De Young, Mrs. Olive Eastburn, and Mrs. Velma Fotrester.

Birthday Event

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met for their annual birthday party on Tuesday evening. During the business meeting, an acknowledgment was received from a home at Riverside, Calif., thanking the organization for the quilt which was sent from Cottage Grove. Mrs. Hester Reed made the quilt and donated it to this home. The remainder of the evening was spent socially, Mrs. Adelia Hatch being social chairman. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hester Reed, Mrs. Mabel Powell, and Mrs. Pearl Bressler. The next social meeting will be at the apartment of Mrs. Adelia Hatch on Oct. 17, with Mrs. Margaret Lassiter as assistant hostess.

The Research club held a regular meeting in the city library on Tuesday evening. The roll call was answered by the members with items of science. Mrs. W. C. Martin presented a book review on "West to the Setting Sun," by Harvey Chalmers II. It was announced that a Halloween party is scheduled for Oct. 31. The next regular meeting of the club will be on Oct. 17.

Members of the Order of the Eastern Star from Cottage Grove, who attended the meeting at Springfield on Tuesday evening included Mrs. Ilma Thum, Mrs. Elsa Hickok, Miss Helen Olson, Mrs. Ida Williams, Mrs. Kitty McMullen, Mrs. Ina Godard, Mrs. Nettie Gawley, Mrs. Gladys Hall, Mrs. Velma Harrell, Mrs. Harriet Horn, Miss Eunice Van Denburg.

Saturday Calendar

7:30 p. m. — The Hebron grange will meet for a business meeting at the grange hall.

AT PLEASANT HILL

PLEASANT HILL — Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Tinker and two children Sharlene, and Gene, and Dorothy Frahes are spending a few days at Kitson.

Rev. and Mrs. Dwight Brown, wife and son of Bakersfield, Calif. visited friends at Pleasant Hill last week.

Mrs. Kelly Coffin and two children of Corvallis are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Olson.

Bob Olson has received word from his draft board to take his physical at Portland October 19.

Mrs. Evelyn Frahes and Mrs. Bonnie Bradshaw are vacationing at Heceta Beach. Mrs. Bradshaw recently received word that her husband, Sergeant George Bradshaw has landed in France and is in the Cherbourg district. Capt. Maurice Frahes also is in France.

Ralph Laird, Lawrence Laird, P. N. Laird and Alex Mathews have gone to eastern Oregon.

Corporal Vernon Murphy who is in radar in the coast artillery at Port Angeles spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. E. B. Tinker.

Rally Day Set For Church At Elmira

ELMIRA—The Elmira Church of Christ is to have rally day, Sunday, Oct. 8. There is to be special program, including several numbers from the Northwest Christian college, and a basket dinner at noon. Everyone interested is invited to come.

The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Emelia Riensche. Each member brought her own fancywork. The club members are to send birthday cards to the boys in the service. Next meeting is to be with Mrs. Roy Evers.

Elmira high school enrollment was 120 the first week and more are coming. Election of class officers was held as follows: seniors: president, Darrel Nichols; vice president, Harry Swanson; secretary, Hazel David. Sophomores: president, Norman Marsh; vice president, Charles Brown, secretary, Phyllis Christensen. Juniors: president, Billy Guile; vice president, Melvin Olsen; secretary, Melva Burns. Freshmen: president, Jack Nelson; vice president, Charlette Sellers; secretary, Robrta Glenn.

Junction City News Of Week Reported

JUNCTION CITY — A meeting of the Women's council of the Christian church will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 10, in the social hall of the church.

The annual Christian church rally will be held this year on Sunday, Oct. 8, beginning at 11 a.m. A potluck dinner will be served at non. Services will be held in both the afternon and evening. A special program of music by the girls' trio of the Northwest Christian College of Eugene has been planned for the evening.

A week day Bible school class was started Tuesday, Oct. 3, for grade school students at the grade school. Delta Price has charge of third, fourth, and fifth grades and Marshall Gilchrist has charge of sixth, seventh, and eighth grades.

A regular meeting of Boy Scouts, troop 15, was held at the social hall of the Christian church recently. Plans for a hike were discussed and amount of scout dues decided upon. Officers for the coming half year weer elected as follows: senior patrol leader, Jack Ross; patrol leader of the Fox patrol, Jack Wheeler; assistant patrol leader of the Fox patrol, Robert Barns; patrol leader of the Beaver patrol, Bill Hansen; assistant patrol leader of the Beaver patrol, John Hensey, and scribe, Donald Empey. After the election games were played.

Grange Organized, Elects Officers

YONCALLA — At a meeting held in the Hayhurst community hall recently, the Hayhurst grange was organized. The following officers were elected: master, Leonard Brooks; overseer, Robert Dudley; secretary, Mrs. Bernice Mideke; lecturer, Mrs. Art Rychard; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Dudley; steward, Fletcher Miller; chaplain, Mrs. Edna Miller; lady assistant steward, Patricia Brooks; assistant steward, Cassius Rychard; gate-keeper, Henry Hubbell; Ceres, Elizabeth Brooks; Pomona, Mrs. Cassius Rychard; Flora, Mrs. Harold Phillips; other charter members are: Mrs. Tom McKirdy, Mrs. Webb Huntington, Webb Huntington, I. L. Ehrlick, Mrs. C. A. Perkins, Mr. C. A. Perkins, Harold Phillips, Mrs. Henry Hubbell, Kenneth McKirdy and Homer McKirdy.

Leslie Wright went to Eugene where he will attend the university of Oregon this winter.

Installation of officers was held Thursday evening at the hall. Members of Kellogg and Riverside granges installed. The first and third Tuesday evenings of each month will be their regular meeting nights.

Evangelistic meetings are being held at the Christian church by B. Ross Evans each night except Monday night.

An all-day meeting and basket dinner was held at the Assembly of God church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Chapman, bible teacher from Canyonville, delivered all three messages. Mrs. Chapman, Misses Prat, Patterson, and Barrett helped with the music and singing.

The annual teachers reception for Yoncalla teachers and teachers from the rural schools, was held at the Methodist church recently, with the ladies of the W. S. C. S. as hostesses. H. L. Stonaker acted as master of ceremonies in the absence of Rev. Fred Hunt. Mr. Stonaker introduced the rural teachers. Mrs. William Ladd pinned corsages on teachers as they were introduced. Mr. Persons, high school principal, introduced the teachers of the Yoncalla school. The program consisted of a vocal duet by Mrs. Ray Atkinson and her daughter, Lorraine; reading by Phyllis Wright; violin solo, Reese Rodabaugh; violin solo, Elmer Daugherty; vocal solo, Mrs. McMichael; and several musical numbers by the Dudley family. Refreshments were served i- the Epworth hall. Mrs. Howard Hartley and Mrs. H. L. Stonaker poured. About one hundred guests were present.

Sir H. Spencer Jones has given the most precise estimate of the sun's distance from the earth—93,003,000 miles, with a degree of uncertainty of about 10,000 miles.

Meteors are relatively small stores of rock swept up by the earth as it revolves around the sun.

Theta Rho Girls Report Meeting

The Theta Rho girls met on Monday evening at the IOOF hall for a pot-luck dinner, followed by a regular business session. There were 18 girls and three members of the Rebekah lodge present.

During the business meeting, it was announced that the following girls will meet on Thursday evening, Oct. 5, at the home of Barbara Robinson to make plans for a Halloween dance; Barbara Robinson, Minnie Morris, Sharon Hoyer, Pat Sorenson, Donna Porterfield. This meeting is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock. It was announced that 18 Theta Rho girls attended church services at the Methodist church on Sept. 24. The next meeting will be on Oct. 16, when nominations for new officers will be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mills entertained the O. W. Dinner club at their home on Monday evening. Mrs. C. A. Bartel of Arcita, Calif., Bill Helliwell, who is here on leave from the navy and Miss Lola Howe of Cottage Grove were guests.

Several residents of Cottage Grove attended the dinner and meeting in Eugene on Monday evening, opening the national war fund drive. E. R. Husted and Leo Rickard represented District No. 3, while Damon Scott, Frank Brown, and Robert Graham represented District No. 2 at this meeting.

The Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War will meet at the home of Mrs. Rodney Safely on Monday evening, Oct. 16.

FROM MONROE

MONROE—The ladies of the St. Rose Altar society of the Catholic church met at the rectory last week for a covered dish luncheon, and made plans for their winter activities, which included a chicken dinner to be held in the Woodman hall in November, and a series of card parties, the first one to be held in October.

Robert Goracke and Melvin Becker were hosts at a party Friday evening for the Catholic young folk of the parishes of Monroe and Harrisburg, held at the Martin C. Goracke home. The evening was spent in various games and a waffle feed.

The children of the Monroe grade school had their pictures taken last week by an out-of-town photographer. The pupils of each of the four rooms were taken separately in a group.

The students at the high school enjoyed a show given at the school Friday afternoon.

Sunny Brook dairy has again taken over the milk route here in Monroe. The change was effective the first of this month. Prior to this the Delmar Larkin dairy delivered milk to Monroe customers.

Mr. and Mrs. Slim Vineyard are busy at this time rebuilding their home, which was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Until they get their new home so they can move into it, the Vineyard family is living at the home of Mrs. Vineyard's brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Koroush.

The grade school, under the direction of Mrs. Wood, principal, took up a canned fruit donation for the Vineyards last week. On Friday evening after school, Mrs. Wood delivered the boxes of fruit to them.

WALTERVILLE NOTES

WALTERVILLE — Mrs. Donald Alexander and daughter, Lois, who had been at Vallejo, Calif., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hills, have returned home. While at Vallejo Mrs. Aleaxnder was able to see her husband, Donald Alexander, seaman 1-c, but before she left there he was transferred farther south. Mrs. Alexander will return to Vallejo if Mr. Alexander is sent back in that vicinity.

The Walterville school service club held its first meeting of the year Friday evening, combined with a reception for the teacher, Will Irvin. A large number attended the affair and the business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Orville Rankins. Norma Lee Rankins sang a solo and Lauren Alexander gave a reading. A discussion on V day was brought up and left until the next meeting and a decision to dispense with hot lunches for the winter was made.

The Walterville Christian Endeavor society will hold its regular monthly business meeting for the month of October at the Presbyterian church social room Saturday evening, Oct. 7. Refreshments will be announced among the young people later in the week. Miss Norma Lou Wiest is president of the group for the coming year.

The Walterville Sunday school district conference will be held Sunday, Oct. 8, at Donna church, beginning at 2 p.m. Young people of the district are being asked to furnish the special numbers for the afternoon.

LOWER CAMP CREEK

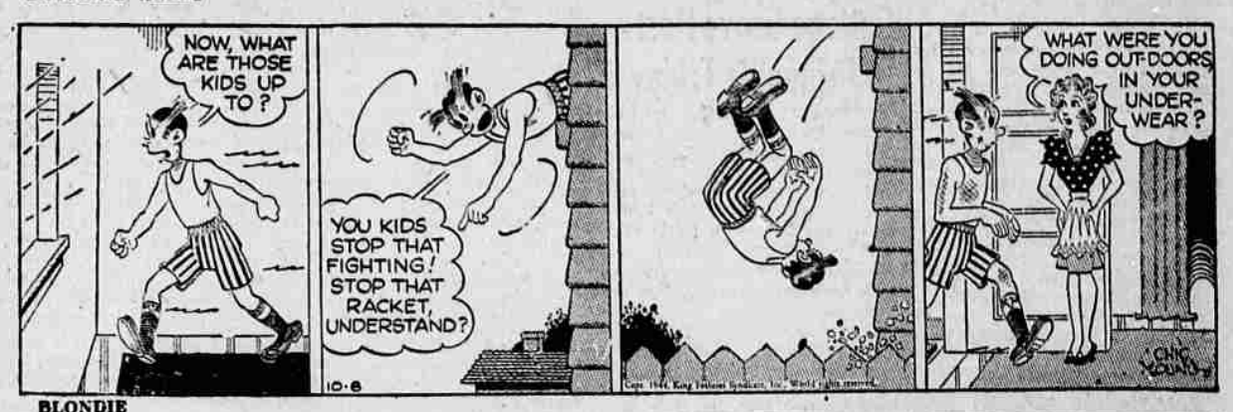
LOWER CAMP CREEK — A friendship shower was given Mrs. Lawrence Crabtree at the Community hall recently with Mrs. Carl Terpening, Mrs. Glen Le Vee, and Mrs. Guy Stephens as hostesses.

The Lower Camp Creek school has 18 pupils enrolled as follows: first grade, Billy Chase, Phillis Willets, Mary Ann Lane; second grade, Lelie Roberts, Shelby Whipps; third grade, Joanne Chase, George Roberts; fourth grade, Donnie Lane; fifth grade, Connie Watson, Hazel Willets; sixth grade, Dannie Lane, Marjorie Willets; seventh grade, Patty Ebbert, Ruth Whipps; eighth grade Wayne Willets, Donnie Chase, Irvine Barklew, Louise Whipps. Mrs. Lola Lane is the teacher.

On Friday, Oct. 6, everyone is asked to meet at the church all day and work and paint. There will be a potluck dinner at noon.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY



BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

WORK AT SCHOOL

MOHAWK—The quarterly conference o fthe Walterville Sunday school district will be held at the local church Sunday, Oct. 8, at 2 p.m. Seth Byers, president, has special music and speical speakers for the occasion. Sunday school and church will be held at the usual hour in the morning.

The grade school recently held its own "labor day." The school yard was cleaned and the rubbish burned, chairs weer made for use of the recitation classes, and paper covers were made for books. The youngsters then enjoyed a wiener roast.

Mrs. Joanna McCornack recently entertained the Music club at its regular meeting. A program was given and special study centered around those popular patriotic songs of the Revoluntinary period. Guests were Mrs. Lela Seavey, Mrs. Eva Mae Bowerly, Mrs. Florence Massey, and Mrs. Mabel Crowe. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ruby

SCHOOL GROUPS ELECT

YONCALLA — The Yoncalla high school student body elected the following officers for this year: President, Jack McDaniels; vice-president, George Meyers; treasurer, Harvey Bragg; sergeant-at-arms, Don Rychard; yell leader, Lylia Jean Campbell, and manager, Bill McKern. Officers for senior class are: President, Keith Crow; vice-president, Bill McKern; secretary, Edith Clark, and treasurer, Betty McGinitie. Junior class: President, Jeanne Lunney, vice-president, Don Rychard; secretary, Lavonne Hartford; treasurer, George Meyers; class reporters, Eugene Merk and Jeanne Lunney. Sophomore class: President, Oliver Martin; ice-president, Georgia Mae Miller; secretary, Letha June Langdon; treasurer, Lylia Jean Campbell, and reporter, Phyllis Wright. Freshman class: President, Norval Ritchey; vice-president, Edward Vest; secretary, Lucy Ann Parsons; treasurer, Anna Marie Huntington, and reporter, Wanda Long.